Stone's Settlement

From our own Correspondent

Ah knoa'd Meester Richardson ood get a hul lot o' crosses pooten to his naam on election day. Ah knoa'd it.

Your Priceville correspondent anticipated us in a description of the wreck on the evening of our social. Further comment is unnecessary. Suffice it to say that the skipper skilfully navigated his craft the remainder of the voyage, and successfully landed his passengers at the old school-house, where everybody enjoyed themselves to their hearts' content.

On Xmas day Mrs. Wm. Stone exceeded the allotted space of three score years and ten by fifteen years. She still enjoys very good health for one at her advanced age, and we sincerely hope that her few remaining years may be blessed with health and happiness.

Miss Laura Holman spent last week with her aunt, Mrs. H. Stone.

Uncle Ed says he has never yet lost money by raising swine, but he thinks he will quit it now as he thinks there will be a crisis in the near future which will knock the bottom out of the pork market, owing to a great number of people having embarked in the business. Try a coon-ranch, Uncle.

The annual school-meeting took place in the school-house on Wednesday, the 28th ult., at 10 a.m., Mr. Frank Cairns in the chair. After disposing of the usual business, the chairman was elected to succeed Mr. John Snell, the retiring trustee. Mr. A. J. Kennedy was for the third time unanimously re-elected Sec. Treas. The contract for supplying fifteen cords of wood was awarded to Mr. G. Boyce, and the lighting of fires, cleaning of school-house, etc., for the coming year to Mr. Jno. Boyce. The meeting was brief, but to the point.

It will be necessary in future for your "Station" correspondent to head his items "Ceylon," or some of your readers may be at a loss to know in what part of our planet he resides.

Mr. Angus McLeod died on Sunday morning after a painful illness of about three months. The bereaved family have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

On Tuesday evening of last week, our village was favored with the presence of the Flesherton Brass Band, who came over to do honor to our worthy township representatives in the persons of Messrs. John McArthur and Alex. Muir.

Notwithstanding the unusually severe storm on Saturday the Revs. Messrs. Matheson and Humphreys plunged through the drifts to their appointments in Swinton Park and Proton. However, they are not anxious to have a similar experience this winter.

Our burg has generally been considered a pretty healthy locality, but seemingly an impression has got abroad to the contrary, as we have been visited by two medicine companies inside of a month.

Miss Lizzie Weir, teacher at Irish Lake, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Neil McKinnon.

Miss F. Bowerman, of Eugenia, is the guest of Mrs. G. H. Walter at present.

Mr. D. McKechnie, of Georgetown, is in town at present on business in connection with the estate of the late William Watson.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. John Cobourn is quite ill at present, and also of the serious illness of Mrs. Hopkins.

Well, Mr. Editor, though a slight inconvenience we did not send you any news last week.

The congregation of the Methodist church held their annual tea meeting last Monday evening in the Methodist church. After tea had been served in the public hall a very efficient program was rendered in the church. I. B. Lucas M. L. A. very ably filled the position of chairman. Those who contributed successfully to the programme were Revs. J. M. Simpson and T. G. Scott of Markdale, addresses; Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Carruthers, Miss Ethel and Alma Camack, Miss Eva Latter and Miss Annie Wickens, singing; Misses Kate and Daisy Davis, Miss Nellie Bradbury, Master Ellwood Genoe and Kerwood Bradbury, recitations; Miss Alma Camack very efficiently filled the position of organist. Proceeds about $30.00.

Mr. John Saul of Heathcote visited for a few days last week with his daughter Mrs. J. R. Fawcett.

Dr. Bibby has taken up new quarters in a part of Mr. Hammond's fine brick residence.

Miss Emma Lewis, daughter of Mr. Thos. Lewis, has returned from Toronto.

We are glad to see our young friend Master Cardwel Graham around again, after about two months confinement to his bed, on account of having his leg broken.

Mount Zion

Hello, beloved! Allow us to give you some of the details of the present.

Mr. W. Morton has returned to Toronto after spending his holidays at his former home here.

Mrs. Taylor of Michigan State is visiting her mother, Mrs. Love.

Some of our young ladies would like to know how many links it takes to make a chain, Jack.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the residence of Mr. S. Sheardown last Wednesday when some country braves ventured out through rain and storm to enjoy themselves in parlor games, solos, comic songs, instrumental music, also an apology by a young lady of Inistioige.

Mr. J. Wood of Portlaw school has resumed his duties, having spent his Xmas holidays at the residence of Mr. J. Haney.

The excitement of the elections is ended and we are pleased to hear that Mr. Thompson was returned to office.

Miss A. M. Bolton is still visiting friends and relations in this vicinity.

We believe the brick house will soon be occupied, as one of our prominent young men has now seen what he thinks would be a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and we hope that after screwing up enough courage to propose he may be accepted, for we are sure if it were for nothing else he would like a good cook.

Miss L. Sheardown is at present visiting friends in Albion.

From our Own Correspondent

Our local weather prophets predicted that when January came mild weather would come also. The last few days don't seem like as if this were true. Rev. E. Douglas and Mrs. Douglas returned on Friday from Hamilton after an absence of two weeks. They were in attendance at what proved to be the death-bed of Mr. Torrance, (father of Mrs. Douglas), who had received fatal injuries to his spine from a log which rolled over him. The deceased was a most estimable character and of a high order of true Christian piety. Men of all classes and creeds were united and sincere in their manifestations of sorrow over one whom they could all call by the simple yet honored name of friend. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas have the sincere sympathy of their friends here in this sudden bereavement.

Special services are still being continued here under the leadership of Mr. Brownlew.

Our municipal elections are over and that old-time councillor, Mr. John Speers, has been left behind. Mr. John Hudson is the new man in his place. Mr. Heitman surprised everybody by the tight run he made for the reeveship. Mr. Preston and Mr. McColeman again represent us in the County Council.

Mr. R. Wellar and family and Mr. W. Wright have been away on a visit to old friends near Toronto.

Mrs. Hamilton has removed from the east end and taken up her residence in the rectory.

Mr. Wm. Somers, of the 8th line, who has been suffering for some time from a cancer, passed away last week and was interred in the burying ground near Stayner. The deceased was of a quiet, kindly disposition and during his residence here won the respect and confidence of all who knew him. The entire community unites in sympathizing with the bereaved family in this great loss.

School re-opened last week with a good attendance considering the nature of the weather. The new desks improve the appearance of the school very much as well as adding much to the comfort of the pupils.

Miss Hattie Morrison left recently for Toronto, where she will spend a time under the study of music and elocution. Her many friends wish her success.

The largest horse in America has been discovered in Illinois. He stands twenty hands high, weighs 2,500 pounds, and has never been either broken or shod. He is nearly a pure blood Clydesdale. Of course he is a freak, and not likely to be worth anything except for exhibition purposes.

Every town has a liar or two; a smart Aleck; some pretty girls; more loafers than it needs; a woman or two that tattles; an old foggy that the town would be better off without; men who stand on the street corners and make remarks about women; a man who laughs an idiotic laugh every time he says anything; scores of men with the caboose of their trousers worn smooth as glass; men who can't tell you about how the war question should be settled, the weather and how to other people's business, but who have made a dismal failure of their own.
