Last week was the reign of the milliners, and Flesherton femininity turned out in force to do them homage. Each held her little court in a perfect bower of lace, flowers and ribbons, and was all smiles and courtesy to such as entered her charming presence. I myself was a recipient of their grace, and was initiated into some of the season's secrets.

One noticeable feature is black flowers—black lilacs, black violets, etc., not meant for mourning. This proclaims itself French; for such a trifle as adherence to the natural never troubles the French conception of beauty, at least as far as millinery is concerned. Still there is an undeniable charm about a hat trimmed with these black flowers, mixed with any color of lace or ribbon you please, which brings the words "chic" and "feting" to ones lips.

Besides the black flowers there seems to be a touch of black on nearly every hat—in jet, or lace, or ospreys.

Tiny horseshoe bonnets framed in wire and net, and having a border of bright silvery or "gold" beads, trimmed airily with lace and steel or "gold" ornaments—to match the beads—and having long ties of lace coming from the back, are in much favor. I also noticed ties of lace on some of the hats, and there is really nothing more becoming to the average woman's face than a delicate frame of lace filling in the space from chin to hair.

Speaking of ties reminds me that our milliners have not forgotten to introduce the latest solicitor for favor, the large butterfly bow with long ends and made of lace or ribbon (moire has the preference) to be worn at the throat.

Many beautiful fabrics are shown for spring and summer wear. The delaines are cheap and are so satisfactory, as they look fully as well after being washed.

But what is so convenient as the serge skirt and blazer with a pretty silk or muslin blouse? With a half-a-dozen varieties of blouses you have as many changes of costume and according to whether the blouse is cotton, wool or silk it is suitable for morning, noon or evening wear.

Brown is the color of harmony, that is may be used as the basis for harmony with any other color. All shadows have more or less of brown in them, and in almost all colors may be found a trace of this all pervading tint. Therefore it is a truly artistic instinct which has made combinations of brown and black, so stylish this season—not to mention brown pink, brown blue, brown green etc., which have already been worn, and will be, more than ever.

What a feast for the eye and the mind the beginning of the month brings to those who have one, two or three magazines coming into their homes. And what home need be without at least one? True some of them are expensive, but the Cosmopolitan is within reach of all, only $1.50 per year. Its illustrations are in the highest degree of excellence and in themselves have an educative influence incalculable.

The Century has a series of pictures this month, "From the old world to the new," by Andre Castaigne, which is enough to enrich half-a-dozen magazines beside having a fine frontispiece and many other illustrations. I have spoken this much about the pictures because it is in that department the greatest advancement has been made of late years, and because it is just in that line we need the most culture, as the things which make for artistic development are so deficient in this new country.

As for the reading matter, while it is entertaining, it puts one in touch with the latest thought of the brightest minds. In fact magazines are the mirrors of the passing phases of thought, as a lake receives into its placid depths the changing panorama of cloud and sun.

But if we refuse to look into the lake and keep our eyes fixed only on the dusky way of life, we will miss all those beautiful effects; unless indeed we are of those strong ones who can dare look the sun in the face and watch his march across the heavens on our own account.

Every woman should aim to have a good, well illustrated magazine. It will be a constantly recurring pleasure—a pleasure renewed twelve times a year, and one that may be shared by every member of the household.

After Typhoid Fever.

HARVEY NEFF HAS KIDNEY DISEASE, WHICH DOCTORS COULD NOT CURE—DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS RESTORED HIM TO PERFECT HEALTH.

PORT COLBORNE, April 9—In March, 1893, Harvey H. Neff, of this place, had a bad attack of typhoid fever. Good nursing and medical attendance brought him around but the attack left him a victim of kidney disease. This the doctors failed to cure, but Dodd's kidney pills, the infallible remedy, did the same good work in his case as in all others and Mr. Neff is well to-day. Dodd's was the first kidney remedy in pill form ever offered the public. Its wonderful success in curing all forms of kidney disease, has led to the introduction of numerous cheap and worthless imitations. Purchasers, for their own safety should insist on getting Dodd's Kidney Pills. Sold in large boxes; price fifty cents per box, or six boxes for $2.50. To be had by of all dealers.

