A Dog-goned Yarn

Bro. Irwin of the Durham Chronicle is fast becoming one of the funniest men in the profession, and like other humorists must surely at times draw on his imagination. He neglected to forward a copy of the Chronicle to this office last week but we borrowed one and were not long in discovering why he had neglected us. He knew we never would believe the fairy tales told in that issue, and did not care to have us call his statements into question. His story was to the effect that he one day recently had seven dollars in his pocket! (let us pause here for refreshments). He accidentally dropped this seven dollars on the sidewalk.

(Here is where the greatest stretch of the imagination comes in. To think W. I. could ever be induced to drop a bill that he had once got his hands on is too much!
Lemonade, please) A yellow, mangy mongrel dog which he possessed noticed this (and we don't blame him,) picked up the money and laid it down before his master's feet. Bro. Irwin seems to think there was something astonishing in the dog's action, but there was not.
That dog knew his marrow bones would suffer for the next six months unless he rounded up those bills and herded them back into the family pants pocket and he did it, that's all. The marvel was, we repeat, entirely in the fact that the dog's master had so much money and that he dropped it. Little wonder that he is very grateful to the canine. We quote Editor Irwin's little "peroration":
"Think we'd hide that dog now in a back lot and lie about him when the tax collector comes along? No, sir-ee!
Though we can ill afford to pay a dog tax we'll pay the dollar and give that dog a chance to go round town with a clear conscience and the satisfaction of knowing there's no debt hanging over his head."

PERSONALS

Mr. W. W. Port, jeweller, of Brighton, has been the guest of his niece, Mrs. R.
N. Henderson, for a few days during the past week.

Mrs. Grier of Priceville visited with friends in town on Saturday and gave The Advance a call. Always glad to be favored by visits from the ladies.

Mr. C. W. Chadwick of Toronto spent a few days with friends in this vicinity during the past week and paid the Advance a pleasant call on Saturday.

Inspector Campbell is laid up this week owing to trouble in one of his legs. Otherwise he is well and in addition to the Dr. bill it will cost as much to feed him as if he were round about his work. We hope to see him out again soon.—Chronicle.

Mr. W. Irwin of the Durham Chronicle dropped in for a short chat Monday evening while on his way home from Heathcote, where he had been visiting his father, who had his leg broken by a horse one day last week.

Mr. A. Stanton of Toronto was a caller on Tuesday.

Mr. Wm. Burton of Woodbridge was the guest of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bunt, for a couple of days this week.

Dr. E. K. Richardson of Toronto
Junction holidayed at the parental home.

Edward Brinkman, a young man of Griersville, was thrown under a land roller and it is feared his injuries may prove fatal.

best sons. Dam Lady C. trial 2.33, also the dam of King Warlock 2.14; Lady C. is by Carbin's Bashaw 1762, 2.36; second dam Dolly Grey, dam of Clara Cleveland 2.33 and others in the 30 list.

The Electioneer's are still in the front ranks as race horses and race horse producers. During the racing season of 1897, the Electioneers furnished the fastest yearling of the year, The Merchant 2.24; the fastest two year old, Jamie T. 2.14; the fastest three year old filly, American Bell 2.12; the fastest four year old, The Monk 2.08, who is the fastest green trotter that ever appeared. Also the phenomenal eight-year old Stallion Electric with 22 new standard performers and the leading sire of 1897.

ANTILLO is a grand type of the Election-eer possessing in a marked degree their smooth frictionless gait, and is very fast. stands 16 hands, weighs over 1200, and in style and conformation is perfection. He won first prize, Silver Medal and Sweepstakes at the Industrial Fair in Toronto in 1895. His colts are all large, handsome and game. He is acknowledged by all to be the best stock horse in this country. His oldest colts rising two that were broken this winter show great speed and beautiful action.

This good horse produces the very best Carriage Colts from our common rough mares and fast trotters from mares with a little breeding.
Every one of Antillo's Colts are large, strong and matchless in beauty. He will make the season of 1898 at his own stable.
