

Banking Office of
GEO. MITCHELL

FLESHERTON.

A general banking business transacted. Drafts issued and cheques cashed at usual rates. Money always available for legitimate business transactions. Office two doors north of Richardson & Co's.

Vicinity Chips

Characteristics of the Past Week Carefully Culled for the Curious.

Business notices among locals will be charged at the rate of 10c per line for each insertion. A reduction will be made on contracts for 100 lines or over.

Remember the Conservative convention in Markdale on Tuesday, March 12.

The spring Assizes are on at Owen Sound this week. The docket is a large one.

A shipment of sap buckets and diamond extension fire backs just arrived for Richardson.

I say, you:—just call and pay that little account right away. If you haven't got the money go and borrow it. R. Pt. Legate. [2in]

Carpets, carpets, just received a large consignment of Welton, Tapestry and Hemp carpets. Beautiful designs and prices very low. M. Richardson & Co.

A social will be held at Mr. S. McCallum's, Mesford Road, on Tuesday evening next, under the auspices of the Epworth League of the Presbyterian church. Admission 15 cents.

Piles of new spring goods just opened up at M. Richardson & Co's, consisting of Prints, Challies, Shirtings, Cottonades, etc. They are big bargains and going fast.

An auction sale of farm stock and implements will be held on Saturday of this week, 9th inst., on lot 26, con. 6, Artemesia, the property of Mr. Leonard Betts. Sale at 1 p. m. Terms cash. R. J. Sproule, auctioneer.

Hoy vs. Betts, slander, will be tried at the assizes which open in Orangeville on the 19th inst. This case is one in which R. Hoy accuses Leonard Betts of slandering him. Both parties live near this village and are well known.

Mr. C. Symons, who is visiting with Mr. W. Barnhouse, informs us that an electric line of railway connects Vancouver with New Westminster, B. C., a distance of eleven miles. The line works very satisfactorily, although the electricity is produced by steam. Both freight and passengers are carried.

Mr. Jacob Loughead, of Singhampton, was a welcome visitor on Monday. Mr. Loughead has purchased lot 2, con. 5, Osprey, from Mr. Wm. Sprout, known as the Hodgins' farm, and will remove there to this spring. The farm contains 120 acres, and the price paid was $2900.

The band played several new pieces on the square on Wednesday evening of last week. After the past few months of hibernating, their music has lost none of its charm or their lips their cunning. The boys are in good form for a summer campaign, thanks to their own and Prof. Tucker's industry.

The editor of this paper had a valuable hound poisoned on Saturday night. Every short while some dog is knocked off its mortal coil by poison. We venture to say that there is not a town of its size in Ontario where there is so much of this miserable, cowardly, heartless work going on as right here in Flesherton. Such individuals are no honor to the place.

If a merchant will take care of his advertising space, change his copy, keep it fresh, and put interesting matter into it, it will be read as assiduously and as regularly as the spiciest bit of news. As it gets readers, so will the dealer get customers. Aggressiveness and confidence are essential in advertising. Timid men do not succeed. It's the fellow that goes straight ahead, full of self confidence, forcible, bound to keep up his point; that's the man whose business flourishes. Let every statement be exactly a fact—no more, no less. Above all put news in the advertisement.

The Delineator for April is called the spring announcement number, and is an excellent specimen of this most popular woman's magazine. Supplementary to the regular issue of patterns there is a timely article on Bicycling with illustrations of costumes, that will interest all lovers of the wheel. Belle Pierson Springer writes forcibly of Typewriting as an Employment for Women; and Sara Miller Kirby gives further instruction in Kindergarten Teaching. How to Make Dolls' Houses is shown in Craps and Tissue Papers, new and exceedingly pretty designs are given in Venetian Iron Work, Knitting, Tatting, Netting and Crocheting, and the chapter on Burnt Leather Work gives illustrations and information of the necessary tools and implements and advice to beginners. The cookery article gives receipts for some new dishes. There is also a review of the Newest Books, some Instrumental Music and an Easter Carol. The subscription price of The Delineator is $1 a year. Single copies 15 cents. Address all orders to the Delineator Publishing Co. of Toronto, (Ltd.) 33 Richmond Street West, Toronto, Ont.

PERSONALS.

Thos. Ganey, M. P. P., spent Sunday at home with his family.

Mr. F. A. Baker removed his family to Midland on Monday.

