McIntyre.

From our own correspondent.

The frost of the first part of last week has devoured what remained after the havoc of the previous week, and we were on the verge of having winter for the 24th; but what a pleasant variety, pure air, hot sun and everything in the shape of fine weather that human heart could desire.

The 24th passed off very quietly here as some were not through seeding and many of those who were went to capture the finny tribe of the Mad River. In the evening quite a number took in the garden party at the Maxwell Methodist parsonage, while many more went to the party at "Osgoode Hall," where they tripped the light fantastic until the "wee sma' hours."

Miss Flora McDonald went to the Queen city last week.

Miss Maggie McDonald, of the C. C. I., was home for the 24th.

Mr. T. M. Guy, of Thornbury, spent the 24th here, also his daughter.

Miss Mary Gray is visiting friends at Thornbury.

Mr. and Mrs. John Norman, of Badger's, spent the 24th at her father's, Mr. Hayes'.

Mr. Hugh Lamont has had his house veneered with brick, which has added much to its appearance.

Mr. Wright, of Singhampton, was around to-day (Monday) trying to get cows' (milk) for the cheese factory.

Mr. and Mrs. Egeethy, of Rob Roy, and Mr. McMillan, spent Sunday at Mr. Roberts'.

Mr. Alex. McIntyre has applied to Mr. Wm. Monaghan to learn the plastering. Third Lane Alex. says there is no bird so easily tamed as the robin, but "Ike" says it is the most difficult thing he ever tried.

Epping.

From our own correspondent.

The 24th passed off very quietly here. Some of our people attended the garden party at Rocklyn. Others again stayed serenely at home, possibly some went fishing but we have not heard any fish stories yet this season.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mathewson spent the 24th with friends in Creomere, returning home Monday.

Miss Polly Gilray, of Vandeleur, spent Friday at her home, Braeburn Place, also quite a number of friends from Meaford spent a very pleasant day there.

Mr. Malham, of Wyebridge, visited at Braeburn Place last week.

Miss Ella Loblaw, of Greersville, visited her friend, Miss Annie McCounell, last week.

Miss Fanny Eaton, of Meaford, is at present visiting her brother, Mr. J. F. Eaton.

At time of writing Mrs. Yeomans is quite indisposed, but her recovery is looked for in the near future.

Rev. Mr. Brown started a Bible class on Thursday evening of last week, which it is the intention to continue every Thursday evening during the summer months.

Our base ball boys are practicing diligently and looking forward with eager anticipation to the time when they can give or receive a challenge to play a match.

Priceville.

From our own Correspondent.

Last Saturday Mr. Hector McDonald had a very narrow escape from instant death, or at least very serious injury. He was on the roof of a house, engaged in shingling, and having occasion to stand up, he stood on a "creepie" which over-set, throwing Mr. McDonald headlong down the roof. Fortunately in his swift descent he struck a ladder which he grabbed and held on for dear life. The ladder swung off from the building like a vaulting pole and landed Hector a considerable distance from the foundation, right on his his feet, without even as much as a bruise or a scratch.

The Rev. Mr. Hartley and Mr. C. C. James attended the district meeting at Chatsworth lately. Mr. James extended his trip to Owen Sound, Tara and other places, renewing old acquaintances.

Mr. Lusk, photographer, of Markdale, has pitched his tent right in the midst of our town.

Wonders will never cease. A real circus is actually (so say the bills) going to strike this burg in the near future. Guess they never heard of the frosts in these diggings. We hope they will—well—leave us some of their loose change, for to tell the truth shekels are rather a scarce commodity with us (N. B.—"us" means everybody) at present. But never mind, there is gon't be some free actin' outside. Come over on your "bike," Mr. Ed., and see the fun.
Rev. Mr. Otterwell, of Bellwood, spent a few days with Mr. C. C. James last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Blakeston visited friends in Proton last week.

Mrs. Husband, of Holland Centre, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Brander at present.

Flesherton Station.

From our own Correspondent.

The garden party held at Rody Stewart's on the 24th was well patronized, and every one seemed to enjoy themselves. Proceeds $24.... The temperance people held a picnic at Eugenia on the 24th, and report having a good time. Mr. J. Dyce has moved into his new house this week... Mr. S. McFadden moved into the one vacated by J. Dyce... Mr. J. B. Egan has built a new shed on the hotel premises for the accommodation of the public... R. Cook shipped two cars of potatoes, one to Hamilton and one to Philadelphia... Miss Johnston spent Sunday in Markdale the guest of Miss Armstrong... Miss C. Woods has gone to spend a month with friends in King... We are sorry to hear that Mrs. D. Stewart has been ill for the two past weeks... Mr. Ed. Sheels is also ill and confined to bed... Church Sunday afternoon, three o'clock... Quite a number from Priceville vicinity was out to meet the corps of Mrs. Spittal, which came by the noon train on Tuesday.

A Thriving Firm.

The subjects of the following sketch are natives of the township of Osprey. Their many friends in that township will be glad to learn of their prosperity as quoted below from the columns of the Mercantile and Financial Times, of Chicago:

In this connection it is proper to refer to the old established and well-known real estate house conducted under the style of Madden Bros., which has just removed from No. 161 Dearborn street to an elegant suite of offices, Nos. 524-56 in the Marquette Building, where they will have a great deal more room, and with enlarged space and improved facilities will be better able than ever before to meet the requirements of their patrons and handle their growing business. The firm of Madden Bros. was first established in 1887. The individual members of the firm are Mark F., Michael S., James A., Joseph P., George H., Thomas and Edward R. Madden and Mortimer Prindville, all of whom are especially fitted for this line of business, by reason of a liberal education and a knowledge of the history of the different tracts which compose the city and which has made suburban Chicago remarkable among modern cities. They also have a good general knowledge of the condition and history of titles and accurate and extended information of values of realty. Madden Bros. have certainly established for themselves a record for promptness, precision and probity, which few men can equal. They now have a long list of buildings, stores, houses, flats, etc., to rent, of which they have the exclusive custody and control. They buy and sell real estate, manage estates, collect rents, pay taxes, place insurance; in fact, transact all business of real estate agents and brokers. They also procure loans at most reasonable terms on bond and mortgage. The Messrs. Madden have secured the confidence of the Courts and of the public by their correct and impartial business management. They are fully justified in soliciting from the general public a fair share of orders, and their past record is sufficient guarantee that all business entrusted to them will be conducted in such a manner as to give perfect satisfaction. In their new quarters the "Financial Times" wishes for them a continuance of the success and prosperity that has always attended their every transaction.

Its Fame Spreading.

A NEW REMEDY IN GENERAL USE IN MANITOBA AND THE NORTHWEST.

WINNIPEG, May 27—The effects of the regular ways of sickness which sweeps over this portion of the Dominion in the spring are noticeable in the increasing amount of the druggists' sale. There has been quite a run on the kidney remedy now so well known under the name of Dodd's Kidney Pills. The recovery from Bright's disease of Mr. Arthur Coley, of Somerset, through their use, an account of which appeared in the papers, gave a considerable impetus to the sale, and the remedy has become indispensable in many Manitoba households, its fame having penetrated into the remotest parts of the province and North West Territories.

Premier Greenway has left Ottawa without meeting Sir Mackenzie Bowell officially. He returns to the capital in a week.

Among those knighted upon the occasion of the Queen's birthday are Henry Irving, the actor, and Walter Besant, the author.

A farmer named Robert Walker and his son John were drowned in the Grand River, near Onondaga, through their boat filling and sinking while attempting to cross the river.
