Business notices among locals will be charged at the rate of 10c per line for each insertion. A reduction will be made on contracts for 100 lines or over.

Township Council will meet in the Town Hall on Monday next, Nov. 4.

Quarterly services will be held in the Methodist church on Sunday next.

The deer shooting season opens to-morrow, Friday, and continues for fifteen days.

Remember the Orange concert at the station on the evening of Nov. 5. A good time may be expected.

All parties having fowl to sell should market it not later than Wednesday in each week in order to secure best prices.

200 tubs of choice butter wanted at highest market prices for cash. Also roll butter, hides, tallow and sheep skins. John Runstadler, Flesherton.

Mrs. A. M. Gibson was seized with a faintness when coming out of church on Sunday, falling down the steps and bruising her face considerably.

Now that the Frost King will hold sway over this country for awhile every one should have good footwear. Boots, rubbers and overshoes that will keep your feet dry and warm, a lot of them for sale at Clayton's.

The weather has presented quite a wintry aspect this week. A heavy down-pour of rain ended in several inches of snow on Monday and Tuesday. There was a large number of sleighs in town on Tuesday, although sleighing was poor.

Toronto is visited this week by Trilby and is drawing crowded houses, and the people are much delighted with the play. So are the people much pleased who buy boots, shoes and rubbers at Clayton's.

In many cases, the first work of Ayer's Sarsaparilla is to expel the effects of the other medicines that have tried in vain. It would be a saving of time and money if experimenters took Ayer's Sarsaparilla at first instead of at last.

The following interesting bit of news is from the Clarksburg Reflector: "The villages of Flesherton and Hanover are police villages, and on entering either places you cannot but think you are in an incorporated town. They have their own electric lights and all modern improvements and their rate of taxation is not increased one mill."

We know whereof we affirm when we state that Ayer's Pills, taken promptly, at the first symptoms of colds and fevers, arrest further progress these disorders, and speedily restore the stomach, liver, and bowels to their normal and regular action.

Mr. Jeremiah Piper, whose death was chronicled in last week's paper, was a native of Tyrone, Ireland. He came to Canada in 1836, settling at Bolton, where he remained eight years, and then took up a farm on the west back line, Artemesia, where he remained with his son, Mr. Harry Piper, up to the time of his death. Mr. Piper was a very strong and vigorous man all his life, scarcely knowing what sickness was. For the past two years there were signs of failing health, but death came unexpectedly. He sat by the stove on Thursday and on Saturday was able to walk from one room to another with slight assistance, but on Sunday morning he passed peacefully away. When told by his daughter-in-law on Saturday that he would die, he said, "It is all right."

Talk about the stubbornness of a mule! It is not in it with a good fat Yorkshire pig. Butcher Mark Wilson was driving one of this breed to the shambles on Tuesday and when opposite this office it lay down and refused to proceed further. It was coaxed, kicked, prodded, punched, shoved, rolled over, whipped, had its tail twisted, its nose tweaked, its bristles pulled, and was lectured in several languages, but still it calmly sat down and eyed its persecutors with imbecilic eyes. It wouldn't go! It absolutely wouldn't go, though the elements should dissolve. It was evidently an English pig. Finally Mr. Wilson was obliged to hitch up his wagon, The Advance staff turned out and loaded Mr. porker into the wagon, and his pigship was driven off. We never enjoyed a pork chop better than the one served up on Wednesday.

PERSONALS.

Mr. Boyd of Conn spent Sunday with his son, Mr. J. Boyd, of this town.

Mr. and Mrs. Lapp of Red Wing spent Sunday with Mr. W. Barnhouse.

HARTMAN—CONN—In Ephrasia, on Wednesday, 23rd inst., at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. J. Bedford, assisted by Rev. J. Mahan, Mr. Frank Hartman of St Vincent to Miss Sarah Conn, daughter of Mr. John Conn.

Died.

BOLGER—In Priceville, on Saturday, 26th inst., Velma, second daughter of M. Bolger, aged 13 months.

Mr. J. A. Black from Flesherton Station, moves into town this week, and will open a butcher business in the McIntyre block.—Durham Review.

It is understood that Premier Bowell, Sir Adolphe Caron and Messrs. Foster, Haggart and Montague will campaign Ontario next month.

