People Wonder

... WHY ...

W. A. Armstrong

Can sell such fine quality of goods at such LOW PRICES.

The reason for this is, we watch for swags and buy for cash, giving our customers the benefit of the cash discount thereby.

Our Stock

Was never of a better quality or larger. Don't wait till the last moment to think about looking after or buying your fall and Christmas goods and presents, for now we have a well selected and large stock to choose from Repairing Done at all Times.

W. A. ARMSTRONG, JEWELER

Meaford Road.

From our own Correspondent.

Saturday and Sunday brought us a genuine Yankee winter.

Miss Sarah Johnston of the O. S. C. I. spent Sunday with her parents.

Miss Elth Stamborskie left last week for Chicago, where she will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowles and their son Samuel with Mrs. Thos. Dunlop, drove to Albion some time ago to attend the funeral of a relative.

Miss Mary Symes of Glenelg spent Sunday with Mr. Wm. Hutchinson.

Swinton Park.

From our own Correspondent.

We have been silent for the past few weeks and don't think it necessary to tell the reason.

The weather has been blustery for the past few days, but at present we are favored with about four inches of snow. Mr. F. had his first sleigh ride last Sabbath night.

The potato crop has been a success in general this year. Mr. Wm. and H. Richardson stowed away twenty-seven wagon loads this season.

The revival services being held in the Methodist church are, we believe, succeeding. The work done in connection with these meetings by the Revs. Harly and Matthewson and others is, we believe, being the means of drawing many to Christ, and we hope by the close of this week we will be able to give a better and more correct report of the work, as we, too, feel interested.

Miss Lizzie Ferris of the Queen city is spending a few weeks at the parental home.

Miss Annie Hill is also home from the Queen City.

On Wednesday morning of last week Mr. James Ferris, sr., passed away at the ripe age of seventy. He and his family came to this country about 20 years ago, and during his stay amongst us he made many friends by his honest dealings and pleasant manner, and was respected by all who knew him. His remains were taken to the Methodist burying ground on Thursday afternoon, and though we miss him here on earth yet he has gone to meet those gone before in the land of peace and joy. The bereaved family have the deep sympathy of the community.

Priceville.

From our own Correspondent.

Cutters and sleighs made their appearance during the forepart of the week.

Miss Minnie McDonald of Shelburne is spending a few weeks with her parents.

Mr. R. T. Grier of the O. S. Coll. Inst. was home for a few days last week.

Mr. Robt. McLachlan arrived home from Manitoba last week.

Miss Sarah Ector of Edg's Hill is visiting friends in this community at present.

Miss Edith Hartley is being initiated into the mysteries of pharmacy at Dr. Christie's drug store, Flesherton.

Misses Maggie McDonald, Maggie McKee and Katie McIntyre left for the Queen City last week.

We are sorry to learn that Miss Jessie McLean is ill with typhoid fever at present.

Mr. M. Scott is busily engaged making his house comfortable for the winter.

One of our nitro birds in hunting lately came upon a rabbit and a partridge at the same instant and having a double barreled gun of course intended to bag both. However, "there is many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip." The first shot was fired but the short, sharp snap of the cap was the only sound. Quick as a flash an attempt was made to sight the second barrel but it was never fired as the hunter was suddenly keeled heels over head among the hgs and brush. The cause is not hard to guess. As it is M. S. is as mad as a wet hen every time he thinks of it. Moral: "Don't count your chickens before they are hatched."

Flesherton Station.

Mr. Wm. Burnett of Flesherton has removed to the farm lately occupied by Mr. John Black and owned by Mr. McGill.

Mr. John Black has removed to Durham to try his hand at the butchering business. We wish him success in his new sphere. John was a jolly good fellow.

New seats have taken the place of the old ones in the Orange hall out of the proceeds of the garden party that was held some time ago.

Mr. Cook is around buying up butter, eggs and fowl in Flesherton and Markdale, and intends paying a visit to the smaller villages around.

Shipping horses here is the order of the day. The horses are not of a very high order. There are no fancy prices, but still they go.
