MOTHER

LINES ADAPTED IN MEMORY OF THE LATE MRS. JOHN JAMIESON.

Thou hast left us now, dear mother; we behold thy face no more. Thy feet have crossed the river, and touched the other shore. Thou art happy with the ransomed in yonder blissful home, Where sickness cannot enter and death may never come.

Our father watched thee tenderly and thought it not a care If he could but thy pains relieve and all thy sorrows share. But vain was human love to save, the mandate had been given, And we are now left motherless—the dearest tie is riven.

We listen for thy footstep, and call thy name in vain. No answering voice from those dear lips returns to us again. For quietly thou'rt sleeping within thy narrow home. And wintry winds are singing a requiem o'er thy tomb.

We miss thee, absent mother, from thy dear accustomed place; Thy chair it now is vacant, and hidden is thy face; We hear no more thy footstep as it feebly treads the floor; We miss thee, dearest mother, each day we miss thee more.

May thy dear spirit, mother, hover round our lonely way. And guide our feet in wisdom's path and never let us stray; And when our work is ended and life's trials all are o'er. May we meet thee, sainted mother, where loved ones part no more.

Inistioqe.

From our own correspondent.

Now is the time of year for news to be scarce. Twenty or more of the members of the E. L. had a very enjoyable drive to and from Flesherton, on the occasion of the E. L. convention which was held there last week. They report having spent a very instructive and inspiring time while there.

Mr. Arthur Little of Owen Sound, spent a few days visiting friends and relatives at Inistioqe.

Miss A. Johnson of Toronto, has been visiting the parental home.

Herb Robinson has gone to Owen Sound to spend a term at the Business College, we understand.

Miss Mary Ludlow who has been absent for a number of months, has returned.

In the annual teachers meeting which was held in connection with the S. S. Mr. Thomas McLuay, who has been Superintendent for a number of years, resigned. Mr. G. A. Hutchinson will perform the duties of Supt. for 1896.

Quite a few of the inhabitants of this locality attend the revival meetings that are being conducted at Dundalk. They say that Mr. Whyte's singing is something very remarkable.

One could hear a pin drop since the election.

Mr. Greenway's government was maintained by an overwhelming majority, only nine oppositionists being elected.

A young man named Frank Tynor of Ballawhack was given a glass of whiskey containing horse medicine by some companions as a joke. The mixture killed him.
