We were sorry to hear of the burning of Mr. J. Martin's barn on the townline of Euphrasia. We understand it was pretty well insured and Mr. Martin's loss will be comparatively small.

The Kickapoo Indians are going to kick in Kimberley next week.

We believe there was quite an exciting time at a threshing about two miles north of Kimberley last Saturday, when two well-to-do farmers got quite warmed up over some dispute and were not very careful how they handled each other. The result is some dental work will be quite necessary after one party is able to appear before the public again.

Proton Station.

From our own Correspondent.

Owing to the exceptionally fine harvest weather the greater portion of the grain crop is stored in the garner. The amount of straw, however, is much short of the average, also the grain has been difficult to reap in most of this section, owing to its thinness. It has been much broken down.

Here are a few of the many who are going to see the sights of Toronto: Mr. J. White, Mr. T. F. Lockhart, Mr. and Mrs. Howell, Mr. N. McLean, Mr. T. Lyons, Mr. Feilstead, etc.

The Misses McMullen, who have been visiting at their aunt's, Mrs. Shearson, for the past few weeks, have returned to their home in the city.

Mrs. T. Lockhart is spending holidays in her parental home in Alliston.

Miss Jennie Nixon of Waterloo, who was visiting her many friends here, has returned home.

The entertainment given by the members and others of the Presbyterian church was a very pleasant affair. Had it not been for the very disagreeable night a fuller house would have been the result. The Rev. Campbell of Dundalk gave the first address. His subject was "Tobacco and its effect upon the system."

The next was Dr. Sproule of Markdale. His topic was, "Variety is the spice of life," which, owing to the Dr's. talent, was very ably discussed and much appreciated. And last, but not least, was the Rev. Wells of Flesherton, who directed his remarks chiefly to the young in an instructive manner. The Dundalk silver band gave some very choice selections.

Mr. James Hodgins, one of our enterprising citizens, has budded out into a full fledged barber who is prepared to shave the innocent as well as the guilty, all for the small sum of ten cents.

Messrs. R. and B. Hodgins, who have just returned from spending some time with friends in Sunnidale, report having had a good time in the dear ones' company.

which leaves him amenable to the workings of the Charlton Act. The mother was a party to Gibson's scheme to get the marriage consummated, and Rev. Dr. Gunner, of Listowel, was approached to perform the ceremony, but considering the affair suspicious, he declined. Gibson pleaded not guilty, and elected to be tried before Judge Woods.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald McLean of Brewster's Lake, met with a serious accident on Friday last while going to the funeral of the late Donald McKinnon, of Maple Valley. The horses gave a sudden jump and Mr. and Mrs. McLean, who were sitting on the hind seat of the democrat, were thrown out backwards. Mrs. McLean had two ribs and her collar bone broken and is not expected to recover. Mr. McLean escaped with a bad shaking up.—Shelburne Free Press.

Donald McKinnon, one of the early settlers of Osprey township, died at his late residence on the south line on Wednesday of last week, aged 76 years. He leaves a wife, one son and several daughters, all grown up. His son is Neil McKinnon, merchant of Badjeros, and the daughters are Mrs. Dr. Mitchell of Dundalk, Mrs. James Phillips of Shingley, Mrs. Caldwell of Drew and Miss McKinnon, teacher of Weston, formerly of Shelburne. There are only two of the first settlers now living in that part of Osprey, Messrs. Wm. Gibson and Wm. Armour, of Maple Valley.—Shelburne Free Press.

The worst disaster in the copper mining history of Michigan occurred at Osceola copper mine, where thirty men are imprisoned in a burning mine, with all hope of escape cut off.

Lightning killed Mr. John Puckering of Caledon and his dog while out hunting. He went into a vacant stable belonging to Mr. A. Hillock during the storm and was found later by Mr. Hillock, dead. Deceased resided with his father at Credit Forks.

An exchange says: The London township man who was jilted by a widow will shortly petition the courts to make her return the plow and rakes and hoes he gave her during the courting days. These are all implements of husbandry, and the man who was to have been the husband seems to be entitled to them. He didn't reap any benefit from the rakeoff as long as he couldn't find, and while his hoes may have something to do with removing the widow's weeds, it was another fellow who did the weeding. Isn't it all harrowing.
