FLESHERTON MEET EMPORIUM

Thanksgiving Day, 1895

Thou Lord of grace and glory,
Of kings the wondrous King,
This day we come before thee
Our grateful gifts to bring.
Thou life of all the living,
From age to age the same,
In hymns of glad thanksgiving
We magnify Thy name.

Each day affords fresh reason
Why we should sing thy praise;
And every changing season
Thy perfect love portrays.
Thou givest winter's whiteness
And springtime's prospects fair;
Thou sendest summer's brightness
And autumn's balmy air.

In thee all things possessing,
Thou dost our strength renew;
On us each day thy blessing
Descends like Hermon's dew.
For homes and loved ones shielded
From pestilence and woe—
For all the earth has yielded
To meet our needs below.

For life and fit employment
For muscle and for mind,
For innocent enjoyment
And friends sincere and kind,
For all thy love so tender
Which plainly marks our way,
Praise to thy name we render
On this Thanksgiving day.

Colborne, Nov. 19th, 1895. T. WATSON.

Lady Bank.

From a Special Correspondent.

We are very sorry to this week chronicle the death of Miss Martha Roberts, who died on the 11 inst. after a short illness. Miss Roberts was loved by all who knew her and will be missed by all. The bereaved mother, brother and sister have the sympathy of all the neighborhood in their sad trial. Funeral to take place to-morrow (Wednesday).

Quite a number from here went to quarterly meeting at Bethel last Sunday, and were very highly pleased with the sermon delivered by Rev. Mr. Legate.

Preparations are being made to erect a new shed at Providence.

The Salvation Army are busy putting up a barracks on Mr. Crawford's farm.

Every thing passed off quietly here on Hallowe'en with the exception of some window frames being carried away from the new barracks, which at the time of writing have not been found.

Kimberley

From our own Correspondent.

Any young man who is wishing to take up land would do well to come to Kimberley. It is taken up here by the foot. Indeed it is "mud, mud" everywhere.

Mr. A. Emery has rented Mr. Fawcett's wagon shop. Mr. F. met with an accident at one time which has unfitted him for work of that kind.

We understand the E. L. of C. E. are agitating a Mechanics' Institute library. Surely this would be a good thing, as there are young people in this place who need and could appreciate a library.

Mr. Ed. Graham and Howard Hunter, who went to Manitoba this summer, have returned home.

The remains of Mr. Curry's infant daughter were interred in New England burying ground Saturday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Curry have the sympathy of the friends in Kimberley in the loss of their little one.

The C. O. F. will hold an open meeting Friday evening in the Orange Hall, when the superintendent of organization will be present and address them.

From our own correspondent.

The fine weather of the past week has given farmers a good chance to get up their turnips and to prepare for winter.

Mr. Marcon of the veneer factory has returned from his business trip and the factory has been working all the past week filling orders. If the water would only get more plentiful there will be steady work all the time.

Mr. Sloan has his fine new sawmill nearly complete. The smoke stack, which is seventy-five feet high, was raised last week.

Mr. Walker Sloan will soon have his handsome residence ready for moving into. It will be as pretty a house as there is in our pretty town.

Mr. John Bowerman has a fine residence being erected. Who will say that Eugenia is not going ahead this past year?

Mr. Will Bellamy of Flesherton has started shoemaking in the house erected for a certain Mr. Shields, who disappeared rather suddenly from this town a short time ago.

Mr. Ed. Legard has moved to Eugenia for the present. We are very pleased to welcome him and his highly esteemed wife amongst us.

There are fears of a water famine, as a great many of the wells are getting so low.

Maxwell.

From our own Correspondent.

We have to chronicle the death of Mrs. Sterling, who departed this life a week ago last Saturday evening about 8 o'clock.

She lived till the good old age of four score years, and was very active mentally until the last. She was a great church worker, and her christian example will long be remembered. The funeral, which was a large one, took place on Monday. The Rev. Legate preached a most appropriate sermon, and in it spoke in very high terms of the departed.

Mr. Milton Brownridge returned home from Manitoba last Saturday.

The Methodists of this place purpose having a S. S. entertainment in the near future.

Deer hunting has been the principal fun of late. The deer are very plentiful, but the deer not so numerous.
