Mr. Harry Wilson had a close call from instantaneous death one day last week in Moore's planing factory. A knife in the planer broke and a piece flew and struck him on the face. Had it not been for a guard over the knife, which arrested the force, Mr. Wilson might have been a dead man to-day.

With the blood full of humors, the heated term is all the more oppressive. Give the system a thorough cleansing with Ayer's Sarsaparilla and a dose or two of Ayer's Pills, and you will enjoy Summer as never before in your life. Just try this for once, and you'll never repeat it.

A number of Flesherton young men went over to Markdale to see the Owen Sound-Markdale baseball match. It was a good one, the score standing: Owen Sound 15, Markdale 13. Markdale has a good team and did some extra fine playing, but appeared to get somewhat rattled when Owen Sound men brought out their consumptive bazooks. Markdale young men are not used to such heathenish noises.

From our own Correspondent. The "haunted school-house" is still the topic of conversation in this burg. We spent half a day in that now notorious institution and were completely non-plussed as to the cause of the strange humming sounds that emanated from apparently different parts of the building. As we saw the Editor of the Advance coming from the scene of excitement last Monday we will refrain from further discussion of the subject which will no doubt be graphically described in another column for the benefit and enlightenment of the Advance readers.

Mr. Robert McNally, one of Artemesia's prosperous farmers, no longer works alone. On Wednesday, the 6th inst., he was united in marriage to one of Artemesia's fairest daughters, in the person of Catherine, 3rd daughter of Alex. McMillan, Esq. About 6 p. m. on aforesaid day a large congregation of relations and friends assembled to witness the ceremony conducted by the Rev. D. McLeod, B. A., of Priceville. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Colin McLean and the bride was assisted by her sister Jessie. The bride was prettily attired in a pale blue costume trimmed with white. After the nuptial knot was tied, the company sat down to a table, laden with all the delicacies of the season. The Rev. D. McLeod occupied the head of the table, on his right sat the bride and groom, and on his left Mr. and Mrs. John McArthur, of Priceville. The wedding presents were both numerous and valuable. After doing justice to the viands, Mr. John McMillan entertained the company with several Gaelic songs, as also did Mr. A. McMillan, father of the bride. The younger portion of the guests whiled away a few hours in the evening by tripping the fantastic. We wish the happy couple much joy.

Crowds continued to visit the haunted school last week, but as there is no teaching going on in the building, his spookship makes himself scarce. Hence many have gone away very badly disappointed lately.
