Can you see well? Is your sight good?

If not we have something to tell you. Have you ever noticed that one of your eyes is stronger than the other? In ninety-nine cases out of a hundred this is a fact. Under the old style of fitting glasses both crystals were of a like power. We have the facilities for testing the eyes, and can fit you a pair of glasses to exactly suit the power of vision of each eye. We can suit your case perfectly and guarantee satisfaction. Bush fires are raging. A good shower of rain would be acceptable.

The harvest is about all in and threshing has commenced. Those who have threshed report a good yield.

Mr. S. Crane has returned to his duties again at the public school.

Mr. John Shannon has returned to Owen Sound to resume his studies at the Collegiate Institute.

Miss Sarah Johnston left for Owen Sound on Monday last to attend the Collegiate Institute.

Mrs. R. J. Waring visited with friends in Meaford last week.

Miss Edith Stamborsky, who has been living in Chicago for the past year, returned home last week.

(From another cor.)

The brickwork of the new school house is completed. The contractor, Mr. Buchanan, is rushing along the woodwork as fast as possible.

In the old school house again is heard the hum of learning. School was resumed on the 20th with a fair attendance of pupils.

Mrs. Thos. Kells is away at St. Marys visiting her daughter.

Miss Muir has again taken up her school duties at Chatsworth after spending her holidays with her mother, Mrs. S. Douglas.

Mrs. Pritchard, we are glad to report, is able to be around again. She got a rather hard shaking up.

Old Mrs. Graham is also on the mend.

Maxwell.

From our own Correspondent.

Good harvest weather, everyone busy and the news is scarce.

The school reopened on Monday of last week, with good attendance.

The Rev. J. W. Jones has built a new fence in front of the rectory, Mr. R. Heron in front of his house and Mr. E. Linley is building a fence around the school yard.

Miss Looney, of Toronto, has been holidaying here, also Mrs. Hollingshead.

Mr. Alex. Hudson had his windmill erected on last Friday.

A Sabbath school convention was held here last Friday. Owing to the busy time the attendance was small.

The Rev. Woodger was in Stayner a couple of days last week, attending District meeting.

We noticed by the report of the late examination that Edna Heron, Rita Small, William Coulthard and Milton Sproule, from our school, were successful and that Milton Sproule stood third in South Grey.

The Rev. H. A. Brown occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church on Sunday morning.

Miss Lizzie Little returned from Dundalk on Monday.

We wonder who led the way coming from practice last week?

Wodehouse.

From our own Correspondent.

Mr. Editor, we are having a very nice dry spell now. It is a fact that we have had no "ketchy weather" this several weeks. The threshing is proving that the grain is quite plentiful on the straw, but many have some short straw—wheat is a good crop. Mr. McAfee, it is said with integrity, has seven hundred bushels from 25 acres. We may have a return of the old times, both in yield and price.

Mr. Hillis, one of the many well-to-do farmers near Port Perry, gave a three days' visit to his sister, Mrs. Thompson, and family. Mr. Hillis says in speaking of the dullness of stock markets, that while their market has become somewhat demoralized yet it is better than ours.

We would remind our readers to think five or nine times before acting in the way of putting fire in the open air. Some of our neighbors have done very little else but fight fire for some weeks back. Even the Sabbath is not respected by the destroyer, and the would-be church goers have to turn out with water barrels and plow.

A new well has just been completed at the school house. Plenty of good water is gotten at a distance of 11 feet.

The oldest practising physician in Ontario, if not in Canada, is Dr. Barnhart of Owen Sound, who started in 1837 and is still in harness.

Last Friday after dinner a boy named Joseph Ernewein, living on the 12th concession of the township of Culross, was riding the horse used on a pea harvester. The horse took fright and ran away, throwing the boy off. One of the fingers on the harvester caught him on the right side and ripped the stomach open, disembowelling the boy. Dr. Gillies was summoned at once and with the assistance of Dr. Clapp, of Mildmay, did all that could be done for the unfortunate boy. When the doctors left he was resting easy, but fears of collapse from the shock were entertained. The injury, the doctors report, is a terrible one.

