Characteristics of the Past Week Carefully Culled for the Curious

Business notices among locals will be charged at the rate of ten cents per line for each insertion. A reduction will be made on contracts for 100 lines or over.

East Grey fall fair to-day and to-morrow.

Division Court will be held in the Town Hall on Thursday of next week.

Osprey fall fair at Feversham Thursday and Friday, Oct 6 and 7.

Artemesia fall exhibition at Priceville Tuesday and Wednesday Oct. 11 and 12.

The town polling booth for the plebiscite vote will be in Clayton's old shop, next door to Lindsay's bakery.

Mr. W. H. Walker got a piece of emery in his eye at Legate's foundry and is now off duty.

Rev. Mr. Darroch is away on a two-week's vacation. His pulpit will be supplied for the next two Sundays.

Mr. H. Parker of Durham advertises an auction sale of thoroughbred Durhams in this issue. Look it up.

A load of Flesherstonians drove over to the Clarksburg fair on Friday last. They report a large turnout of people but a rather meagre show.

Mrs Trimble is now placing on her shelves the largest stock of millinery goods that she has ever had at one time. The ladies will have a large variety to select from this season.

Inspector Campbell was in town for a part of two days last week inspecting the various departments of the public school under the new arrangements. We believe he found things satisfactory.

Money to loan on debentures at 4 per cent, and on farm security in sums of $400 and upwards at 5 per cent. Expenses guaranteed low. Apply to GEO. RUTHERFORD, Box 57, Shelburne.

Mrs. Trimble and assistants are opening up large shipments of elegant fall millinery goods, will be ready this week to receive orders. Millinery opening will be announced later on.

The anniversary services of the Methodist church, Flesherston, will be held on Sunday and Monday, Oct. 2 and 3. Rev. Mr. Houston of Meaford will occupy the pulpit on Sunday and also take part in the program on Monday evening.

Osprey Fall Fair will be held at Feversham on Thursday and Friday, October 6 and 7. This show is now becoming recognized as one of the very best township shows in the county. The directors have erected a new hall during the past summer, the want of which has been very badly felt in the past. The prize list, which has just been printed at this office, can be obtained from the secretary, Mr. J. A. Kernaghan, Feversham.

The Ladies' Aid society of Wesley Church, Meaford Road, will hold a harvest home festival on Tuesday evening, 27th Sept. Dinner served from 6 to 8 o'clock. A good program will be furnished. Admission, adults 25c cents, children 15 cents.

Don't miss the Ladies' Comfort Soap Race at Flesherston show fair, Friday of this week. The Secretary says entries are pouring in. A huge piece of sport is looked for. All lovers of amusement should attend. Entrance to soap race free.

East Grey Agricultural society's show fair at Flesherston on Thursday and Friday of this week is bound to be a record breaker, as the entries are pouring in at an unprecedented rate. The society's grounds, hall and track are all in first-class condition.

In addition to the many races at the show fair on Friday of this week in Flesherston, the directors have added another class of single driving horses to carriages, judged by speed and general appearance, 1st $3, 2nd $2, 3rd $1. No entrance fee, so come on with your blood.

John Kendrick Bangs's newest stories are to appear in The Ladies' Home Journal. They are called "Stories of a Suburban Town." There are several, and each will relate some droll incidents in the life of a small town which every "suburban" will instantly appreciate and enjoy laughing over.

Mr. Andrew Wickens of this place treated our fruit editor to a record breaking pear the other day. It was a beauty, weighing 17 ounces and measuring 14 1/2 inches by 11 1/2 inches in circumference. If anybody has anything to beat this the F. E. will be most happy to adjudicate upon its quantity and quality.

Notice to Borrowers—I am authorized to lend on farm security, private funds at five per cent., payable annually. Expenses very low and terms of repayment to suit borrower. It will be to your interest to see me before going elsewhere. A. S. VANDUSEN.

Mr. Walton Williams of Eugenia was in town Monday evening searching for an expert finger dresser. This had been rendered necessary owing to the fact that one of his fingers had become too intimate with the large lathe knife at the hoop and veneer mill. A piece was taken off the end and the nail torn out. Dr. Carter fixed it up.

The treat of the season will be the Agricultural Society's Concert in the town hall, Flesherston, Friday evening of this week, where in addition to the large array of high class musical talent which will appear is added the world's famed violinist and Pianist, Professor Heinick and daughter of Berlin, Germany, who will play a leading role on same. Don't miss it, or you'll rue it.

During a thunder-storm about 2 o'clock a. m. on Sunday the barn of Mr. Geo. Pallister near Maxwell was struck by lightning and totally destroyed. The barn contained this season's grain and some implements. A valuable horse was also burned. Mr. Pallister had allowed his insurance to lapse, thinking it had another year to run. The loss will be a serious blow to Mr. Pallister, who is the recipient of much sympathy. It is said to be about $1500 a loss.

Rev. Mr. Ward gave an earnest temperance discourse from the Methodist pulpit on Sunday evening, basing his theme on Esther 8:6: "For how can I endure to see the evil that shall come upon my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?" The sermon was a strong appeal for interference in the liquor traffic and showing the justice of such interference. The rev. gentleman purposes giving another temperance discourse on Sunday evening next.

Markdale Fair

Markdale fall fair, held on Thursday and Friday of last week, was the most successful in point of attendance that the directors have ever had, but the exhibits, as heretofore, were slim. Had the fruit been taken from the hall the inside exhibit would have been dreary indeed. Roots and vegetables were conspicuous by their absence. The usual amount of ladies work was shown, however, and three advertising exhibits tended to make the hall look cheerful and fairly well filled. Fruit was plentiful and of good quality, but we heard it whispered that had there been a booby prize for judges the individuals who placed the tickets on fruit would have taken it sure. Outside the cattle were superior and a large number were shown. Horses were scarcely up to former years, although some very fine colts, etc., were shown. On the first day of the fair some good speeding was given, but the secretary has not fulfilled his promise to us by supplying a list of the winners. We understand that the total proceeds of the show, including a $90 concert, amounted to the handsome sum of $240.

Miss Annie, Richardson, our popular young lady elocutionist, is securing a large number of engagements this fall. She recited at the concert in Markdale on the second evening of the fair, and will shortly appear before an audience at Massie Hall, Toronto. She has also been engaged for a concert at Feversham on Oct. 7, the evening of Osprey fall fair.

MR. EDITOR.—It is only within the last day or two that our attention has been drawn to an advertisement in your paper in which we see that our neighbor and business competitor devotes a large portion of it to our business, in an attempt to discredit a statement which appeared in the Advance respecting a recent shipment of butter from our establishment, and assumes to know a great deal more about our business than he has any means or opportunity of knowing. We let him and his business methods alone, having been taught early in life to mind our own business. If constant and unblushing mendacity can command the trade of this section, be is welcome to all he can get by such means. "Whom the gods would destroy they first make mad." We would advise him to keep his temper and mind his own business.

W. J. McFarland & Son, ADVT. Markdale.

Wm. Esplen, a farmer in Arran township, has a breeding sow that gave birth to 24 young pigs at one litter, 18 of them living some time and 14 have done well. The same sow has had 71 pigs during the past two years.
