W. H. THURSTON EDITOR & PROPRIETOR

Can you see well? Is your sight good?

If not we have something to tell you. Have you ever noticed that one of your eyes is stronger than the other? In ninety-nine cases out of a hundred this is a fact. Under the old style of fitting glasses both crystals were of a like power. We have the facilities for testing the eyes, and can fit you a pair of glasses to exactly suit the power of vision of each eye. We can suit your case perfectly and guarantee satisfaction. Come in and get a pair and renew your youth.

Epping

From our own correspondent.
The fairs are almost over and people are settling down to work again. We had a rather disagreeable day for our township fair, nevertheless it was quite a success.

It was with sincere regret, that the people of this neighborhood learned of the death of Mrs. (Dr.) Bennett, of Rocklyn, which took place Monday of last week. The remains were taken to Ferguson her parental home, for interment. The Dr. has the sympathy of a very large circle of friends in his sorrow.

Mrs. R. Gilray is now very low, having suffered for some months with gangrene. Dr. McLean is in attendance.

Rev. A. Gilray and Mr. Will. Gilray, of Toronto, also Mrs. McMaster, visited their mother last week.

Miss Johnston, of Meaford, was the guest of Miss McKnight, last week.

Miss Maggie McConnell spent a few days with friends in Meaford last week.

Mrs. Thos. Leggate and children returned to their home in Toronto Saturday last after spending a couple of months visiting friends in Euphrasia, St. Vincent and Owen Sound. Mr. Leggate spent a week at Epping and accompanied them home.

Maxwell

From our own Correspondent.
C. M. Field says that "no place is as good as home." Mr. Staples is working with him at present and both are very busy.

Alderman Little, of Owen Sound, called on his son, Mr. J. Little, last week.

The Rev. Mr. Bedford, of Heathcote, preached in the Methodist church here on last Sabbath. He is a good preacher.

Mrs. Clark returned from Markdale, and Miss Bernice Tuck came with her Deputy reeve Preston has been suffering from sore eyes lately.

Mr. Conron and family moved away from town last week.

The S.A. band went through here last Friday, en route for Salem.

A number from here took in the "World's Fair" at Feversham on Wednesday.

Our town was almost depopulated on Sunday evening, as nearly every one went to the Army.

News reached here on Sunday of the sudden death of Mr. Isamah Potts, of Toronto. The corpse came to Dundak on Monday for interment there.

Pricerville

From our own Correspondent.
"The sweet, calm sunshine of October now warms the low spot; upon its grassy mould the purple oak leaf falls; the broken bough drops its bright spoil like arrow heads of gold."

Our football team played a match with the Proton Station club on the grounds of the latter last Saturday afternoon. As the hour was late when playing commenced, the game only lasted about 60 minutes but in that short time the Protonites did up in that sport to the tune of 3 to 0. W. J. Blakeston refereed the match. After the fun was over both teams sat down to a substantial supper in McLan's hall. It is needless to say that the boys did ample justice to the good things provided for them, especially Captain H. who waded into the sugar like a— We had better not say what W. J. and A. McLan made the plates have a forlorn appearance, aided in good style by T. N. who was as hungry as a shantyman.

On Saturday afternoon as John Dow was looking for cattle he found one of the herd up to its neck in the mire on the edge of Devlin's lake. He ran home for a rope, and fastening it around the horns, managed to keep the beast's nose out of the mud. Just then the football boys fortunately came along on their way to the station, and learning of the dangerous position of the bovine, they tied their horses to the fence, threw off their overcoats and went scampering across the fields like Indians. Upon arriving at the scene of the accident they went to work with a will and soon landed the unlucky and very muddy quadruped on dry ground.

Last Sunday afternoon Mr. Wright, an old resident of this village, was stricken down with paralysis and is in a very low condition at present.

Mrs. George Tryon, who has been seriously ill, is, we are glad to state, somewhat better at the time of writing.

Messrs. John Stothart and Lachie McLean returned home last week after putting in the summer in the old settlements.

Eugenia

From our own correspondent.

The bridge here is now drawing to a close. It will be a substantial and durable job when completed after a large amount labor. It is only actual measurement that one can get any idea of the capacity to be filled.

Every one should go to-day to the harvest home and at night to the grand concert in the hall.

The analyst, who examined the specimen of clay sent from Mr. Duckett's place, reports it to be 9%, marl an important ingredient in cement.

Mr. S. Damude and Mr. A. Munshaw passed through town loaded with lots of pluck and ammunition in search of bears out in Collingwood township.

Mr. J. A. Williams is now at business in his shop, which is quite an improvement to the corner.

It is probable that the Eugenia and Osprey foot ball clubs will have a trial of strength at the Feversham show this week.

Meaford Road.

From our own Correspondent.
Your correspondent last week omitted to mention that Mr. Reid is visiting his son-in-law, Mr. Jos. Buchanan, of this place.

Miss Sarah Johnson, who has been attending the Owen Sound collegiate institute, is spending a few days at her home.

Mr. Robert Pritchard, who is studying chemistry, spent last week at his home.

Mr. Kidney, the C.O.O.F. organizer, visited this place last week. The Court here is progressive.

Mrs. Samuel Gilbert spent a few days at her father's home, at Pricerville.

Mr. Rupert, our esteemed pastor, gave a very interesting and instructive talk to the young people. His discourse was from the words, "Trust in the Lord and do good, so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed."

The rich and varied tints of autumn herald again the approach of winter. When the feathered songsters build their nests, men scatter the precious seed. They sow in labor and hope. A few months have passed and the labor is amply rewarded, the hope is fully realized. The golden grain has been garnered and again is evidenced the beautiful truth that He who protects the delicate lily has bountifully provided for the sustenance of man.

Mr. J. L. Sinclair made a speech at the Patrons picnic at Creemore praising farmers and deprecating professional men. "Farmers," he said, "came first into the country, got it into shape, provided the bread and butter and professional men came and eat it." There is some truth in this statement as the majority of professional men in the country are farmers sons.

A most peculiar and remarkable occurrence took place at a certain private residence in town a few days ago which somewhat startled the servant girl. It seems she was getting tea for the good people of the house, and when about to cut the bread was greatly surprised on taking off the first slice that amouse had hollowed out a large hole and built a nest therein, with his mouseship in full possession. The girl didn't faint, but you can imagine her feelings at that time.—Exeter Advocate.
