Carriages and Wagons,

GENTLEMEN:

I DESIRE TO ANNOUNCE that I have taken over the Carriage and Wagon making business lately carried on by Mr. Moore, and am now prepared to fill all orders in my line to your entire satisfaction. Having lately added to my sixteen years' experience in the business a nine months' training in one of the best carriage shops in the city of Detroit, where I succeeded in carrying off a first class recommendation, ought to be a sufficient guarantee that all work will be done in a first class manner. I manufacture Wagons, Buggies, Cutters, Sleighs; in fact everything in the carriage line. Wood and lumber taken in exchange. Kindly give me a call.

Kimberley.

From our own correspondent.

Owing to the elections and 12th July celebrations, we got behind with our correspondence, but now as we have got sobered up we will try and write something.

Mr. J. R. Fawcett is building an addition to our school, and we are to have two teachers after holidays.

Mr. Ruf. Wicken's boy that got kicked on the 2nd of July, is, we are glad to say, recovering.

The Orange lodge of this place celebrated the 12th in Thornbury.

The baseball match which was played on the 4th of July, at Vandeleur, between their club and Kimberley, resulted in a victory for the latter by a score of 25 to 5.

We were pleased to see ye Editor on Friday, who came over on his bike with his little son sitting in front of him on the same machine.

The farmers are busy housing their hay, which is a fair crop.

Epping.

From our own correspondent.

The home of Mr. Jas. Clugson was the scene of a very happy event Tuesday of last week, when his daughter Miss Ella was united in marriage to Mr. Smith of Tara. Quite a company of friends witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Mr. McLaren. Miss Maud Devitt acted as bridesmaid, while the groom's brother performed a like office for him. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left for their home near Tara, followed by the good wishes of a host of friends. May they live long and happy is the wish of your humble scribe.

Mr. Wm. Welsh has got his barn moved onto the wall and is an improvement. Mr. Jas. Thompson, of Meaford, was the engineer. Mr. S. McKnight will raise his large frame shed on Wednesday.

A large congregation gathered on Sunday morning to hear Mr. W. Wallace's first sermon in Epping church. All seemed well pleased with his effort. He took for his text the words "What think ye of Christ?"

Mrs. G. Matthewson is laid up with a very lame knee.

Miss Maggie Black, of Meaford High School, is home for holidays.

Miss Polly Gilray is spending holidays at home.

Everybody is busy at haying or fall wheat.

Eugenia

From our own correspondent.

The ever glorious twelfth passed over very pleasantly. Although such a large gathering was present there was nothing but peace and good order throughout the day. Tents were numerous, some poor creatures coming all the way from Markdale, with their few candies and peanuts and greens. Of course they were welcome along with the other vendors who came from all parts to pick up a few cents.

The Orangemen and others worked like beavers putting up arches and decorating the town for the visiting brethren, and everyone seemed well pleased with the reception they received.

Miss Lizzie Bradbury, who has been sick for a long time, died on the morning of the thirteenth. Her aged father and mother, and brothers have the sympathy of all for their sad loss. She was a young woman who was loved and esteemed by all who knew her. She died trusting in her Saviour's Promises. A large number followed her remains to Salem burying ground. Rev. Mr. Wells conducted the burial service. She is laid to rest to await a happy resurrection.

Mr. John Speers and Mr. Joseph H. Fenwick, of Mayfield, came up to spend the twelfth at Eugenia.

The young people feel pretty lonesome since the teacher, Mr. Johnston, went home on his holidays, but they hope to see him back again, hale and hearty as ever.

Haying is now in full swing. The crop is not so heavy as last year, but the potato bugs are as plenty as ever. They never fail.

Proton Station.

From our own correspondent.

Since our last report crops in this district are looking very satisfactory with the exception of hay, which seems to be a general failure throughout the Province. However, the farmers are engaged at present making hay while the sun shines.

The party, last week, at the residence of Mr. Wm. White, was fairly well represented by our young people.