Mr. Chas. Symons, of Vancouver, B. C., is the guest of Mr. Wm. Barnhouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jaques, of Glen Huron, and Mr. and Mrs. Pearsall, of Collingwood, visited at Mrs. Bulmer's last week.

Mr. R. J. Sproule had a peculiar experience on Saturday evening. About 8.30 he took the lantern and went out to the stable to care for his horse. He remembers opening the stable door, but after that everything was blank until he came to himself at 9.45 and found himself in the post-office with the lantern still in his hand. The back of his head was sore as if from a blow, and he was weak. The only theory Mr. Sproule has of the affair is that he must have fallen while climbing into the hay mow, striking his head against something.

A Settlement Arrived at.

The Graham Damage Case Will Not Now Go to Trial, and Mrs. Graham Gets Only a Small Fraction of the Sum Demanded.

A settlement has been arrived at in the Graham damage case, which was to have been tried at Orangeville Assizes on the 19th inst. Nelson Bros., of Proton Station, co-defendants in the suit, negotiated a settlement with Mrs. Graham on Monday by which, we are informed, they agree to pay her $150, the doctor's bill and law costs to date. Thus the townships are nappily out of it and a very knotty question remains undecided.

Our Village Society.

Having been led to reflect on the cause of the immediate condition of society in our village I have concluded that some of the defects may be found in the following points: Our young married people do not entertain the young people; many of them formerly added beauty and intellect to our assemblies but have become so wrapped up in their own immediate circle that a formal call occasionally is all they can spare time for now. Again, we have young ladies who shirk their social duty. Some of them with ample means and house-room sufficient, will attend party after party without ever considering that this form of hospitality, if accepted, should be returned. Indeed, not one of us should be excused on account of expense, for I lately spent a very pleasant evening in a house where the only lunch provided was bread and butter and coffee, and very acceptable it proved. Our young gentlemen should also consider that to accept from ladies such hospitality is to place themselves under obligation to give their hostess or some of the members of her family an evening's entertainment if it lies in their power to do so. Our calling lists, too, might be revised and made to include some of the old and infirm, and we might find it to be bread cast upon the waters. I would like to hear from some of your readers on the subject as I think it would prove beneficial. Yours truly, OBSERVER.

Maxwell.

From our own Correspondent.

The C.O.F. concert at Faversham took away a few of our young people on the 26th.

Mr. Jeremiah Kinghorn has returned. A little daughter came to Mr. Wm. Clinton's last week. It is there yet, and we are pleased to know both it and another are well.

Miss Tuck gave us a call last week. Mr. Wm. Kerton, who had been ailing but for a short time, departed this life on Wednesday last. He was 55 years old, and up to a few weeks before his death appeared healthy. He leaves a wife and three children to mourn his loss. The funeral took place on Friday, and was largely attended considering the condition of the roads.

Mrs. Joseph Radley, of Streetsville, attended the funeral of her brother, Mr. Wm. Kerton, last week.

Mr. Bowes, the Patron candidate, gave a short address to the electors here last Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Crosby were in town last week attending the funeral of Mr. Kerton.

Flesherton Station.

From our own Correspondent.

Mr. Cairns, of Durham, has purchased the Hannah hotel. Mr. Hannah has left the station and is now residing with Mr. Hoy, of the Morey house.

Business at the Station is quite brisk at present. Grain, timber and telegraph poles are the order of the day.

The social held at Mr. Jas. McMullen's was largely attended, and all who were present report a very pleasant time.

Miss Wilson, of Creemore, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Wilson McMullen.

Mr. Lawrence and a friend from Kimberley paid a flying visit to friends here.

Mr. Granger is absent on a visit to Creemore.

Mrs. Cook has had her throat very successfully operated on since going to the city and expects to return home shortly. The Misses Cook are completing their last term at the college.

Sorry to report the serious illness of Mrs. Wendel Bretze. Dr. Carter is in attendance.

Mr. Wm. Ez. White has this week taken possession of and will open up the hotel business in A. R. Egan's stand at the Station. We extend a hearty welcome to Mr. and Mrs. White.

A Boon to Horsemen.—One bottle of English Spavin Liniment completely removed a curb from my horse. I take pleasure in recommending the remedy, as it acts with mysterious promptness in the removal from horses of hard, soft or caloused lumps, blood spavin, splints, curbs, swellings, stifles and sprains.
