Pert Law

From our own Correspondent.

Mr. William Blackburn, of Sunidale, has been visiting friends in this locality during the past week.

Mr. Geo. Thompson, Jr., had a very successful bee a week ago Friday, raising his new house and store, which is well on the way at present. We wish Geo. every success in his new enterprise. As his health has very greatly improved during the past three weeks we hope to see him enjoying his usual health again.

Mr. Bell, of Kimberley, delivered a large load of flour at Mr. Geo. Thompson's last Saturday and seems to be highly pleased with the success Mr. Thompson has had in selling his flour.

Mr. Joseph Watson and Amos Doupe, who have been travelling in Algoma district with a view of settling there, have returned home again. They do not seem to be very favorably impressed with the appearance of the country. Mr. Watson says he can come home and go to work contented now as he thinks Algoma is the roughest country he ever saw. As for Mr. Doupe, he thinks it would be to his advantage to take up property providing he can get it on the Indian reserve, within four miles of Thessalon, where the land is not stony and the soil seems to be heavy clay, but he would not go back any further on any consideration as the land is so stony and rough.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. White has been made happy by the addition of a young daughter to their family.

We understand that Mr. Joseph Haney had a very serious smash up in his buggy on Sunday night by running into a tie-post at Mount Zion church.

Mr. Joseph Bowerman and family intend moving up to Manitoulin Island this fall. We wish you every success, Joe.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. Henry Holman, who has been confined in the general hospital, Toronto, is on a fair way to recovery.

We were very sorry to hear that one of our old neighbors, Mr. Jacob Pasidiano, Jr., got his skull very badly fractured by the kick of a horse while skidding logs in Muskoka, but are glad to know that the doctors have some hope of his recovery.

Flesherton Station

From our own correspondent.

We have to chronicle this week the death of Miss Mary Sabina Snell, of the west back line. She had been ailing only a few days with that dreadful disease, typhoid fever. She departed this life on Saturday at the age of sixteen years and seven months. She was a member of our Sabbath school and was beloved by all who knew her and will be missed by her class mates. The Rev. Mr. McLeod, of Priceville, preached a very interesting sermon at the house. The funeral took place to Flesherton cemetery, attended by a large number of sorrowing friends. The parents have the heartfelt sympathy of all.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Egan spent Sunday in Dundalk.

Mr. and Miss Egan, of Ventry, are visiting their brother, Mr. Egan, of this place.

J. D. Morgan, of Dundalk, was loading poles the past week.

R. Cook shipped a carload of potatoes this week.

Miss Cushnie attended the teachers' convention in Dundalk last week. The grain buyers made things quite interesting last week but have settled down this week.

Mr. McCullough was up attending to business on Saturday.

Instioge

From Our Own Correspondent

On Tuesday of last week Mr. J. Galbraith had his farm stock and implements sold by public auction. Mostly everything went at a fair figure.

A large number of the Instioge people drove to Dundalk on Sunday evening to hear Rev. J. C. Speer of Toronto.

Miss W. Armstrong, who has been visiting friends at Big Bay and other places for length of time, has returned home.

Mrs. McGhee, of Horning's Mills, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. C. Ritledge.

Mr. Henry Jackson spent last Sabbath at the home of Mr. H. Gallagher.

Miss McAuley has been visiting for a couple of weeks at the home of Mr. J. Patten.

Owing to the quarterly meeting in Dundalk next Sabbath, there will be no preaching here in the afternoon. Mr. W. Haines will occupy the pulpit at seven in the evening.

Mount Zion.

From our own Correspondent.

Threshing has for some time been going on here but is getting pretty well wound up now. Although the yield of grain is much below the average, as prices are advancing the farmers are not feeling so glum.

Miss Annie McNevin has returned home from Toronto in rather frail health, however, we hope the country air will soon recruit her.

Mr. Dave White paid a short visit to his sister, Mrs. Thomas Taylor, Jr., while on his way to Toronto university lately.

Mr. Harper A. Dutchburn is here on a visit with old acquaintances for his health's sake.

Will and Walter Taylor, accompanied by their sister, Tillie, paid a visit to friends near Rocklyn last week.

Kimberley.

From our own Correspondent.

The harvest-home festival held in connection with the English church here, on Wednesday evening, was a decided success. A very elaborate supper which was prepared by the ladies and friends of the church, was followed by an excellent program. The chair was occupied by postmaster Hammond who filled it in a very acceptable manner. Able addresses were given by the following gentlemen: Rev. G. C. Balfour, Eugenia; Rev. Mr. Connell, Heathcote; Rev. Mr. Murphy, Walter's Falls, and Rev. Mr. Goldberg, Markdale. These addresses were interspersed by recitations and music. Among the elocutionists were Miss White, Mr. Richards of Rocklyn and Mr. W. Caruthers of Wodehouse. The selections given by Miss White were "Mary, Queen of Scots" and "The Amateur Elocutionists." These were rendered in Miss White's usual charming manner and met with much applause from the audience.

Mr. Richard's selection was also well given and favorably received. Mr. Caruthers gave a Scotch roaling which delighted the audience. The church choir, assisted by Mr. Best of Duncan, furnished the musical part of the program. Mr. Best always meets with a warm reception when he appears in our midst. The entertainment was also a financial success, as the proceeds were $42.

Mr. A. Brown met with quite a serious accident last Thursday. While attending to some work in his barn he had occasion to climb into the loft, as he was walking across a pole he lost his balance and fell a distance of 12 ft., breaking his right leg just above the ankle. We believe he is progressing as favorably as possible.

Mrs. Geo. Lawrence entertained the Methodist choir at her home last Friday evening. A pleasant time was spent by all, Mrs. Lawrence sustaining her reputation as an excellent hostess.

Mr. Jas. Wallace, who has been attending model school in Meaford, has been home for a week on account of illness.

On Wednesday last our townsman, Mr. Alex. Fawcett, was married to Mrs. Caroline Thurston of Acton, Ont. Mr. and Mrs. Fawcett are expected home this week. Your cor. extends congratulations.

Mr. Kay and son, of Mimico, returned to their home on Saturday, after spending a week hunting.

A barn belonging to Wm. Sherry, Derby, was burned last week. The building contained the entire season's crop, some fifteen loads of peas, several loads of oats and fall wheat, five or six tons of hay, nearly all of his farm implements and a lot of poultry. Supposedly incendiary.