A man in Pennsylvania won $50 by drinking a quart of whiskey in an hour a half. The money was immediately expended for his funeral expenses.

Hugh McGuire of Goodland, Kas. sulked because his dead uncle's will left him only an old fiddle, but later when his wife found $1,800 in money and a deed for 160 acres of Virginia land stowed away in the instrument, a change came over his spirits, and he called in the neighbors.

Mr. T. J. Speers, 2nd con., Holland, was at work in a field when his little daughter came out to him. The child being bareheaded and barefooted and the wind cold, Mr. Speers sent her home to get her hat and shoes on, and from that time to the present the little one has not been seen and no trace of her can be found. All hope of the child being alive has been given up. There is considerable swamp along the front of the lot which is covered with thick scrub cedars and other bushes and through which a creek runs, and it is thought that the child may have got into that and laid down in a sheltered place and fallen asleep and there unconsciously perished and her body covered with the snow.

An editor who died of starvation after making Dr. Tanner ashamed of himself, was being escorted to heaven by an angel who had been sent out for that purpose. "May I look at the other place before we ascend to eternal happiness?" "Easily," said the angel. So they went below and skirmished around, taking in the sights. The angel lost track of the editor, and went around Hades to hunt him. He found him sitting by a furnace fanning himself and gazing with rapture upon a lot of people in the fire. There was a sign on the furnace which said: "Delinquent subscribers." "Come," said the angel, "We must be going." "You go on," said the editor, "I'm not coming. This is Heaven enough for me."

A Remarkable Announcement.

A brief paragraph can hardly do justice to the interesting announcement which the Youth's Companion makes for the coming year. Not only will some of the most delightful story writers contribute to the paper, but many of the most eminent statesmen, jurists and scientists of the world. No fewer than three cabinet Ministers are announced, among them being the Secretary of Agriculture, who chose for a subject "Arbor Day," the celebration of which he originated; secretary Herbert writes on "what the president of the United States does," and Secretary Hoke Smith on "Our Indian." In a fascinating group of articles under the head of "How I served my apprenticeship," Frank R. Stockton tells how he became an author, General Nelson A. Miles gives reminiscences of his army days, and Andrew Carnegie recalls earl st struggles in getting a business footing. The Publishers of the Youth's Companion make the following liberal offer: New subscribers who will send at once their name and address and $1.75 will receive free a handsome four-paged calendar for 1896 (7x10), lithographed in nine colors, the retail price of which is 50 cents, the Companion free every week until January 1, 1896, the Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's double number free, and the Youth's Companion fifty-two weeks a year, a full year to January 1, 1897. Address: The Youth's Companion, 195 Columbus Avenue, Boston.

Eight miles south of Alliston lives one, James Duross, who may fairly be classed as an old man, having more than entered into the second decade of his second century, as he is, according to reliable data 113 years old. His friends have been waiting for his death for the last fortnight, but on Friday of last week he surprised them all by getting up and shaving himself. When the battle of Waterloo was fought he was 33 years of age. Indeed during the rebellion of '98 he could have handled an Irish pike, being then 16 years old. He is old enough to have seen Washington first saluted as governor and father of his country. He was wondering the other day if the priest that baptized him was alive yet. Say the reverend gentleman was in middle life when the religious ceremony was performed, he would be only 163 years of age now, and a greater curiosity than our venerable subject, Mr Duross. But the chances are the priest has long since gone to his eternal reward.—Herald.

Sick
Headache
CURED PERMANENTLY
BY TAKING
Ayer's Pills

"I was troubled a long time with sick headache. It was usually accompanied with severe pains in the temples, a sense of fullness and tenderness in one eye, a bad taste in my mouth, tongue coated, hard and feet cold, and sickness at the stomach. I tried a good many remedies recommended for this complaint; but it was not until I began taking Ayer's Pills that I received anything like permanent benefit. A single box of these pills did the work for me, and I am now free from headaches, and a well man."—C. H. HUTCHINGS, East Auburn, Me.

TESTIMONIAL

OSPREY, SEPT. 23, 1895

Mr. D. Blair:

DEAR SIR—I am pleased to state that the cart I bought from you gives me entire satisfaction. I believe it to be as easy to ride in as a buggy. The sliding seat is a great advantage as it can be made in a moment to balance with either one or two persons, and I can recommend it to any person wanting a first-class cart.

JOHN CLINTON.
