Kimberley.

The roads are dusty, and the crops need rain.

Magistrate's court here to day (Tuesday.) The parties interested live on the third line, Euphrasia. It is an assault case.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Walter spent Sunday with the former's mother in Walter's Falls.

Mrs. W. H. Thurston, of The Advance, and two little sons, are visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Bucl, of Reach township, have been the guests of Mr. R. Camplin.

Mr. Lunan, teacher, of Paradise, visited his sister, teacher in our school, on Saturday last.

We noticed Mr. Fanson, of the Thornbury Herald, in town on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Brooks of Thornbury visited the latter's parents this week.

Mrs. Jas. Myles, who has been ill for some time, is very low and not expected to survive many days.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Fawcett of Flesherton visited with their son, Mr. J. R. Fawcett, last week.

Mr. Jas. Bain, of the public library, Toronto, and another gentleman, were guests of the Travellers' Home last week enjoying the fishing.

F. A. Thurston, D.D.S., of Chicago, will spend some time at the parental home to recuperate his health, which was somewhat run down with study. We congratulate Dr. Thurston on the securing of his degree.

We notice ye editor in town quite frequently these days. Verily the bicycle is a great institution.

Epping.

From our own correspondent.

Weather continues hot and dry, growth very slow.

Mr. Thos. Londry raised an addition to his barn Monday.

A very successful social was held at the residence of Mrs. Shore on Thursday evening of last week. The Kimberley baseball club came up and played a match with our boys early in the evening, which resulted in a victory for the visiting team, however, it grew too dark and the Kimberley boys had one more inning than the Epping boys. After the match all repaired to the house where a tempting tea was served, after which a pleasant evening was spent in games of various kinds. Some excellent music was furnished by Dr. Bennett, Rocklyn, (organ) and Mr. A. Donnelly (violin), also by Mrs. Guy, Miss Yeomans and others. The proceeds amounted to some $13 to be appropriated to the building fund of the church shed.

Mr. R. Gilray visited last week at Vandellour and Flesherton.

Mr. John Brocklebank is building the cellar of his new house. Mr. Proctor, of Kimberley, has the contract.

Flesherton Station.

From our own Correspondent.

Mrs. Malcolm of Collingwood is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. McMullen, who is very low at present.

Mr. A. McCauley is very ill at present and under the care of Dr. Carter.

Miss Janey Meira is very ill with inflammation.

Mrs. J. B. Egan is very ill with bronchitis.

Mrs. Snell who has been spending a few weeks with friends in different parts, returned last week.

R. Cook shipped his last car of potatoes to the Queen city on Monday.

We hear the 12th of July will be celebrated in this place. If so, we hope every one will try and make every comfort for outsiders.

Church on Sunday morning.

Meaford Road.

From our own Correspondent.

The grain crops in this vicinity are looking fairly well considering the late frosts and dry weather, but unless we have rain soon the hay crop especially will be very short.

Mr. John Atkinson of Caledon is visiting friends here.

Miss Bert Smith of Flesherton is visiting at her uncle's, Mr. Thos. Kells.

Mrs. Carson and son of Priceville spent the 24th with her daughter, Mrs. S. Gilbert.

Mr. Robt. Waring, sr., spent the 24th with his daughter at Chatsworth.

Miss Mina Graham of Markdale spent last Sunday with her parents.

Mr. R. G. Waring, jr., wears the latest smile since his wife presented him with a daughter.

Mrs. John Boland, who was visiting friends at Mono, returned home last week.

Swinton Park.

From our own Correspondent.

The frost has once more disappeared and warm weather is again making its appearance.

We are glad to learn that Miss Annie Parslow, who has been sick for some time, is now recovering.

Mrs. Joseph Richardson and Mrs. James McLean are visiting friends in Ashfield, at present.

Dr. Campbell of Dundalk delivered his lecture, "The Wedding Ring," on Monday evening of last week in the Methodist church. The lecture was very instructive and pleasing to all, and we hope the advice given will be taken into practice.

The E. L. of C. E. elected the officers for this term on Tuesday evening of last week, as follows: President, Miss Campbell; Vice Pres., Miss Ferris; Sec., Miss Scott; Treas., Mr. Oscar Ostrander.

Mr. Balfour, minister of Eugeneia, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church last Sabbath evening. The sermon was very beneficial and effective.

Feversham.

From our own Correspondent.

Owing to the extreme heat and dry weather crops are suffering, especially the hay crop.

R. T. McGirr was home for a few days last week.

Mrs. A. McGirr is visiting friends in Flesherton for a time.

Mr. E. Pedlar, of Flesherton, spent Sunday in our town.

Mrs. W. Pedlar has been on the sick list for the last week but is recovering.

Miss Sara Brackinborough spent Sunday at home.

Miss Sara Perigo spent last week visiting friends in and around Flesherton.

The school was closed for a couple of days last week while Mr. Hamilton was attending convention in Flesherton.

Mr. H. Alexander is pushing his new house along as fast as possible.

We would like to draw the attention of the pathmaster to the fact that the streets in Feversham need his attention, and we hope he may see his way clear to have them cleaned up and thereby improve the appearance of things generally, and to see that the streets are not made the dumping ground for all sorts of refuse.

Priceville.

From our own Correspondent.

The circus has come and gone, but we don't think the proprietor scooped in enough of the needful to keep him in luxury the rest of his life. The high wind which prevailed in the evening came within a shaving of lifting the tent into the adjoining field.

We are sorry to learn that Frankie Aussem, son of Mr. Joseph Aussem, is ill with the diphtheria.

Mr. Jno. Fisher, of Forest, was the guest of Mr. Jno. Conkey, of the north line, last week.

Messrs. H. McLean and H. Watson have secured the contract of the brick work of a large house in Ventry. They are busily engaged at present in laying the foundation of the mausoleum.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Hartley are in Toronto this week attending the conference.

Messrs. Aggie Bull, Gertie McLeod and Mr. W. J. Blakeston spent Thursday and Friday at the teachers' convention in Flesherton.

Messrs. Neil McKinnon, D. McDonald and Dr. Brauder attended the lecture given by Dr. McLellan last Thursday in Flesherton.

Miss Mima Hardy, of Swinton Park, was the guest of Dr. Brauder last week. Mr. R. B. Reiley has arrived home from Owen Sound where he has been attending the N. E. College. R. says that the N. B. C. is the place to get business education.

Last Saturday afternoon the remains of the late Donald McArthur, of Bunestan, were laid in Priceville cemetery. The deceased who was only about 22 yrs. was well known in this village. The funeral cortege contained nearly 120 rigs. This is the second funeral from that neighborhood inside of two weeks.

The thoroughbred Jersey cow belonging to L. H. Yeomans, of this town, which is valued very highly by himself and family, stole a march on its owner the other day and got at the pea barrel and ate about five or six pails of peas, with the result that she became enormously distended. W. Tanner, V. S., was called and was compelled to perform the operation of rhuematomy or the removal of the contents of her stomach. About six pailsful were removed by hand and the cow is about as well as ever.—Mt. Forest R. P.
