From our own Correspondent.

Mr. Thomas Taylor, sr., has returned after spending a couple of months in Ireland. He did not have an hour's sickness during his voyage, and finds his health much improved by his trip.

Miss Tillie Taylor has bought a handsome new Cabinet Bell organ.

Mrs. Morton has returned, after spending a month with her daughter in Toronto, and her health is much improved thereby.

Messrs. William Taylor, Jeremiah Taylor, William Love and Joseph Haney have each purchased a new binder for the harvest, which is now nearly finished for this season, while a number of the farmers have commenced fall ploughing.

Crops have been very good here and have been harvested in excellent condition.

Miss Gilliland, of Eugenia, has been the guest of Miss Carrie Taylor during the past week.

Miss Lizzie Henderson leaves on Monday for the Model school in Durham.

Eugenia

From our own correspondent.

The farmers in this part have about completed their harvesting operations and many are engaged night and day fighting fires, which are raging in every direction and causing a good deal of destruction of property. Everyone should exercise extreme caution in putting out fire in a period of almost unprecedented dryness. While a dry season is an opportune time to execute a general cleaning up, extreme precaution should be taken against the spreading of fires out of the regions desired.

Some bears in this vicinity are assuming a threatening attitude, one having followed Mr. A. McMullen for a considerable distance. It is not unlikely that one or two may be toppled over ere long.

A beautiful board fence now extends almost the full length of the main street of our village. The latest improvement was the building of a very presentable fence in the front of Mr. Purdy's lot, by Messrs. H. and J. Bowerman.

Mr. J. E. Williams has undertaken the contract of filling in the south end of the new bridge. The increased height of the bridge and the hollow extending many yards has occasioned considerable labor. One gentleman's estimate of the number of loads required to fill in the south end is 1500. Mr. F. T. Carr has the north end nearly complete.

A gentleman recently while making frantic efforts to capture some of the speckled beauties was precipitated into the Boyne. But he evidently did not consider it a mishap as he remarked that baptism by immersion in the immortal waters of the Boyne, ought to make him eligible as a P. P. A.

Mr. Philip Tutty, engine turner at West Toronto Junction accompanied by wife and a six weeks old son, paid a short visit to friends here, which had a very sad termination in the death of his only child. It was apparently hearty when they left Toronto, but it soon showed signs of illness and gradually sank, and even the most attentive care could not prevent the sad event. Mrs. Crockett, grandmother to the child, was telegraphed for but did not arrive before its death, which took place on Friday morning at 4:40, at the residence of J. E. Williams. The child was buried on Monday in the family plot in Mount Pleasant cemetery in Toronto. The bereaved parents are accorded the warmest sympathy of many friends.

Epping

From our own correspondent.

The harvest is gathered and threshing has commenced. The turnout is fair.

Quite a number of people from other parts have visited in this neighborhood lately, among whom were Mr. Albert Knott and Misses Minnie and Laura Eaton, of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Wyndom Eaton and child, of Buffalo, N. Y.; Mrs. F. Eaton, of Meaford; and Mrs.

Smith, of Tara, besides others whose names we did not learn.

We understand that quite a number from around here will attend the fair in Toronto.

Numberless things have happened around here since last writing, but owing to a press of work were unable to send in our usual budget. The latest happening is a rather startling one for this usually quiet neighborhood, being no less than the mysterious disappearance of a horse, buggy and harness, belonging to Mr. Wm. Charters. On Friday morning last, Mr. Charters was surprised on going to his stable to find his horse, harness and buggy missing. He immediately began a search for them and tracked the rig from his own place until it got into the fourth line turning south, the track was then lost, but Mr. Charters went on to Flesherton and then to Markdale but found no trace of the missing articles, and although he has continued the search ever since, up to time of writing no clue has been discovered as to their whereabouts. As the Clarksburg bank was broken into Thursday night, it is thought the thieves lay low all day Friday, then at night making their way to Mr. Charter's, took the horse and buggy to assist them in their escape. It is a pity that they should be able to escape thus.

Kimberley.

From our own correspondent.

Your Kimberley cor. is still alive, and if you will only pardon his past negligence, he will try and do better in the future.

The Travellers' Home was literally thronged with tourists for a few weeks, from New York City, Toronto, and other places.

Mrs. W. H. Thurston, of Flesherton, was visiting friends in town, for a couple of days.

Mrs. T. Ellis left here on Saturday, to join her husband at Powassan.

Mrs. McLean, of Painsville, U. S. is visiting her parents and friends in and around Kimberley.

Mr. Jno. Wilson has sold out his business here and has gone to Duncan and the Duncan blacksmith has started in the stand vacated by Mr. Wilson.

Mr. Jno. Doney is starting a blacksmithing business here also in A. B. Bell's shop and Mr. Small is starting a wagon and carriage shop.

Priceville.

From our own Correspondent.

One day last week as Mr. Marshal was in the act of descending the school well, one of the handles of the windlass slipped out thus causing the person at the levers to lose his hold. The windlass now began to whirl around at a frightful rate until, owing to the increased speed, it flew out of the sockets. As soon as this happened Mr. Marshal let go of the rope and dropped a distance of over 30 feet, alighting on some planks, etc., that was at the bottom of the well. Mr. M. was soon hauled up again, and beyond a thorough shaking up he sustained no serious injury.

Threshers are on the war-path again. There are a number of machines in operation in this district.

As far as we can learn the yield of grain this year is very satisfactory. This, along with good prices, would cause the farmers to wear a 10 by 12 smile.

Messrs. D. Brown and Regie Grier spent a day or two with friends at Cargill late y. They wheeled over on the rikes.

Mr. Chas. Ghent, of Toronto, who has been spending a few days in this part, returned home last week.

Two young ladies had a narrow escape lately. They came within a trifle of falling off Castle Hill. For further particulars enquire at the P. S. or the P. O.

James Dick, Patron merchant, Shelburne, has assigned to D. Blackley of Hamilton. Mr. Dick expects to get a settlement.

A Racking Cough

Cured by Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.
Mrs. P. D. HALL, 217 Genesee St., Lockport, N. Y., says:

"Over thirty years ago, I remember hearing my father describe the wonderful curative effects of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. During a recent attack of La Grippe, which assumed the form of a catarrh, soreness of the lungs, accompanied by an aggravating cough, I used various remedies and prescriptions. While some of these medicines partially alleviated the coughing during the day, none of them afforded me any relief from that spasmodic action of the lungs which would seize me the moment I attempted to lie down at night. After ten or twelve such nights, I was

Nearly in Despair, and had about decided to sit up all night in my easy chair, and procure what sleep I could in that way. It then occurred to me that I had a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, I took a spoonful of this preparation in a little water, and was able to lie down without coughing. In a few moments, I fell asleep, and awoke in the morning greatly refreshed and feeling much better. I took a teaspoonful of the Pectoral every night for a week, then gradually decreased the dose, and in two weeks my cough was cured."
