Kimberly.

From our own correspondent.
 Mr. Editor, your Kimberley cor. has not been asleep, or had the chicken pox, whooping cough or any of those contagious diseases. He was merely taking a rest, but now that he has received a gentle hint from the Editor, he has resumed the line of duty again, as there is a little stationery and postage left.

Since writing last we have had a Dr. come to reside in Kimberley. This is a great convenience, as we have always had to travel eight or nine miles before a physician could be reached. While we do not wish for sickness, still we wish Dr. Shepherd success in his practice here. Mr. Baker has been quite ill for some time, but under Dr. Shepherd's treatment is recovering.

Miss Wright and Lily Graham attended the carnival in Flesherton Friday week. They report a good time.

Mr. Walter Hogg of Meaford called on friends last week.

Mr. A. Burns has moved to Kimberley and has taken up his residence in the house lately occupied by Mr. McDonald.

Mr. Hammond took in a trip to Toronto last week.

It is rumored that taffy parties are highly in favor at present. Now this would be all right if they were carried out a little differently. I say, boys, this is a one-sided affair. The girls have scented it and you had better be careful. Surely if the ladies were admitted the taffy would be much sweeter and better in every way.

Inistioe.

From our own correspondent.
 Last Sunday the Rev. Mahan was listened to by a somewhat intelligent audience of mostly young people, the senior part of the congregation being detained by the roads which were so blocked from Friday's storm. The Rev. gentleman preached a masterly sermon from the words found in John 4:4. After the sermon a subscription list was passed round in behalf of the educational funds. $8.23 was the amount subscribed. Mr. Nesbitt, who went to Toronto about six years ago, is at present visiting friends in this locality. Will has done well and likes the city life. His friends here are pleased to meet with him again.

Mrs. Thos. Wyville, Proton station, visited the parental home last week.

Mr. Maxwell, Zion, was the guest of Mr. John Norvall on Sunday.

Miss McConnell and her cousin, Dundalk, were at Inistioe on Sabbath.

Mr. R. Wraggett was the guest of Miss E. Hutchinson, last week.

Mr. F. Greer, Bethel, was in this vicinity a few days ago.

The Sabbath school here has secured a black board which may prove a benefit to the children.

Miss Ella Johnson, teacher, at No. 2, Proton, has purchased an organ for herself.

The Epworth League of Christian Endeavor of this place took charge of the meeting at Bethel, Sunday evening. The church was filled with attentive listeners who seemed to enjoy themselves.

Priceville.

From our own correspondent.
 The mercury has been hanging around zero of late in this burg, hence a quantity of wood is going up in smoke every day. The Epworth League held a topic social in the parsonage a week ago last Monday. The affair was largely attended notwithstanding the tremendous blizzard that prevailed during the evening. Ten interesting topics were billed for discussion but no doubt twice that number engaged the attention of the conversationalists.

The L. D. S. held forth in Watson's hall for a few nights last week. The mayor and the politician made it pretty hot for the elder, who was completely floored when it came to Greek. Come, Mr. M., brush up your classics or else Malcolin will bury you in a veritable

"sheel," (is this the orthography of it, M.?) of jawbreakers.

Mr. J. B. Brooks, G.W.P. of the S.O. T., is expected to deliver an address on Thursday evening this week at the open division of the S. O. T.

Last Monday was fair day but business appears to be dull in that line.

A quartette of comedians struck our town lately but we are afraid they will have to turn into tragedians if they do not rake in the shekels at other points faster than they did here.

Poor Fritz has no doubt remembered it is leap year and so he is determined to have the last word. Quite right, my dear boy, don't let the fair sex have everything their own way in '96 even if leap year doesn't come "once in four" for a while.

Mrs. McAulay of Normanby is visiting friends in this community at present.

Miss Polly McIntyre of Toronto is visiting her parents.

Mr. C. C. James paid a business visit to London this week.

Epping.

From our own Correspondent.

It is with sincere regret we chronicle the death of Mr. Hugh Mathewson, which event took place Monday, 2nd inst. Mr. M. had been ailing for a length of time, and his death was not unexpected. The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon, and was largely attended. His bereaved wife and aged parents have the sympathy of the entire community.

Miss Minnie Youmans left Monday morning for Uncle Sam's domains, where she has secured a situation.

Mrs. Ball of Creemore visited friends here last week, having come up to attend her brother's funeral.

Paddison Bros., Lisle, failed recently. Their liabilities were over $3000 and assets $500. The creditors got 8 1/2 cents on the dollar.

The deadly cutting box has been getting in its work again, and now Mr. John Newton mourns the loss of his right hand. On Thursday last he was feeding a machine in Mr. Jas. Dinamore's barn and in brushing some chaff away from the rollers the end of his mit was caught and before he knew what had happened his hand was drawn in and chopped in a horrible manner. He was brought to town as quickly as possible and Dr. Niddrie, assisted by Dr. McFaul, of Stayner, amputated the hand at the wrist. Much sympathy is felt for John in his misfortune.—Creemore Star.

With the death of Mr. Patrick Neil, one of the most prominent of Centre Glenelg's citizens is removed. For some time back Mr. Neil has been in failing health and on Sunday last the end came. He always took a lively and intelligent interest in public affairs, and his influence and counsel were much sought after. Mr. Neil served his township for the period of nine years as councillor. He leaves a widow, four sons and daughters to mourn his loss. The deceased was a devout and consistent Catholic and all that went to make up a good neighbor and citizen were found in Mr. Patrick Neil.—Review.
