Mrs. Shore and family have been away visiting friends for some weeks and we understand will remain until after New Years.

The public school closed for the Xmas holidays on Friday, 21st. Quite a number of visitors attended the closing exercises. The different classes acquitted themselves very creditably, but the climax of enjoyment was reached about 3.30 when "Santa Claus" appeared with a Christmas tree well loaded with presents for all the pupils and candies, apples and popcorn for everybody. After the departure of dear old Santa Miss Annie McCort read an address to the teacher, and Masters Earnie Clorless and Thomas Gilray on behalf of the school presented her with a very pretty pepper and salt casket and a card case. Miss Mattie Gilray is very popular with the children, and it was welcome news to them to hear that she was engaged for another year.

The S. S. superintendent and teachers met in the church Friday evening for the purpose of distributing prizes to the children. A goodly number of the latter were present, some of them accompanied by their parents and all seemed well pleased with the results.

Miss Polly Gilray, of Fairmount school, also had a closing examination Friday afternoon at the close of which her pupils presented her with an address and memorial in the shape of a water set, tea pot and cups and saucers.

To Miss Polly Gilray:
DEAR AND RESPECTED TEACHER.—Time in its ceaseless rounds has brought to us again the 21st Dec., a morning which is one of sorrow to us for the reason that it is possibly the last on which we are to meet in the relation of teacher and pupils.

We feel that in your departure we are losing a true friend, one who has for the last five years labored earnestly for our welfare and progress. We know that many times we have severely tried your patience by acts of thoughtlessness, but we have ever found you to be kind and forgiving, ready to instruct and advise and by example and precept teach us the lessons which if carefully followed cannot fail to make us good and useful members of society. We would here assure you of the respect, esteem and best wishes of our parents and friends, and sincerely trust that in your new field of duty you may find bright and pleasant pupils and many true and kind friends.

Before saying good-bye we would ask your acceptance of this water set, tea pot and cups and saucers as a small token of remembrance, in the hope that sometimes in the future when you are enjoying a "cozy cup of tea" after your hours of labor, you will kindly let your thoughts turn back and see in one of "memory's pictures" the faces of your old pupils at Fairmount.

We now wish you a merry Christmas and a happy New Year, and in bidding you a regretted farewell we earnestly hope that the giver of all good things may abundantly prosper you in all your undertakings and when your labor here has ended and the Great Master is calling the roll, that school in which Christ himself shall say that you may be one of the "present" there to welcome home all your little friends from No. 6.

Miss Gilray is engaged to teach the Vandeleur school for '95. Miss Maggie Black will teach at New England.

"When I was a Boy,"

Writes Postmaster J. C. Woodson, Forest Hill, W. Va., "I had a bronchial trouble of such a persistent and stubborn character, that the doctor pronounced it incurable with ordinary medicines, and advised me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I did so, and one bottle cured me. For the last fifteen years, I have used this preparation with good effect whenever I take and I know of numbers of people who keep it in the house all the time, not considering it safe to be without it."

"I have been using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for 30 years, with the most satisfactory results, and can cheerfully recommend it as being especially adapted to all pulmonary complaints. I have, for many years, made pulmonary and other medicines a special study, and I have come to the conclusion that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral occupies a position pre-eminant over other medicines of the class."—Chas. Davenport, Dover, N. J.