The Barrie Advance speaks thus of the death of a pauper in Barrie jail: "As the County of Simcoe with its $19,000,000 assessment is too poor to furnish anything but a goal cell as a refuge for the pauper, it is too poor to buy him a coffin and give him a Christian burial, so over the stones they hurried his bones away to the city's anatomy rooms. And this is the closing decade of the nineteenth century in a country filled with churches and professional Christianity, and claiming to be guided by the grand principles enunciated on the Mount by Jesus of Nazareth."

A rather amusing incident occurred at one of the revival meetings a few evenings ago, which are being held in the U. B. Church, by Rev. N. Stephens expressed. In announcing his text Evangelist Stephens intimated that the subject of discourse would be found in the epistle of Jude which he presumed all present were familiar with. Before repeating the text, however, he asked all who had read the "second chapter" of the book of Jude to hold up their hands as a proof of their acquaintance with said epistle. At least twenty hands were uplifted, their owners not realizing that anything was wrong until an old "Mother in Israel" arose and said:—"Why sir, there is but one chapter in the book of Jude." There followed a general collapse of the too previous Bible students, who doubtless found the air in the building uncomfortably warm for the balance of the evening. The hands raised included those of a number of the leaders in religious movements in the town whose names it would be cruel to publish, seeing the amount of fun they have furnished for the rest of the community.—Chesley Free Press.

On Thursday afternoon as Mr. Robt. Grierson, of Bentinck, was driving along the Garafraxa Road, he observed smoke issuing from Mrs. Leslie's house of rather greater volume than is usual from an ordinary fire. Fearing that there was something wrong he left his team and hastened to the spot. On opening the door he found the house in flames, but saw no person. There was no time to be lost in seeking help so he set to work, pumped the water, pail after pail, and in a short time he had the satisfaction of seeing the flames extinguished and all danger removed. So putting things to rights and making sure that all was safe he proceeded on his way to Durham. He had not gone far until he met Mrs. Leslie leisurely journeying homeward. He informed her of course of the narrow escape of her premises from being burned down, and was about driving on, but seeing Mrs. Leslie's agitation, in the spirit of true gallantry he drove her home and to soothe her fears he again made a thorough examination of the house to assure her that all was well. Mr. Grierson's heroism is all the more commendable that he has only one arm. But often his one arm does more good service to himself and to others that two arms do to many.—Grey Review.

Attention

In time to any irregularity of the Stomach, Liver, or Bowels may prevent serious consequences.

Indigestion, costiveness, headache, nausea, and vertigo indicate certain functional derangements, the best remedy for which is Ayer's Pills. Purely vegetable, sugar-coated, easy to take and quick to assimilate, this is the ideal family medicine—the most popular, safe, and useful aperient in pharmacy. Mrs. M. A. BROCKWELL, Harris, Tenn., says:

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills cured me of sick headache and my husband of neuralgia. We think there is

No Better Medicine, and have induced many to use it.

"Thirty-five years ago this Spring, I was run down by hard work and a succession of colds, which made me so feeble that it was an effort for me to walk. I consulted the doctors, but kept sinking lower until I had given up all hope of ever being better. Happening to be in a store, one day, where medicines were sold, the proprietor noticed my weak and sickly appearance, and after a few questions as to my health, recommended me to try Ayer's Pills. I had little faith in these or any other medicine, but concluded, at last, to take his advice and try a box. Before I had used them all, I was very much better, and two boxes cured me. I am now 80 years old; but I believe that if it had not been for Ayer's Pills, I should have been in my grave long ago. I buy 6 boxes every year, which make 210 boxes up to this time, and I would no more be without them than without bread."—H. H. Ingraham, Rockland, Me.
