TO RENT.

Comfortable dwelling in Flesherton. Apply to R. J. Sproule.

Meaford Road.

From our own Correspondent.

Mr. John Allen, of Durham, visited at Mr. George Warling's, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ebenezer Knight, of British Columbia, are visiting at his father's, Mr. William Knight.

Mr. John Weber had an attack of inflammation last week.

Mr. John McGee is about retiring from active work, and his son, John J., will work the farm in his place.

Mr. Thomas Kells has leased his farm for a term of years to his son-in-law, Mr. A. Sheldon, of St. Mary's. Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon moved in last week. We wish them success.

The Rev. Paul Flint visited friends here a short time ago.

Some of the boys got up a hop in the hall here last Friday night. Professors Bowers and Galvia from Markdale furnished the music. We understand there was a good time.

Another correspondent sends us the following items:

Church socials have been all the go here lately and were well patronized. There were three held in this vicinity inside of two weeks. The first at Mr. G. Hutchinson's, the next at Mr. S. McAlum's, and the third at Mr. W. Heath's.

Mr. S. Carson, of Priceville, and his brother, spent a few days last week visiting friends here.

Mr. J. Weber and Mr. R. Warling have just passed through the trials of sickness and are again convalescent.

Miss Gilray spent Saturday and Sunday at the parental home at Epping.

McIntyre.

From our own correspondent.

Wedding bells! An interesting event took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. McInnes on Wednesday a terno on at 2 o'clock, when their eldest daughter, Annie, was united in marriage to Mr. David Winters, of the 3rd line. Rev. A. Hudson, of Maxwell, performed the ceremony. The bride looked charming in a dress of cream cashmere and ribbon trimming and the bridesmaid, Miss Jessie, sister of the bride, was very pretty in a dress of fawn cashmere, with ribbon trimming. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Francis Winters. After the ceremony the party drove to Southampton and on returning sat down to a dinner of goodies, then indulged in tripping the "light fantastic" until the "wee sma' hours." The presents were numerous and costly.

Mr. Vanlooven sold his farm to Mr. Menzie, of Wareham.

Mr. John McDonald had a wood-see on Tuesday. Having had a fine lot of wood cut during the day, he gave his reward in the evening by permitting a number of the youths and dandels to have the use of his house, which they did by keeping time to music and going through the familiar formula, "Address your partners—corners the same—all come down on the corners." The musicians, Messrs. Finley, Seelye and McArthur, and the "callers," Messrs. Robins, McFadyen, Mitchell, Scott, McLean and McInnes, deserve credit.

Mr. John McIntyre, jr., who has been at Rat Portage, is home, and looks hale and hearty.

Miss E. Hindle spent a few days at Mr. M. A. McIntyre's.

Mr. Thompson, of Flesherton, spent last Sunday at Mr. John McIntyre's.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy, of Maxwell, spent Saturday and Sunday in our town.

Mr. Robert Lamont is visiting friends here.

Flesherton Station.

From our own Correspondent.

Business is still quite brisk around here. Farmers are rushing in all their available produce before setting down at home to prepare for spring work. Having a second hotel here seems to be quite a item for the travelling public. People begin to stare at the warm hospitality afforded to themselves and teams. We never now hear them inquiring for stables or sheds, as almost before they arrive they are met with aid, and Dick, Tom, Jack and Harry are called to groom their horses. Surprised turns to consternation when settling up comes, and the jolly hosts inform them there is no charge for stabling or hay this time and next to nothing for the other good cheer they have partaken of. Thus, you see, "position is the life of trade."

Quite a number of our citizens are laid up with la grippe at present. We are glad to report the entire convalescence of Mrs. W. Beitz who was so very sick last week.

Mrs. Ez. White is also able to be around again.

Mrs. Archie McMullen, who has been ailing for the past few months, is very low at present.

Mr. Harry Piper, who has been on the sick list for a short time, is improving slightly.

Rumors say two of our citizens, in the persons of Mr. Ed. Purdy and Miss B. Stone, have been made one. If true, we wish the happy pair a long and happy voyage together through life.

Maxwell.

From our own Correspondent.

The Rev. J. W. Jones has been in London for a time.

Miss Annie Strachan is visiting in and around Wareham this week.

Mr. Hicks took Mr. Jones' work in his absence.

The Rev. Woodger is holding special services at the Buckingham appointment on the 12th, with marked success.

Thos. Guy, our busy agent, is on his rounds again. He is doing well, and so he ought, for what he sells is good and he sells it right.

Mr. George Pallister is going to draw the milk to Feversham this season, so get your cows ready to milk as soon as you can and not have him going without a load. Make them give all you can, too, if you please!

Mr. Wm. Bemrose has returned to Collingwood to work on the new boat.

The Methodists intend having a social next Tuesday evening in aid of the Sabbath school. No admission fee, but every one gives all he can.

Mr. George Burk is slowly recovering after a severe attack of inflammation of the lungs.

His tramping went through a window, made on a fine and was comfortable in the school-house last Thursday night. Be careful old man, you may be caught.

Mr. D. Field is moving down to the hollow and Mr. B. Hargrave is moving to the farm formerly occupied by Mr. Field.

Priceville.

From our own Correspondent.

"Sore throat" has almost become an epidemic in this community. One or two of nearly every family are or have been afflicted with it.

Judging from the amount of brick that has been hauled into this burg during the past month, we are going to have a brisk and busy summer.

Farmers and others have come to the conclusion that it pays to store up a few loads of ice for summer use, hence there has been considerable activity manifested in that line lately. The ice on the mill pond is of an excellent quality this year, and plenty of it.

Mr. Silas Leslie and family have returned to Manitoba after spending the winter in this village.

Mr. and Mrs. Greenway, of Holland Centre, were visiting the latter's parents at the parsonage of the forepart of the week.

Miss Annie Johnston, of Jackson, is the guest of Miss Constance Coukey at present.

Mr. George Watson, who has been working in Markdale for some time, is home for the summer.

Miss L. Simpson is ill with inflammation of the lungs.

Feversham.

From our own Correspondent.

Plenty of snow yet and large quantities of logs and wood coming in.

The mill here is kept busy just now, running almost day and night.

A. J. Conron is on the sick list just now.

Mrs. W. Mullen is also on the sick list. Miss J. Waud is improving after her severe illness.

Miss Crawford is visiting in the city for a time.

Mrs. Paul is visiting on the 12th at present.

Mr. Longstreet, of Belfountain, is visiting friends in this part just now.

On Wednesday of last week Miss Emma, eldest daughter of I. H. Perry, who united in the holy bonds with Mr. W. Alexander, merchant tailor, of Feversham. We take this, our first opportunity, of wishing them a happy trip through life.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Peilar spent Sunday in Collingwood.