Miss Lotie Campbell, of Michigan, formerly of Proton, is spending her holidays with friends here, but the smiling countenance of J. B. is sadly missed.

Mrs. Jas. Hodgins, who has been spending some time in Barrie, has returned.

Everybody is growling about hard times, but none so bad as the two fellows who were offered $13 per month to harvest.

Mr. Abe Shearson spent a few days recently in Hamilton. We are not informed if it was a business trip or—hum.

Bears have made their presence felt on the farm of Mr. Wes. Buskin by killing five of his sheep. They have been seen and shot at several times and deadfalls set to entrap their lordships, but at last accounts they are masters of the situation and hold the fort.

There appeared a statement in last week's Advance, which we feel it our duty to explain and correct. That is, in reference to the game of football played by the Flesherton vs. Proton Station football teams. The item should have read one goal to nothing in favor of Proton. The goal claimed by the Flesherton boys was not scored constitutionally as the rules distinctly state that the ball must be wilfully handled by one of the opposing side before a penalty kick can be claimed. Therefore the Flesherton team had no right to the penalty kick, as the Proton player did not handle the ball wilfully and it was a mistake of the referee to allow it to be taken, as he himself admits. As one of the players, I think it my duty also, by the captain's request, to make this explanation of the treatment while there. We will say nothing of it nor of how many of the players had to go home without supper. Thanking you for your space Mr. Editor, I remain your correspondent.

Dundalk.

From our own correspondent.

The 12th of July was celebrated in Dundalk, about three thousand people being in attendance, eight lodges being present, three being Y. M. P. B. A. The concert given in the evening under the auspices of Court Invincible, 1167, I. O. F., was largely attended. Jimmy was there and the Fax are he knows how to make you laugh. The band gave some very good selections and Dundalk can justly feel proud of her band.

Court Invincible 1167 was organized in Dundalk in October 1892, and has a membership now of twenty-nine, who carry insurance to the amount of thirty-thousand dollars. Owing to members moving away from town the membership has remained at about thirty for some time, but the order as a whole, had, May 1 '94, a total membership of 59,607 and a surplus fund 1st June '94 of $951,571.62. The last twelve months show again in the membership of over 12,000. Hard times does not affect them, and as for unfriendly criticism the I.O.F. actually thrives on it. The increase in surplus fund for the year is $278,485.70, not bad, as according to certain prophets, the surplus fund was to have ceased years ago and then gradually and surely disappear.

Rev. E. A. Harrison, of the Presbyterian church in Dundalk, was in attendance at the 13th International Christian Endeavor Convention held in Cleveland July 11 to 15. A beautiful and encouraging letter was read to the Y. P. S. C. E. from him on Monday evening of this Maxwell.

From our own correspondent.

On Sunday morning, July 8th, St. Mary's Church, Maxwell, was crowded throughout every portion of the building, and that, too, long before the time for the commencement of the service. Large numbers had to go away from the doors for lack of room. The occasion was the annual service in connection with the Loyal Orange Association. The members of L. O. L. 666 formed into procession, and were accompanied by a large number of brethren from the neighboring lodges. The sermon was preached by the County Chaplain, Brother John W. Jones, the rector of St. Mary's Church, who has had the honor of preaching to them for the past three years in succession. The text was taken from 1 Chronicles XII 32: "Men that had understanding of the times." After bidding the brethren welcome to St. Mary's Church and congratulating them on their marked success during the past year, the speaker pointed out the leading aims and objects of the association, all of which he affirmed were most commendable. Their regard for the word of God in these days especially could not be too highly spoken of. It was not so much from the fact of England's greatness or her victories, or her power, that we derive our inspiration, as from the fact that God was in her midst. He then reminded them of their privilege of belonging to such a nation and said that the cause of her greatness was rightly stated by her queen (a queen among women) to be the Bible. He concluded with an appeal to all to thank God for his presence in our midst and for such a sovereign, to yield themselves to his mighty power, to stand up for true liberty, an open Bible and everything else that goes to maintain the integrity of this great nation. The singing of the National Anthem formed a part of the closing service.
