Eugenia.

From our own Correspondent.

The concert under the auspices of the Orange order held in their hall on Tuesday evening of last week was a grand success. Dr. Scott of Maxwell ably filled the chair. Baker, the comic singer, was the main attraction that filled the house to overflowing. The Eugenia string band, composed of Messrs. Munshaw, Williams, Pedlar, Wardrobe, and McCallum, gave some fine selections of instrumental music, which called for an encore every time. The two recitations given by Master Elwood Genoe were received with great applause. Mr. Carr gave a reading and a song, which were highly appreciated. A grand speech by the chairman, and the singing of God Save the Queen, brought the meeting to a close. The proceeds amounted to the handsome sum of $42.40.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Richard Parks, a daughter.

Don't forget the valentine social on the 14th inst.

Mr. R. Purvis had a wood bee on Friday last which was well patronized. Some 35 cords of wood were cut. A goodly number of the fair sex took advantage of leap year privileges and came in the evening to see how the boys had worked and to escort them home.

Sabbath last was quarterly meeting service in the Methodist church. A good congregation was present. Special meetings are now being held by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Balfour, during the ensuing week.

Priceville.

From our own Correspondent.

ENDEAVOR CONVENTION
The third semi-annual convention of the South Grey Local Union of Christian Endeavor took place in Hanover last Friday. Twenty-six delegates from the Priceville societies were in attendance. The convention was a grand success numerically, socially and spiritually. The visitors will long remember the very kind and hospitable treatment accorded to them by the Hanover and Hampden Endeavorers. The following information from the secretary's report may be of interest: The number of societies in the Union are 25, divided as follows: Presbyterian, 17; Methodist, 8; with a total membership of 1010. The officers for the ensuing year are as follows: Pres., Mr. John Cooper of Hampden; Vice Pres., Mr. William Burnett of Hopeville; Sec., Miss M. Isaacs of Dromore; Treas., Miss Lizzie Martin of Priceville.

NOTES

Dr. Dickson of Galt and the Rev. Mr. Pomeroy of Durham failed to put in an appearance. This is the second time the former gentleman has disappointed the Union. We would advise him to be more careful in making promises or appointments in the future.

A Mr. Dodds from Knox College, was a host in himself.

A paper on "Intellectual culture in relation to Christian Endeavor," by Mrs. Flagg of Durham, is deserving of more than a passing notice. We wish a copy of it were in the hands of every young man and woman in South Grey.

Some of the delegates from this burg were not content to drive such a common affair as a team, so a livery "four-in-hand" drew their equipage to Hanover.

Mr. R. W. Burgess has organized a large class in violin music. We wish his students success.

Leap year has been already duly observed in this burg. Surely some of our shy young bachelors will profit by it.

Mr. Carr of Eugenia occupied the Methodist pulpit last Sunday. Mr. C's interesting and practical discourse was appreciated by the congregation.

The usual quarterly meeting of the Methodist church will be held at the Proton appointment next Sunday. The quarterly board meets on the Sunday previous.

The Rev. Mr. Hartley took part in the quarterly service at Walters Falls last Sunday.

The Rev. Mr. Berry of aforesaid place will preach at Proton next Sunday.

We are very sorry to learn of the death of Mr. Robt. Watson's youngest son at Walters Falls on Sunday, the 26th ult.

Mr. C. C. James paid a visit to friends in Markdale last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Clark were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dan McLean last week. Master Allie McLean returned with them to their home in Normanby.
