Proton Station.

From our own Correspondent.

It is some time since our last report to The Advance from Proton. However, the world and people go on much the same, still to keep off an attack of the blues we will chronicle a few reports of some of the happenings here, since the holiday season is past.

At present we are blessed with a good supply of the beautiful, therefore there is considerable business done in poles, cordwood, logs, etc. An immense lot of ties are being piled along the C. P. R. Grain is another article of commerce, the present buyer being Mr. Walter Bell, who is here in the interest of his brother, Mr. S. Bell, of Dundalk, who having purchased the elevator of S. & A. Neilson, is prepared to pay the highest price for all grains.

And to be in accordance with the times we have had a wedding or two. On Dec. 26th, Mr. Thos. Quigg, of Artemesia, to Miss Jennie, eldest daughter of Mrs. Mary Shearson. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Campbell, of Dundalk, a few of the bride's and groom's most intimate friends being in attendance. On Jan 9 Mr. Geo. Stokes, of Artemesia, was wedded to Miss Maggie Ingles, of Badgeros. The Rev. R. L. Croll, of Maple Valley, fastened the knot. For our part we wish both couples a long life and every happiness.

The cream of the season thus far was the party given by the Miss Hales a week or so ago. Allen did ample justice to his profession as violinist. He has the best command of the bow, without exception, in Artemesia.

Mr. Allen Graham and family, of Alliston, visited friends here and around Inistioige last week.

Miss Maggie Parks, who has been to the city hospital for the past five or six weeks, returned home on Saturday, her ailment being some sort of a decline. We are sorry to say that no cure is effected in her case as yet.

Mr. Thomas Sheridan, of Wareham, was the guest of Mr. Abe Sherson last Sabbath. In the evening the boys took a stroll westward. Mum is the word. However, the ties upset five times on Tom, and he had to leave the woods a sadder and a wiser man. The melancholy depicted on his visage was more gloomy than the rains of last Monday.

Flesherton Station.

From our own Correspondent.

We have to chronicle this week the death of Mrs. Donald McLeod, which took place on Saturday evening, 19th. She passed away peacefully at 3 o'clock. She had only been ailing for a few weeks prior to her death. The deceased lady was 57 years of age and lived on the west back line upwards of 40 years. She was a kind neighbor and loved by all who knew her. She leaves a husband, four sons and two daughters to mourn her loss. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon to the Priceville cemetery, Rev. Mr. McLeod officiating. The cotege was a very large one, which testified to the high esteem in which deceased was held.

Mr. J. and R. McLeod, of Massachusetts, also Mrs. McLean, of Michigan, attended the funeral of their mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Summers, who have been laid up for the past week, are able to be around.

Mrs. Connors and daughter are spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. J. B. Egan.

Mr. Yirrs and family have moved to Muskoka, where he intends to run a hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Black have gone to spend a few days with friends in Chesley.

Priceville.

From our own Correspondent.

Say, Mr. Ed., your P. D. so badly twisted the orthography of a certain word in our last budget that it may lead some of our readers to think that our burg contains some very undesirable citizens.

The word we refer to was "Pricevillites" which was translated, transposed or changed into the "Pricevillians."

The Presbyterian S. S. anniversary which was held last Wednesday evening was a decided success. There was an abundance of good eatables provided and a splendid program besides. The recitations and singing of the school children deserve especial mention. One of the pleasant features of the evening was the distribution of prizes to the children. The special prize, given for the recitation of the greatest number of verses from the Bible during the year, was won by Miss Ena Nichol, who memorized over 500 verses during 1894. The principal speakers were the Revs. Messrs. Wells and Hartley and Messrs. M. Reiley and O. D. McLean. The choir, under the leadership of Mrs. Dr. Hutton, sang several beautiful selections in a very creditable manner. Mr. D. McDonald, the energetic sup't of the S. S., occupied the chair. Proceeds $25.25.

The Rev. Mr. Humphreys, of Markdale, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church last Sunday. The reverend gentleman preached an eloquent and very practical sermon.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Priceville circuit will be held at the Priceville appointment on the first Sunday in February. The Rev. Mr. Gardiner, of Hanover, is expected to assist in the services. The quarterly board meets the Saturday previous.

Miss Rosie Brander spent a few days lately visiting friends in Holland Centre.

Miss A. Bult returned to her home in Durham last Saturday on account of the school being closed.

Last Thursday death entered our village and took with her the little daughter of Mr. Robt. Conkey. Diphtheria was the cause. The whole community sympathize with the afflicted family in their sudden and sad bereavement. The funeral of the late Mrs. McLeod, of Flesherton Station, passed through this village last Monday. The King of Terrors keeps on reaping, regardless of the seasons.

Maxwell.

From our own Correspondent.

Snow in abundance, every one perfectly satisfied with the sleighing before the rain.

Drawing elm logs to your town is the chief industry now, or has been during the past few weeks.

A sleighload of our young people drove over to Mr. McCallum's a short time ago and had a pleasant time. A few evenings after that another load went to Simhampton; they report having a good time also.

Mr. Adam Kinnear is getting the timber on the ground for his barn. It is going to be a monster. Mr. Potts is the builder.

Dr. Scott and wife were out to Swinton Park on Sunday and Monday. They were to see Miss Hardy, who is ill and not expected to recover.

Mr. M. Morrison has returned from Dundalk.

Messrs. Little and Lawlor are preparing to commence together in the blacksmithing and also the wagon working line. Mr. Lawlor is getting out the timber for a large shop, to be erected in the spring. We think and hope they will do well.

The Northwest Mounted Police barracks at Bauff were destroyed by fire.

Mr. N. Clark Wallace was thrown out of his Cutter near Weston and received severe bruises.

A Conservative convention for North Grey will be held at Owen Sound on Jan. 29. The Owen Sound Times says:—"The importance of the Convention is doubled by the decision of Mr. James Masson, Q. C., M. P., to retire from active politics.

Fred Brusso died very suddenly in Chesley last week. He was removing hay out of the barn when he fell over and expired almost instantly. He was buried in Hanover cemetery.
