M. WILSON,
FLESHERTON MEAT EMPORIUM.

Priceville.

From our own Correspondent.
We have been holidaying lately, hence the non-appearance of a budget from this burg for the last two weeks.

The rain last Sunday was a very welcome visitor. The good it did cannot be estimated in dollars and cents.

Mr. Malcolm Cameron and family, of Bruce, have become permanent residents of our village. We extend them a hearty welcome.

The following candidates succeeded in passing the entrance examinations from Priceville P. S., viz.:—Edith James, William Watters, Donald McLeod, James McLeod, Peter McArthur, the latter being recommended. Jessie McLean and Frank Rieley also obtained the required percentage, but they passed the entrance last year.

Death is still continuing its ravages in this community, taking the old and young. Last week Mr. Colin McMillan at the ripe age of 87 was laid to rest in the village graveyard and this week the remains of Sarah Beeton, aged 24, were carried to the same place. Thus hardly a week passes without a mournful procession passing by or through our village.

Feversham.

From our own Correspondent.
Miss Craford and niece of Philadelphia are visiting with Mrs. Paul here at present.

Miss Hall and Mr. T. Hall of Toronto are visiting friends in and around Feversham at present.

Mrs. Ostran of Quebec is visiting at her father's, Mr. Julian.

W. Alexander is pushing things with his new house. It will be ready to occupy in a short time.

Mrs. A. McGirr is visiting friends in Feversham for a time.

Feversham has got a Dr. of its own. Dr. McKechnie of Collingwood having opened out here.

Mrs. Geo. Alexander met with a severe accident last week. She slipped and fell on the floor, striking a chair in the fall, but at last account she was some better.

The glorious twelfth was duly observed by the lodge here going to Flesherton Station, but some went to Collingwood, some to Dundalk, others stayed at home.

The road work is done but as yet there is no cleaning up of the streets. We hope the pathmaster will see to it that the streets are cleaned up and kept clean, and not have sawlogs and wood piles and lumber and brush and all kinds of refuse dumped on the streets in future.

McIntyre.

From our own correspondent.
The dry season has at last been changed by the most delightful shower on Sunday and I am quite sure that all farmers as well as myself feel encouraged to think that they may yet have something for their hard labor.

We expect to be kept busy raising barns this week as Mr. Sinclair's comes off on Wednesday and Mr. Lamont's on Thursday.

Miss Flora McDonald returned home on Saturday after an extended visit to friends in the city.

Mr. Hector McDonald, sr., and Mrs. Turnbull visited friends in Priceville last week.

Miss Somers, a teacher of Markdale public school, spent Sunday with friends here, also her sister and brother of Maxwell.

Quite a number from here took in the excursion to Parry Sound via steamer Majestic from Collingwood and those who stayed at home intend going to Niagara on Thursday next.

Mr. Neil McLean is leaving blacksmithing with Mr. Roberts. That's right, better late than never.

Blacksmith Joe says the Mad River is a fine place for bathing.

Mount Zion.

From our own Correspondent.
Miss Maggie McMurray, of Brampton, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. James Cornfield, jr.

Miss Lou Cornfield and the Misses Wilson, of Toronto, are the guests of Mrs. James Cornfield, sr., as are also Mrs. Rutherford and children, of Shelburne. Mrs. A. Smith and daughter, of Collingwood, are visiting their numerous friends here.

Miss Tillie White, of Markdale, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Thomas Taylor, jr.

One of those pleasant events which make life happy took place at the residence of Mr. George Thompson, sr., on Monday, the 15th, when his daughter, Susan, was united in marriage to Mr. Benjamin Hargrave, of Maxwell. We wish the young couple a pleasant and prosperous voyage through life.

Master Willie Orr and his little sister, Polly, are visiting with their grandmother, Mrs. Morton.

The twelfth passed off very quietly here. Our people vacated Mt. Zion for either Flesherton Station or Dundalk.

The crops are no exception here to the general rule; hay crop is light, and unless rain comes soon the harvest will be light also, while the late frost damaged the gardens and potatoes; so, altogether, the farmer's prospect is poor.

Swinton Park.

From our own Correspondent.

The grain crops look well here owing to the refreshing showers of rain we have had.

A garden party in connection with the Methodist church will be held in the grounds round Mr. R. Black's house on Thursday evening, Aug. 1.

Mrs. R. Black is able to be up and around again.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. James Ferris is ill at present.

Mrs. T. G. Broughton is also ill at the time of writing.

Mrs. Haney Haw, of Toronto, is the guest of Mr. Wm. Haw.

Master Will Wright, of Toronto, is spending a few weeks with friends here. Mrs. Blakeston, of Priceville, was the guest of Mr. R. Parslow last week.

Miss Minnie McRae, of Wareham, is renewing old acquaintances in and around here.

Miss Nettie McMillan and Bessie Kinzel are home for vacation, after which Nettie intends to teach school.

Meaford Road.

From our own Correspondent.

The light showers of the past week have greatly improved the appearance of the crops.

Haying is about over. It is a very light crop.

Mrs. Thomas Kells, who has been visiting at Ingersol and Caledon, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Buchanan have returned after spending a few weeks with Mrs. B's relatives in Victoria County.

Miss Moore, of Victoria County, is visiting at Mr. Jos. Buchanan's.

Mr. P. McCullough visited at Mr. J. Boland's last Sunday.

Miss Mary Bredie and Miss Richardson, who have been dressmaking at Priceville, are home for their holidays.

Mrs. J. M. Davis, who has been spending the last month with her sister at the Soo, returned on Saturday.

Mr. White Anderson and his sister, Lizzie, visited their sister, Mrs. G. Hutchinson, jr., on Sunday last.

Miss Sarah Johnston and Mr. Will Sinclair are home from O. S. C. I. for their holidays.

The Vandeleur base ball team played the ninth line of Euphrasia team on the grounds of the later week before last, Vandeleur being the winners. Score—Vandeleur 50, Ninth Line 10.

Mr. Mahan, the new pastor, has delivered three very excellent sermons in this place and seems to have made a very favorable impression. We predict for him a very successful pastorate.

A son of Mr. W. M. Craig of Bond Head was killed by a horse.