Mrs. J. H. HORSNYDER, 152 Pacific Ave., Santa Cruz, Cal., writes:
"When a girl at school, in Reading, Ohio, I had a severe attack of brain fever. On my recovery, I found myself perfectly bald, and, for a long time, I feared I should be permanently so. Friends urged me to use Ayer's Hair Vigor, and, on doing so, my hair

Began to Grow, and I now have as fine a head of hair as one could wish for, being changed, however, from blonde to dark brown."

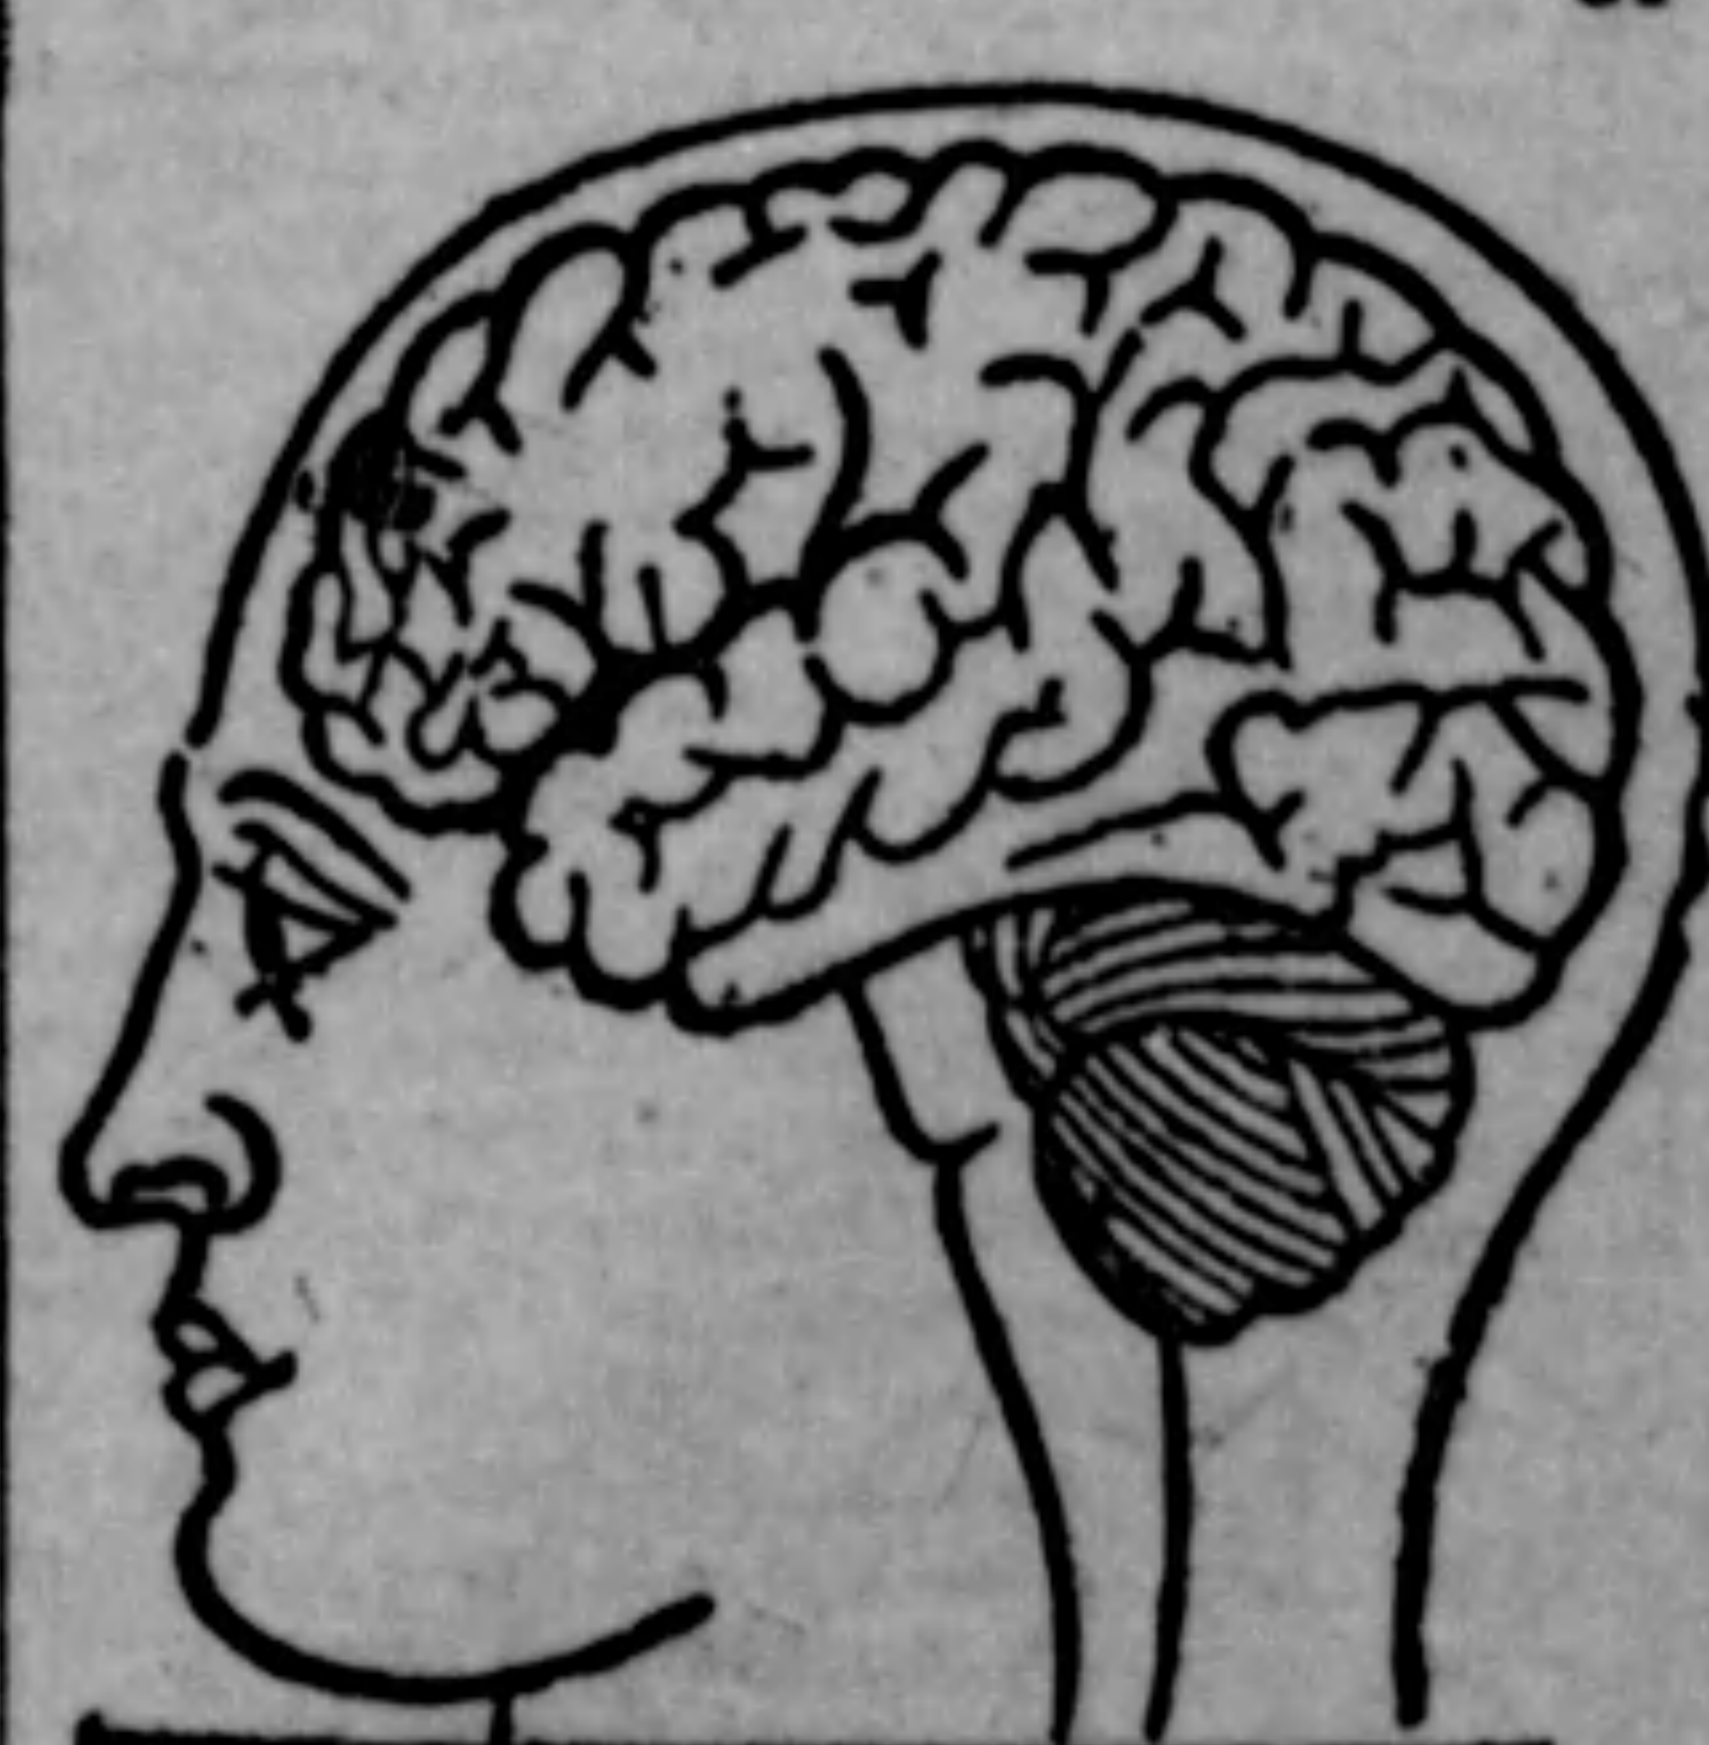

"After a fit of sickness, my hair came out in combfalls. I used two bottles of Ayer's Hair Vigor and now my hair is over a yard long and very full and heavy. I have recommended this preparation to others with like good effect."—Mrs. Sidney Carr, 1460 Regina st., Harrisburg, Pa.