A H. S. Pupil writing The Advance from Owen Sound on Monday says: "Observer's article on 'Teachers and trustees' pleased a number of the Modelites, and they are anxiously looking for the rest of the article. Could not you have it published soon?"

The numerous cures of rheumatism by the use of the old standard blood-purifier, Ayer's Sarsaparilla, show conclusively that it is an effective remedy, if not indeed the specific, for the most painful and persistent of maladies. What has cured others will also cure you.

Among our obituary notices this week will be found that of Mr. Boyd Thompson, a resident of this village and an old soldier of the American army, who died on Tuesday morning. Mr. Thompson was a jolly Irishman who has seen a good deal of the world. He received a wound at the battle of Gettysburg which resulted in the loss of one leg. He settled in Flesherton about twelve years ago to enjoy his pension, and about two years since married a Miss Emily Morrison, whom he leaves behind, a widow. The funeral took place yesterday at Orange Valley Presbyterian burial ground.

Alex. McDonald appeared before Geo. Price, P. M., on Friday afternoon, charged by Alex. Hannah with assault and battery. On November 8th both parties with a number of others were at the Railroad House, Flesherton Station. From the evidence the defendant and complainant were intoxicated. Without any provocation McDonald struck Hannah, and then the fracas began. During the fist encounter (in which there was no doubt considerable science which is characteristic of the roped arena) Hannah received several cracks from the defendant and his brother Daniel. The defendant came out of the scrap without any injury. Six witnesses were heard; and McDonald was fined $2 and costs, $36.50 in all. W. H. Wright for Def.; G. N. Patterson for Plf. - O. S. Concert at Dundalk.

The concert in Victoria Hall, Dundalk, given on the evening of Thanksgiving Day, by the public school children, was a thorough success. The attendance was large, notwithstanding the bad weather, and the program, which was of a high class, was well rendered. The children did credit to their instructors and themselves in the rendering of their songs, recitations, drills, and club swinging, which was all up to the mark in every respect. All present were highly pleased and expressed themselves so. The proceeds, which were about $50, go to meet the expenses of improvements in the school.

A Liberal Offer.
The enterprise of the publishers of The Youth's Companion, Boston, Mass., has steadily advanced the paper year by year, keeping it always in the front ranks of the best periodicals. It fills to-day as no other publication the popular demand for a practical family paper, one that is equally valued and enjoyed by old and young, and free from all objectionable features. The best writers of all lands are engaged to write for its columns. Among the famous contributions for the volume for 1895 are two daughters of Queen Victoria; Mr. Gladstone, the most eminent living statesman, who has for the third time written an article expressly for The Companion; Sir Edwin Arnold, W. Clark Russell, Charles Dickens, Frank R. Stockton, J. T. Crowbridge, Mark Twain, Cy Warman, the famous locomotive Engineer, and more than a hundred other writers who are known the world over. The Companion appeals to all, whether in the home, in professional and business life, to the educator and laborer in every department of work. Its sound, practical editorials deal frankly, fairly and concisely with the questions of the day. Every utterance may be accepted without reserve. Full Prospectus and specimen copies sent free on application. New subscribers will receive The Companion free to 1895 if they subscribe at once, sending $1.75, the year's subscription price. It comes every week, finely illustrated.

A Chrysanthemum Wedding.
"Woodlawn," the residence of Mr. G. W. Bery, Lucknow, was the scene of a joyous event on Wednesday evening last, when John Wesley Armstrong, jeweller, late of Flesherton, and Miss Lou a Ethel Victoria, youngest daughter of G. W. Bery, Esq., Lucknow, were wedded by Rev. John Mills.
The bride looked charming in ivory white fallé bengaline and wore a diamond brooch, the gift of the groom. The maids were Miss Lalla Bery, sister of the bride, and Miss Adla Armstrong, Flesherton, sister of the groom. They were dressed in buttercup silk and carried yellow chrysanthemums. The groom was supported by Mr. Will McFarland, of Markdale, Mr. Joe Armstrong, of Toronto, and Mr. Jack Bery, of Lucknow.
The gifts were costly and numerous and included a Steinway piano, the gift of the bride's parents.
The guests from out of town were, Mr. and Mrs. T. Aikenhead, Miss Lottie and Joe Armstrong, of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Clark, London; Miss Lou Armstrong, Flesherton; Miss Lou Savage, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Stocker, New York; Mr. W. G. Wright, Owen Sound; Mr. and Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. Wilson, Dungannon; Mr. Wes. Treleaven, Listowel.

Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong left on the morning train, Thursday, for an eastern trip.

Mr. Moody closed his series of meetings in Toronto on Sunday with two great gatherings in Massey Music Hall.

COLLINGWOOD, Ont., Nov. 26.—A fire broke out in the stables of the Central Hotel this morning about 2 o'clock and destroyed the interior of the stables and burned to death seven horses, among which was the celebrated trotter, Dolly C. Mr. Thos. Collins, owner of stable and horses, will lose about $1,500 by the fire. Fairly covered by insurance.

A despatch from New Lowell, says:—Between 7 and 8 o'clock Sunday evening the dwelling house of Mr. James Scott, Sunnisdale township, was burned. Mr. and Mrs. Scott left the house to look after the farm stock in a barn 150 yards from the dwelling. Mr. and Mrs. Scott were absent about 20 minutes, when they discovered the dwelling on fire. Mr. Scott rushed into the burning building and picked up his two children aged 4 and 2 years. All were badly burned and both children died Monday morning. The fire is supposed to have been caused by a lamp exploding or being upset by the children, as the lamp was left burning low and the children in bed when Mr. and Mrs. Scott left the house, and there was no one else in the house at the time but the two children.

Catarrh Relieved in 10 to 60 Minutes.—One short puff of the breath through the blower, supplied with each bottle of Dana's Catarrhal Powder, diffuses this powder over the surface of the nasal passages. Painless and delightful to use, it relieves instantly, and permanently cures Catarrh, Hay Fever, Colds, Headache, Sore Throat, Tonsillitis and Deafness. 60 cents. At W. E. Richardson's.

A Well Man.
NO MORE ROBUST INDIVIDUAL TO BE FOUND IN THE VILLAGE.
RICHMOND, Nov. 26.—Dr. A. G. McCormick, whose letter respecting his cure from Bright's disease by the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills has recently been published, is now attending his patients and is apparently as robust a man as can be found in the village. During the four months that he was confined to the house suffering from the last stages of Bright's disease, his death was several times reported, and no hopes were entertained of his ultimate recovery. His present robust appearance is therefore all the more surprise to residents. It is a safe prophecy that every sufferer from kidney disease in this section will henceforth try the remedial qualities of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Died.
Thompson—At his residence, Flesherton, on Thursday morning at 4 o'clock Boyd D. Thompson, in his 68th year.

"Only the Scars Remain,"

Says HENRY HUDSON, of the James Smith Woolen Machinery Co., Philadelphia, Pa., who certifies as follows:

"Among the many testimonials which I see in regard to certain medicines performing cures, cleansing the blood, etc., none impress me more than my own case. Twenty years ago, at the age of 18 years, I had swellings come on my legs, which broke and became running sores. Our family physician could do me no good, and it was feared that the bones would be affected. At last, my good old Mother Urged Me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I took three bottles, the sores healed, and I have not been troubled since. Only the scars remain, and the memory of the past, to remind me of the good Ayer's Sarsaparilla has done me. I now weigh two hundred and twenty pounds, and am in the best of health. I have been on the road for the past twelve years, have noticed Ayer's Sarsaparilla advertised in all parts of the United States, and always take pleasure in telling what good it did for me."
