Kimberley.

From our own correspondent.

As News has been so hard to get I have not sent you any weekly budget as regularly as was my custom.

Our farmers in this valley are hustling through with their harvest, some of them being nearly through.

The fall wheat is being threshed and is a good crop. We are informed that one man threshed off twenty acres two hundred and seventy bushels.

Mr. Geo. Walter drove over to Walters Falls on Saturday evening and his sister accompanied him home.

Mr. Jno. Hanna and wife are visiting friends in Durham and vicinity.

Mr. W. H. Thurston, of The Advance, Flesherton, spent Sunday with his parents.

Mr. Geo. Proctor is plastering the school house this week.

Mr. Jas. Hamilton, an old chum of ours whom we had not seen for nine years, gave us a very welcome call on Thursday. He was formerly a Markdale boy but now resides in Muskegon, Michigan.

Mr. Wright, of Proton Station, and Miss Campbell, of Grindstone City, Mich. paid our burg a visit on Sunday.

Flesherton Station.

From our own Correspondent.

Times are rather quiet around here at present.

The farmers in this vicinity are all beginning their harvesting.

Our blacksmith also says it is the dry weather that suits his harvest, the wet days seem to damage his trade.

Mr. R. P. Legate is doing a good business in shingles this season.

Messrs. Pickle & Cook have shipped 500 sheep and lambs during the past few days. Seven car loads have passed through here, although the Toronto stock markets are verging to their lowest point.

Mr. Jas. McMullen visited Buffalo and reports very bad markets there also.

Quite a number of our citizens took in the picnic to Orangeville on Saturday last. Among them Mr. and Mrs. Donald McKenzie, of this place.

Mrs. Cook and the Misses Millie and Mary Cook are absent on a trip to the city. The girls are entering a Toronto college for young ladies which they will attend for a time as a final to their school days.

County and District.

A Brant farmer had to fork over $22.55 damages and costs as the result of his dog killing three sheep and a lamb belonging to one of his neighbors.

A bank barn, almost new, belonging to Mr. Isaac Queen, con. 8, Egremont, was burned down at half-past two Friday morning. The owner attributes the fire to a tramp whom he says he saw leaving the building. The barn was insured for $1,600 in the Phoenix.

The latest superstition is that if a girl takes the small bow which fastens the lining of a man's hat and wears it inside her shoe, she will have a proposal from the youth inside a month. The success of the scheme may be open to question, but it is proving very destructive to the hats.

Mr. D. Mann, a Hillsburg hotelkeeper, appears to have employed a lot of typical bartenders on July 2nd. On the morning of the day in question he put $120 in change in the tills, and during the day he did a roaring trade. There were no less than four bartenders employed, and naturally enough, Mr. M. expected to reap a rich harvest. Judge of his more than amazement when, on counting his receipts at the close of the day, he found only $56, or a little less than half the amount he had put in the till for change.

The North Grey fall fair is being boomed this year for all it is worth. It will be held in Owen Sound on Sept. 18, 19 and 20th, and the Lieut.-Governor has accepted an invitation to be present and open the show.

Mr. Donald Black, 4th con., Glenelg, bagged a bear on Sunday week. Bruin had been boarding on Mr. Black's mutton, therefore Mr. Black bored him.

Now the boarder from the city roams the field a careless rover, trying hard to tell the difference between Indian corn and clover. For the turnip tree he searches and he seeks with zeal divine for the rutabaga orchard and the spreading parsnip vine; climbs the grape vine for bananas, and through fragrant fields he cuts, scanning elderberry bushes in his search for coconuts; and through swamps and tangled forests with unwearied feet he pushes, searching day by day in patience for the watermelon bushes; and he asks the startled farmer if he's through his nutmeg hoeing; how his lemon vines are growing; if he's dug his barley hay crop, if he's sowed his sweet potatoes; if his slippery elm is planted, if he's grafted his tomatoes; if he's trimmed his early grass trees, if he thinks there is more money in potato bugs than raising honeysuckle for its honey.

A St. Marys man who has five daughters, who are of marriageable age, sent his sofa to be renovated and the following is a partial list of the articles which had slipped between the back and cushion, as counted and recorded: Forty-seven hair pins, three moustache combs, nineteen suspender buttons, thirteen needles, thirty-five cigarettes, eight grains of coffee, forty-seven cloves, twenty-seven cuff buttons, six pocket knives, fifteen poker chips, a vial of homeopathic medicine, thirty-four lumps of chewing gum, fifty-nine toothpicks, twenty-eight matches, thirty-nine collar buttons, eleven neckties, two love letters, a few pieces of candy, two dimes, three quarters, one nickel, eight buckles, five lead pencils, one pen, and four button hooks.

Potato Rot.

In Bulletin No. 2, 1894, of the Central Experimental Farm, just out, Prof James Fletcher deals with potato blights. He says: "There are few diseases of field crops which are the cause of more direct loss to the farmers of Canada than are the two blights which have been aptly named 'the early blight and the late blight of potatoes.' These are usually confounded under the various names, 'Potato rot,' 'potato blight' and 'potato rust,' but as a matter of fact although somewhat similar in general appearance they are very distinct, and are due to the attacks of two different vegetable parasites. Careful experiments have shown that by spraying the potato tops five or six times at intervals of about two weeks, beginning early in July for the early blight, and at the time the rust first appears, for the potato rot, with the mixture of sulphite of copper and lime, known as the 'Bordeau mixture,' both of the injurious diseases can in a large manner be controlled. The late blight, or potato rot seldom shows itself until August.

To make Bordeaux mixture, take six pounds of copper sulphate (blue vitriol) and tie it up in a thin cloth—an ordinary salt bag answers well—then suspend it from a stick laid across a coal oil or other barrel half-filled with clean water, so that the bag may be just beneath the surface of the water, when the copper sulphate will dissolve in an hour or two. In another vessel slake four pounds of fresh lime in sufficient water to make a thin whitewash. Strain this through a fine sieve or sack to remove all lumps. When the copper sulphate is all dissolved pour

RICHARD HARRISON HAS BACKACHE FOR SOME YEARS—IT WAS DUE TO KIDNEY DISEASE—NO MORE BACKACHE NOW.

HALL'S BRIDGE, Ont. Aug. 6.—Richard Harrison is well known here and everywhere highly respected. That he has been a sufferer for some years from backache and other kidney troubles was a well known fact that gained much sympathy for him. Lately he has been moving around here as spry as a kitten and in the best of health. All his kidney troubles had disappeared, so he said when questioned, and he further said that the cause of their disappearance was his having used a few boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills. The reputation of these pills as a specific in all kidney disorders is now firmly established in this part of Ontario.

"Only the Scars Remain,"

Says HENRY HUDSON, of the James Smith Woolen Machinery Co., Philadelphia, Pa., who certifies as follows:

"Among the many testimonials which I see in regard to certain medicines performing cures, cleansing the blood, etc., none impress me more than my own case. Twenty years ago, at the age of 18 years, I had swellings come on my legs, which broke and became running sores. Our family physician could do me no good, and it was feared that the bones would be affected. At last, my good old to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I took three bottles, the sores healed, and I have not been troubled since. Only the scars remain, and the memory of the past, to remind me of the good Ayer's Sarsaparilla has done me. I now weigh two hundred and twenty pounds, and am in the best of health. I have been on the road for the past twelve years, have noticed Ayer's Sarsaparilla advertised in all parts of the United States, and always take pleasure in telling what good it did for me."

Mother Urged Me
