I'M SLOW OR I'M FAST.

Is an expression often heard when a man looks at his watch. He'll not be slow or fast if he carries one of Armstrong's watches, but he will be just on time always. Our line of good time keepers is extensive, all at reasonable prices.

Tread Softly

Not where lifeless ones are sleeping
In the silent graves below,
But where living ones are weeping
And where workers weary grow.

Where despair its home is making,
Dark as night that has no end;
Where true hearts with grief are breaking
For a kind and faithful friend.

If we knew each other's spirit
As we know each other's face,
We should often find true merit
Where no beauty we can trace.

If we knew the burdens resting
On our brothers as they walk,
We would cease from foolish jesting
And from all unkindly talk.

If we knew each other's feelings
As each other's words we know,
In our daily walk and dealings
Greater kindness we might show.

If we knew the cares and labours
And the pains that others feel,
We should truly love our neighbors
And delight to help and heal.

If we learn while onward pressing
Just to tread with loving care,
We should make our lives a blessing
And be welcome everywhere.

Let that mind in Jesus dwelling
Evermore in us abide;
Then in works of love excelling
Living will be glorified.

Coiborne, Nov., 1896. T. WATSON.

From our own Correspondent.

Uncle Sam's election excitement is over for another five years. J. C. is out two dimes and a half as a result of Bryan's defeat. We wonder W(h)atton of man got the shekels? Silver is at a discount in J's eyes.

Mr. Peter McKechnie met with considerable loss last Friday. In the morning a valuable sheep was accidentally killed and before night a fine horse dropped dead. Truly misfortunes never comes singly.

The S. O. T. boom has not subsided. Still they come. Six initiations last Thursday night and more to follow this evening. Come along and swell the crowd.

Rev. Mr. McGregor of Durham made a pastoral call on some of his members who are residing in the burg.

Mrs. and Miss Maggie McKechnie left for Toronto last Friday. The latter will be greatly missed at Division No. 398, in which she always took a deep interest.

Died—On Nov. 9th after a brief illness, James Henderson, aged 56 years. The deceased, who had been a respected resident of Glenelg for 17 years, was of a quiet disposition and a kindly neighbor. He leaves a sorrowing widow and nine children to mourn his loss. The two oldest boys, Wesley and Johnston, are at present in Manitoba. The afflicted family have the deepest sympathy of the neighborhood.

has rented his mother's farm and is at present ploughing on it. He intends moving down to the old homestead in the spring.

The Methodist Sabbath school at Mount Zion closed last Sabbath for the winter months.

We understand that Mr. John Haney has been successful in securing the mail contract here for the next four years. We are sorry to note that Mrs. Blackburn, Sr., is at present very unwell, but we hope to soon see her on a fair way to recovery.

Ploughing seems to be the order of the day here at present. The farmers seem to be getting a very large amount ploughed this fall as the weather has been so favorable.

The bachelors of this vicinity appear to have a hope that leap year will do something for them yet, as they bid very briskly on the furniture at the sales this fall.

A CHANCE TO MAKE MONEY

I read how one of your subscribers made money selling Dishwashers; I ordered one, and my lady friends were charmed as they hate dish washing. My brother and I commenced selling them, and have made $1,700 after paying all expenses. We don't canvass any. Our sales are all made at home. People come or send for them. The Mound City Dish Washer is the best dishwasher on the market. Our business is increasing, and we are going to keep right on, until we make ten thousand dollars. We sell from 5 to 15 machines every day, and some days more. The dishwasher is lovely, every housekeeper wants one. There is no excuse to be poor when so much money can be made selling dishwashers. For full particulars, address The Mound City Dish Washer Co., St. Louis, Mo. They have started you on the road to success.—A Reader.
