Maxwell.

From our own Correspondent.
At the time of writing there is an appearance of some more sleighing. We hope this is a fact as our town appears more lively during the time of good sleighing than at any other.

Messrs. Scheniman and Bemrose returned home. They complain of wages being very low.

Mr. Thos. Guy has moved to his house, Mr. Thos. Hamblin has moved to the store and Mr. Alex. Clark has moved to part of the building occupied by Mr. Hamblin.

The infant son of Mr. Shiers was buried here on Saturday.

Mrs. (Rev.) Jones has been unwell for a time. We hope soon to hear of her recovery.

Miss Mary Strachan left for Toronto this week.

The genial Inspector, Mr. N. W. Campbell, visited our school last Friday and found everything up to the standard. He gave the children much praise for the clear way they speak out.

Mr. W. J. Fahey has been home for a time.

Tailor Clark is going to keep cigars and soft drinks for sale. This may interfere to some extent with our popular hotel keeper, but "opposition is the life of trade."

Miss Coutts has left town for a time, she was very busy while here.

We are pleased to know that under the skilful treatment of Dr. Scott, Mr. D. K. Preston's eye is well again.

A free bus runs from Maxwell to Singhamton on Thanksgiving day. The girls pay for the horses' oats.

His Excellency, the Governor-General of Canada, having appointed Thursday, Nov. 22nd, as Thanksgiving Day, there will be held (D. V.) a special Thanksgiving service in St. Mary's church at 7 p. m., in grateful remembrance of all God's mercies in the late abundant harvest, and for every other token of His love. The sermon will be preached by the Rector, Rev. John W. Jones, L. H.

Kimberley.

Messrs. R. Stuart and R. Genoe have returned from Muskoka. Their company secured seven deer.

Mr. R. Foster gave his stereopticon entertainment in the public hall last Friday night. Considering the very bad weather the turnout was excellent. The entertainment was thoroughly enjoyable.

Mr. Thos. Bradbury has taken up his abode with us, arriving on Thursday evening last.

The Misses Gould, from near Markdale, have opened up a dress and mantle-making establishment here.

Mrs. Magee, of Toronto, is visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. J. M. Thurston was taken suddenly and seriously ill on Tuesday morning. At the time of writing there was a slight improvement, but it will likely be some days before he is around again.

There will be a fashionable wedding at the residence of Jas. Myles, Esq., on Thursday, when Mr. W. C. Coffey, of Thornbury, will become the happy bridegroom and Miss Victoria Myles the handsome bride. Your cor. has not received an invitation to be present, but all the same wishes them all the happiness imaginable in their new relations. I understand they will take train at Markdale for quite an extended trip. Mr. Coffey is to be congratulated, as the young lady is highly accomplished, handsome and very highly esteemed by all who know her.

A Manchester packing company had occasion to telegraph to their manager at Victoria, British Columbia, and the sending of a message and the reply only occupied ninety seconds. They state that this is the record. It has never been beaten or equalled in the annals of telegraph history. The total distance by the wires, out and return, is 13,000 miles. This feat was performed by the Commercial Cable Co. and Canadian Pacific Telegraphs, the only company reaching British Columbia.

THANKSGIVING DAY, 1894.

Giver of all, to Thee we raise
Our hearts and voice in grateful praise,
Thy conscious care removes our fear,
Thy goodness crowns another year.

We gladly join to praise Thy name
Who art from age to age the same;
Our hope, our thought, our su- and shield,
The mighty one in love, revealed.

Each rising sun, Thy truth declares,
Thy love each living creature shares;
Thy hand controls the rolling seas,
Thy voice speaks in the balmy breeze.

In all Thy ways with men below
Thou dost Thy wondrous mercy show.
Thy word of peace, Thy chastening rod,
Alike proclaim a gracious God.

For sorrows soothed, for sins forgiven,
For peace on earth and light from Heaven,
For present grace, for gifts in store,
We do this day Thy name adore.

May we in Thee alone confide
And in Thy perfect love abide,
Though we may cease our songs to raise,
Expressive silence tells Thy praise.
Colborne Nov. 10th, 1894. T. WATSON.

Vandeleur.

From our own Correspondent.

Two new houses have been erected in this place this season. Mrs. Stamboskie's and Mr. Weber's. They are very neat and handsome structures.

Three of our young men, who have been working in the older settlements, have returned. They are Messrs. Isaac Holley, John Gilbert and Alf. Dunlap. The boys look hale and happy.

Mrs. Arthur Johnston is visiting friends in Sarnia.

The sermon preached here on Sunday by our esteemed minister, Rev. E. S. Rupert, M. A., was an excellent and vivid portrayal of the desirable and permanent good secured by the observing and obeying of the will of God. The minister's words were earnest and eloquent. Such words never fall to the ground, but must inevitably reach the hearts of the listeners.

An accident, strange and distressing, of which Mr. Ed. Holley is the victim, occurred on Saturday last. Mr. Holley it seems was engaged in preserving some fruit, in an air tight vessel on the stove. He unscrewed the lid and the steam being confined until quite dense, expanded so suddenly that the young man's face was severely scalded. He is under medical attendance and is as well as can be expected.

Mr. Robt. Pritchard, our young chemist, was home on Sunday.

Mr. York Richardson, of Chatsworth, spent a few days lately with his friend, Mr. Geo. Waring. They took advantage of the pleasant weather to enjoy the sport of hunting.

Mrs. Samuel Gilbert is visiting friends in Wiarton.

This week some day a meeting will take place for the final settlement of the ownership of the much talked about stone church and church yard. It is desirable that an amicable settlement be brought about and no doubt such will be the result of the meeting.

Miss. Smith, of Flesherton, has been visiting her friends of this place.

Several of our young people have been ill with the measles.

William J. Fletcher, who was sent up from Markdale last week on the charge of stealing a buggy and harness from a neighbor named Walker, elected to be tried by the county judge, and on Saturday his case came before His Honor, Judge Creason. The prisoner, who had no counsel, pleaded not guilty. The evidence was so conclusive, however, that there was no alternative, but that a conviction would follow. The prisoner's mother was present. When the judge sentenced him to the central for six months she requested that if possible he be put in the prison tailor shop, as he had spent his time in that department while in the Reformatory at Penetanguishene. Mr. Wm. Hatton appeared for the crown. Fletcher was sent to the Reformatory in 1890 for two years and served a month's sentence in jail here during the past summer. Theft was also the charge against him in each case.—O. S. Times.
