From our own Correspondent.

School was re-opened last Thursday with a small attendance in both rooms, owing, no doubt, to the presence of diphtheria in the village.

While Mr. Archibald McLean, of the South line, was chopping down a hemlock tree one day last week, a chip from the ax struck his eye with such force as to almost, if not entirely, destroy the sight. Mr. McLean is in Toronto this week undergoing an operation which, it is to be hoped, will be successful in restoring the sight. This is a peculiarly sad misfortune as Mr. McLean's left eye is nearly useless.

Mr. Duncan Muir, of this village, is having a pretty tough time of it with his arm which was fractured last fall. The bones never grew together properly and necessitated an operation, which was performed last Monday by Dr. Hutton, aided by Dr. Jamieson and Rogers, and Dr. McKenzie, a medical student, all of Durham.
