From Our Own Correspondent

Our grain market is still to the front. Mr. and Mrs. M. Kennedy gave a party on the evening of Thanksgiving day to the young people of our village...

The evening was spent in games and other amusements, after which the guests were invited to where everything was found to please the inner man.

Mr. J. Connor, formerly of this place, had his leg amputated at the Toronto general hospital last week. We are glad to learn that he is recovering.

Mrs. R. H. Cook has been ill for the past two weeks but is slowly recovering. Mr. A. McLeod has been very low for the past few weeks.

Little Annie Taylor, who has been seriously ill for the last three weeks, passed peacefully away at 8:30 Saturday evening. Annie, who was only 8 years old, has been suffering from dropsy for some years...

Tender shepherd! thou hast stilled Now thy little lamb's brief weeping; Ah, how peaceful, pale and mild In her narrow bed she's sleeping, And no sigh of anguish sore Heaves that little bosom more.

Letter of Condolence

To Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Family,

We, your neighbors and friends, have gathered here this evening to express to you our heartfelt sympathy for the sad bereavement which it was the will of God to send upon you.

and that you and your family may live for many years, walking in faith, happiness and prosperity, in whatever path of life the Lord leads you...

And thou, poor mother, weeping for thy boy, With empty arms and pallid, aching brow, Couldst thine eye pierce you arching sky...

Signed on behalf of the neighbors, MRS. W. H. CROZIER, MISS HANNAH WALTON, MISS H. L. SHORE. Nov. 23, 1898.
