The Advance FLESHERTON

Instigoe

From Our Own Correspondent

[Received too late for last issue-Ed.] Your reporter finds news gathering very difficult on account of so much mud. While out hunting news the other day, our brain perhaps busier than our eyes, first thing we knew we were almost fast in a mudhole.

The spring-like weather of the last week is somewhat encouraging to farmers, though from present appearances it will be sometime yet before the land is fit for seeding. Sugar making is the order of the day though the cold winds prevent the sap running very fast.

Our schools have all got down to work again after the Easter holidays. Miss Robinson, teacher No 2, Proton, spent the holidays at Wareham; Miss A. Johnson of No 3, Osprey, spent the week at her home here, while Miss Brown spent a few days with Markdale friends.

Mr. and Miss Newal spent Easter with friends in Georgetown.

Mrs. Jackson of Maple Grove and Mr. C. Maxwell of Dundalk were guests at Mr. H. Gallagher's recently.

Mr. Wakely of Bolton spent Easter with Mr. Geo. Atchison.

Mr. J. Reddick sold a valuable horse to Tedford and Sharp a few weeks ago for the handsome sum of one hundred dollars.

Miss Lina Acheson spent a few days last week with her aunt, Mrs. J. Morrow of Wareham.

Miss E. Johnson, daughter of Mr. H. Johnson, has returned home after spending a few months with friends in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown of Callingswood visited at Mr. Strain's two weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Hutchison and Mr. and Mrs. McIlvride are each rejoicing over the advent of a son.

Mr. Wesley Lonsway and family have moved to their farm purchased last fall from Mr. Samuel Wakely.

The missionary anniversary was held here on April 9th. Messrs. A. McQuay and M. Watson are the collectors this year.

That Book Agent

The Pastor, "Good morning, Bro. Roberts, what makes you look so sad this morning?"

Bro R. I have come to say good-bye, Mr. Brown, for I am out of employment, and must go back to England."

The Pastor, "Go back to England to get employment, what nonsense! I can get lots of work for a young man like you in this country."

Bro. R. "Well, I have hunted high and low and can get nothing, so what am I to do?"

The Pastor, "I tell you what you can do, Bro. Roberts, take an agency for a good book, for there is money in canvassing."

Bro. R. "Do you think I would stoop to book canvassing?"

The Pastor, (Somewhat warmly.) "Stoop to book canvassing! Better men than you have canvassed. I put myself through College with a book prospectus, and I know many successful men who got their start in life as canvassers. My youngest son is canvassing now, he makes enough at the business to pay his way at the University. I induced a man who failed in business to take up canvassing and he made enough money to start business again. I gave the same advice to a young mechanic, who was out of employment, and he is now a prosperous publisher. Why some of the biggest men in history have been book agents! 'Stoop to canvassing'; you are very fortunate that you can step up to it. I advise you to write to the Bradley-Garreston Co., Limited, Ont., for this firm publishes fast selling books, and I know many who are doing well in its employ."

Bro. R. "I am sorry, for speaking as I did for I was certainly wrong. I will write The Bradley-Garreston Company and see what they have to offer, and will postpone my departure in the meantime."

Priceville

From Our Own Correspondent

An amateur dentist has struck the O. D. R. Office next door to the Academy East. Office hours 7. p. m. to 1 a. m. and the rest of the day if required. Charges exceedingly moderate. A full kit of tools on hand, from a hammer to wire pinchers. Give him a call. No fee for consultation. For reference apply to J. K.

The boys, and men also, for that matter, are waiting anxiously for the opening of the fishing season. Look out for fish stories next week, that is if our old veterans have their usual success.

We are very much pleased to learn that the majority of our young men who went to other parts of our province have obtained employment at remunerative wages.

Mr. William Berry, who has been in the employment of Mr. G. H. Walter for some time, left for his home in Bowmanville last week. We are sorry to lose him.

Mr. T. Paton moved from the town line last week to Mr. Wm. Conkey's house just across the river.

Seeding operations are in full swing. The first to sow grain in this vicinity, as far as we can learn, was Mr. Neil McKechnie, who was busy drilling last week.

We're very proud to notice that Mr. James R. Atkinson's name occupied a prominent position in the report of the examination of Toronto Dental College. Congratulations, J. R.

Mr. J. D. Brown, the merchant prince of Dundalk, condescended to pay a visit to our little burg last week. Glad to see you, J. D., even if it is only once in six months.

Messrs. John A. McLeod and W. J. Blakeston attended a meeting of the South Grey C. E. union in Durham last Saturday. The next convention will be held in Swinton Park on July 6.

Mr. Richard Walters and Miss Jennie Walters attended the funeral of their brother-in-law, the late Richard King, in Grand Valley last week. We extend our deepest sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

Born-On April 17th to Mr. and Mrs. James McLean, a son.

FLESHERTON SHAVING PARLORS

A. N. LeSard, Prop.

If you should wish an easy shave As good as barber ever gave, Just call at my shaving saloon At noon, or 6 o'clock, or busy noon. I'll cut an dress the hair with grace, To suit the contour of the face. My room is neat, towels clean, Razors sharp and razors keen And everything I think you'll find To suit the taste and please the mind And all that art or skill can do If you'll just call, I'll do for you. I shave the young, the old, the gray, I'll shave you all for easy pay. And clean the head at any time, And for a shave I set a dime; I do not mean a dime in trust For that would make the barber bust.
