Epping.

From our own correspondent.

The Orangemen gathered in a body to the church Sunday morning when Rev. Mr. Brown preached a stirring patriotic sermon, taking for his text the words found in 5th and 6th verses of the 137th Psalm. A very large congregation greeted the speaker. A pleasant feature of the service was the singing of two anthems by Mr. Gibson, of Meaford.

Several of the farmers in this vicinity have commenced haying.

Mrs. R. T. Whitten, of Flesherton, spent last week visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dally.

Eugenia

From our own correspondent.

The people of Eugenia are making great preparations to give the Orangemen a right royal welcome to our romantic little town.

The crops in this locality look well. The farmers are happy at the prospect of a good harvest.

The bridge over the Beaver river at Eugenia is now in the course of erection. The old bridge being torn down, it is very inconvenient for the people, as teams have to drive through the water.

Mr. Wells preached a special sermon to the Orangemen on Sabbath last in the grove adjoining the Orange Hall. A very large number were present. The sermon was an excellent one and was listened to with great attention by all present.

Mr. John Williams, Jr., says he is the happiest man in town, of course the recent arrival of a young Orangeman at his house has something to do with it. Bob Purvis and Dick Parks are happy over the recent arrival of little boys at their places.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fenwick, of Tara, are visiting their friends here at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Purvis, of Toronto, spent some time visiting friends around Eugenia.

Master Willie and Miss Mary Purvis, of Toronto, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. H. M. Bowerman.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fenwick paid a visit to friends at Orangeville on Dominion Day.

Several large picnics from different parts came to spend Dominion Day at Eugenia. Everybody seems to think that there is no place like Eugenia for having a good time.

Mrs. Somers, of the Eugenia House, paid a short visit to Toronto the past week.

Meaford Road.

From our own correspondent.

The 4th of July has come and passed away, and so has the annual picnic of the Wesley Church Sabbath School, which was in all respects a most decided success. Not only was the immediate neighborhood well represented by both old and young, but from outlying points there was a large turnout. The weather was fine and all present seemed to enjoy themselves to their heart's content. After partaking of a most excellent tea, provided by the good ladies of the neighborhood, the crowd betook themselves to a field opposite the grove where an interesting game of baseball between the Kimberley and Vandeleur baseball teams was played, resulting in another victory for the visiting team. Everything passed off without murmur or complaint, and about sunset the large gathering began to wend their way to their respective homes.

Some around here started to cut their hay last week. They report a light crop. Mr. Buchanan has started work on the new school house and will rush it to completion as fast as possible.

Mr. E. Knight, from Toronto, is visiting friends in this vicinity.

Mr. Wm. Stamborskey is building himself a new house. It looks as though Will meant business.

This village will henceforth be second to none as far as musical accommodation is concerned. During the last week no less than three pianos have been placed here at the respective homes of Mrs. Wansboro, Mrs. Ashdown and Miss Woods.

Quite a number of visitors from the city and elsewhere are rustivating in this vicinity:

Priceville.

From our own correspondent.

Owing to the pressure of business and other multifarious duties we have got somewhat behind in our correspondence.

The holiday season has come with its picnics, garden parties and excursions. One of the best picnics of the season took place on Monday, the 2nd inst., in connection with the S. O. T. who drove out to Eugenia falls in a body on that day and spent a very pleasant time.

The Presbyterian S. S. intend holding their annual picnic near Priceville on the 12th of July. A similar gathering is to take place on the 14th of July in connection with the Methodist S. S. if all things are favourable.

Misses Jennie James, Martha Brander and Flora McMillan and Messrs. John McLeod and John McKinnon wrote on the Primary Exam. last week in Durham from the Priceville P. S.

Principal Blakeston took a class over to the "haunted school" lately but failed to ruffle its spookship as not the least noise could be heard notwithstanding the recitation of the multiplication tables in right down old-fashioned style.

Our Dominic took a trip over to Mr. Thos. McArthur's last Wednesday afternoon to take in the barn raising. Shortly after the men were called and work commenced at putting the bents together, W. J. B. was noticed limping towards dry land, carrying his left brogan in his hand. Upon further inquiries it was found that our pedagogue had allowed a stick of timber to drop upon the right-hand corner of his left foot with such force as to darken the nails on two of the projections of the aforesaid corner. Over 100 members of the Orange fraternity assembled in the Orange Hall, Maxwell, on Sunday, and marched to St. Mary's church, where an impressive and instructive sermon was preached by Rev. J. W. Jones, County Chaplain of the Order.

The picnic in connection with the Methodist S. S. was not a success. Rain prevented.

Mount Zion.

The Sunday school entertainment on the 17th, is expected to be quite a general affair.