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for several years and always obtained satisfactory results. I know it is the best preparation for the hair that is made."—C. T. Arnett, Mammoth Spring, Ark.

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN NERVINE & TONIC

AND STOMACH and LIVER CURE.
The Wonderful HEALTH BUILDER & NERVE FOOD.
Chronic Diseases are caused by Deranged Nerve Centres at base of Brain.

nerve centres, will cause the derangement of the different organs of the body which they supply with NERVE FLUID or NERVE FORCE.

The wonderful success of South American Nervine is due alone to the fact that it is based on the foregoing principle. The use of a single bottle of this remedy will convince the most incredulous. It is indeed, a veritable NERVE FOOD and WILL RELIEVE IN ONE DAY the varied forms of nervous disease and stomach troubles.

Nervous - Diseases.

This class of diseases, is rapidly increasing each year, on account of the great wear our mode of living and labor impose upon the nervous system. Nine-tenths of all the ailments to which the human family is heir, are dependent upon nervous exhaustion, impaired digestion, and a deteriorated and impoverished condition of the blood. The South American Nervine is a great nerve food and nerve builder and this accounts for its marvelous power to cure the varied forms of nervous disease, such as Neuralgia, Nervousness, Nervous Prostration, St. Vitus's Dance, Nervous choking, Nervous Paroxysms, Twitching of the Muscles, Hot Flashes, Mental Depondency, Forgetfulness, Sleeplessness, Restlessness, Nervousness of Females, Palpitation of the Heart, Sexual Weakness, etc., etc.
