Kimberly.

From our own Correspondent.

Christmas and New Year's day have again come and gone. Again the best of resolutions have been formed, and now it remains to be seen how far they will be carried out. But where are those wedding bells we were listening for? We have not heard a sound of them, but we have patience and we will wait and probably the joyful peal will sound ere long.

Our school opened Friday with Mr. Pentland as principal and Miss Wright in the junior department.

Mrs. R. Loughhead spent the holidays with friends in Toronto.

New Year's eve was the time appointed for the annual tea meeting of the Methodist church here, but owing to a storm which was raging it was only the village people who could get there. Home talent was brought out as not any of the advertised speakers were present, and a very enjoyable evening was spent. The people in Kimberley never say fail, and another tea meeting was appointed for Monday evening, Jan. 6th, when Mr. Mahan of Flesherton and Mr. Balfour (pastor) were present and delivered good addresses. Miss White of Rome recited some interesting pieces. Altogether the proceedings amounted to $35.

We think we scent oysters not very far off. Bring them along. An oyster stew would be very acceptable providing it is not too high a price for our once fat pocket book, but which is thin this year.

Flesherton Station.

From our own Correspondent.

Well, Mr. Editor, news is rather scarce, except election talk, and even that little flurry is over for another year.

Miss Cushnie opened our school on Monday but there was a small attendance on account of the extremely cold weather and the bad state of the roads.

Mr. Mahan is holding revival meetings in the hall this week.

The Royal Templars of this place are holding regular meetings again. And good lively meetings too; lots of fun. And a good membership.

Mr. Cushnie has left this burg to take charge of a school somewhere in Egremont township. Geo. is a promising young man and will be a favorite wherever he goes.

Miss S. A. Coleridge was the guest of her sister, Mrs. R. P. Legate, the latter part of last week.

Our lively man, Mr. McAuley, is doing a large trade these times, being on the road seven days in the week and several nights, besides making good connection with his bus to Priceville and Durham.

We understand one of our fairest young ladies intends to migrate to uncle Sam's domains before long. Sorry to lose you Mary.

We hear that Mr. Cook and family intend returning to this place shortly. The city is a big place, but we think there are several better places to live in, or even to do business in, and we would rather see you here, old boy.

Mr. Legate started operations in his mill again this week after a week's holiday. He says they have not had a day they could call their own for over two years.

The Orange stalwarts of this district will assemble at the hall here next Tuesday. I wonder what they will have to say about the Manitoba schools this time or if they will still support the government.

Swinton Park.

From our own Correspondent.

A very heavy snow storm passed over our section last week, filling the side-roads just about level with the fences.

Xmas passed off very quietly, and though the roads were very muddy, yet friends gathered together to spend the day.

The annual meeting of the Methodist church was fairly attended if the roads were muddy, some did not fail to come a long distance, also the social in connection with the Sabbath school was largely attended. Everybody seemed to enjoy themselves, and after the beautiful and costly gifts of the well loaded Xmas tree were distributed everyone went home happy, or at least looked happy.

We are very sorry to learn that Miss Annie Parslow is very low again.

Miss Nellie McMillan spent Xmas holidays at home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Blakeston of Priceville spent Xmas holidays at the latter's parental home.

Mr. John Ferris of Melancthon spent Sunday with friends.

We are glad to see the smiling face of Master Tom Hardy in our midst again, after spending a period of three years in the Northwest Territory. Tom looks well, and some one else looks pleased since his arrival.

Miss Mary McMillan left last week for Euphrasia, where she intends to teach school for a time.

Married, Dec. the 23rd, at the residence of the bride's father, by the Rev. Mr. Harrison of Dundalk. Miss Edith Heard, eldest daughter of Mr. R. Heard, to Mr. John Scott, both of Proton. We wish them much happiness and a pleasant journey through life.

Vandeleur.

At the annual meeting of the brethren of L. O. L., No. 1383, Kells' Corners, Artemesia, the following officers were duly elected and installed: W. M., Samuel Bowles, jr.; D. M., James Foster; Chaplain, George Wright; R. Sec., Thomas Kells; Fin. Sec., Carter Irwin; Treas., Wesley Bowler; D. of C., Geo. Bowles; Lec., Wm. T. Kells; 1st Com. Man, Samuel Bowles; Auditors, Wm. McLoughry and Herbert Irwin.

The following resolution was also unanimously adopted: Resolved that we, the brethren of L. O. L., No. 1383, at this our annual meeting, avail ourselves of the opportunity of most heartily endorsing the course pursued by our worshipful Supreme Grand Master, Hon. Nathaniel C. Wallace, in relation to the Manitoba school question; and of expressing our pride in him as one who from principle could make the sacrifice that he has done.

Miss Clara Kells is visiting at her sister's Mrs. D. Henry, at Ingersol.

Master Alf. Dunlop from Caledon Mills spent the holidays with his parents.

The annual Sabbath school entertainment was held in the Methodist church here on Friday the 27th Dec. Notwithstanding the state the roads were in the house was well filled. Proceeds $20.

Mrs. Cameron of Toronto spent the holidays at her father's, Mr. Thos. Kells. Mr. Brett from Caledon visited friends in this neighborhood last week.

Mr. Thomas Knight is visiting friends at Alliston.

Miss Muir of Chaworth visited her mother, Mrs. Samuel Douglas, last week. Mr. Chas. Reid of Omani visited her sister, Mrs. Jos. Buchanan, last week.

Sixth Line Nottawasaga

From our own correspondent.

A very pleasing event took place at the residence of Mrs. Brillinger, when her daughter, Ellie, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. William Sled of the same place. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. T. Morris of Stayner. The bridesmaid was Miss A. Dinwoodie of Flesherton, while the groom was supported by his brother, Mr. L. Sled. Many friends were present to witness the tying of the nuptial knot.

After the ceremony had been performed and the young couple had received the good wishes of all, the guests partook of a sumptuous dinner there prepared. The presents were numerous and costly, among them being a handsome tea set from the Methodist choir, the bride and groom being highly esteemed members of the choir. The remaining time was spent in games and singing.

Miss Ella Osborne returned to Headford after spending her vacation under the parental roof.

The home of Mr. C. Long was made happy by the arrival of three little boys, all doing well.

Mr. George Sled spent Christmas at home and attended the shooting match.

Miss Fanny Klippert has been engaged to teach the Kirkville school for the coming year.
