Priceville.

From our own Correspondent.

During the five days of last week a large quantity of potatoes and turnips were safely housed. However, there are thousands of bushels of the latter in the fields yet.

Mr. D. McCormack is on the war path armed with a ponderous satchel. He allows no discount even for cash.

There is a hint around town that one of our villagers mistook an oil tank at the station for the new boiler for the grist mill. Who was it?

The S. O. T. intend having a big time on Hallowe'en.

Last week Mr. M. Reiley threshed over 200 bushels of oats from five acres of ground. How is that for high?

Mr. John McLean returned last week from the county of Peel where he has been working during the summer. John had a narrow escape from instant death a month or so ago. A threshing machine upon which he was seated broke through a bridge by which he sustained serious injury. The county of Peel had to foot the doctor's bill and pay for his loss of time besides.

A Mr. Kerr of Heathcote passed through this burg lately with 48 head of cattle en route for Listowel, where he hopes to sell them at fair prices for stall feeding or otherwise.

Mr. Thomas Nichol has rented Mr. Sydney Blakeston's farm on the O. D. R. What next?

Mr. R. Wallace of Woodbridge was the guest of Mr. C. C. James last week.

Miss Bella McKinnon and Master James Tryon left on Tuesday to visit friends in Detroit.

Mr. Angus McKinnon of Durham has been in town lately looking after the business of his brother, the late Archie McKinnon.

Messrs. J. D. and Dave Brown left on Tuesday for their annual hunting excursion to the Bruce Peninsula.

Mr. and Mrs. Blakeston visited friends in Proton lately.

Miss Jennie James of Durham model school spent Saturday and Sunday at her parental mansion.

The Rev. Mr. Mathewson of Toronto occupied the Methodist pulpit on Sunday.

Mr. Charlie McLean of Shelburne spent a few days in town last week.

Died—On Saturday, Velma, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bolger, aged 13 months. The funeral took place on Monday to the R. C. cemetery at Pomona. Mr. and Mrs. Bolger have the deep sympathy of the community in the loss of their little girl.

Osprey Council.

The council of Osprey met in McLean's hall, McIntyre, on Monday, Oct. 21st. Members all present, the reeve in the chair. Minutes of last meeting read and signed.

Communications were read from Dr. Bell, bill $10, medical attendance to Jas. Grant an indigent; county treasurer, list of lands in arrears; Robt. Beatty, an indigent, re aid; Jno. McLennan, re equivalent to grant on town line Osprey and Collingwood; A. McGirr, re flour, furnished to Philip Ottewell, an indigent. Circulars from Prisoners' Aid Association and H. O'Hara, re municipal debentures.

Monaghan—Speers—That Robt. Beatty be granted $4 as charity and Samuel Armit to expend the amount for him. Carried.

Eugenia.

From our own correspondent.

News at present is rather a scarce commodity around Eugenia—not even a wedding to stir us up.

If the latter part of last week was Indian summer this week is squaw winter, at least Monday looked like it.

Building operations are still going on. Mr. Shields is erecting a neat little shop on Mr. Cairns' lot. He intends starting shoemaking and jobbing work of all sorts. Mr. Moses Sherwood has built an addition to his house. New fences are being built and improvements of all sorts are going on around. Now we want some enterprising barber to come and start a shop here.

Mr. Joseph Sherwood and family of Ephrasia have become residents of our town. We extend to them a hearty welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Williams have moved into their handsome residence. Oh that some more of our young men would follow Jake's example. There are plenty of building lots for sale yet.

The heavy rains we have had will help to raise the water in the Beaver. We hope soon to see the veneer factory running now that the water is getting plentiful.

Miss Agnes Hislop, who was visiting friends in Toronto, has returned home.

Mr. Samuel Fisher and W. Gilliland, who went out on the harvest excursion to Manitoba, have returned home. They prefer Eugenia to any place they have seen in their travels.

Mr. David Smith is erecting a fine new house this fall.

Kimberley

From our own Correspondent.

Our assistant teacher, Miss Lunan, attended the East Grey teachers' convention, held in Collingwood last week, and reports having had a pleasant and profitable time.

Mrs. Geo. Walter spent a few days of the past week with friends at Walter's Falls.

Our school trustees have raised the salary of the clever and successful principal of our public school $100 for next year. This year's salary was $350, but next year Mr. Pentland will get the tidy sum of $450. While some sections are lowering the salary of their teachers ours does not believe in that policy, and will continue to recognize merit where merit exists.

Beeton band has "busted" owing to lack of financial encouragement.

A squash weighing 178½ lbs. is on exhibition in a Clarksburg drug store.

Burglars entered the residence of Charles Wright, near Kleimburg, while Mr. Wright was away, and by threats of mutilation forced Mrs. Wright to declare the whereabouts of $120 which was in the house. This they pocketed and decamped. No clue has been found as to their identity.

Joseph Revell came before George Price, J. P., on Friday charged with stealing a razor, comb, silver watch and locket, and other articles too numerous to mention, from the house of David Redfern, Artemesia, on September 24th. He was sent up for trial and elected to be tried by the Judge without a jury. He will come before Judge Creaser Friday.
