FLESHERTON SHAVING PARLORS

A. N. LeSard, Prop.

If you should wish an easy shave,
As good a barber ever; ave Just call at my shaving saloon At noon, or e've, or busy noon.
I'll cut and dress the hair with grace,
To suit the taste and please the mind

My room is neat, towels clean, Scissors sharp and razors keen And everything I think you'll find
To suit the taste and please the mind
And all that art or skill can do If you'll just call, I'll do for you.

I shave the young, the old, the gay, I'll shave you all for ready pay,
And clean the head at any time;
And for a shave I get a dime;
I do not mean a dime in trust For that would make the barber bust.

Burglars at Avening

The village of Avening had a lively experience with tramps last week, which the Creemore Star describes as follows: The peaceful quietness of our little sister village of Avening, two miles distant, was ruthlessly invaded by four reckless ruffians on Tuesday last, and for a time the wildest kind of excitement reigned. As near as we can learn just before going to press, the four men passed through Creemore on Monday afternoon and purchased a number of articles from several of our merchants. They reached Avening in the evening and spent the night in Davis' barn, and on Tuesday hung around the Felts House all day. About six o'clock in the evening they showed their real character by deliberately taking possession of the house, and with drawn revolvers went through it from cellar to garret, ransacking every room and appropriating to them selves everything of value they could lay their hands on that could be carried away. John and Herb, Duff appeared on the scene and attempted to stop their operations when they were set upon by the robbers and rather roughly handled.
About this time a telephone message was sent to Creemore for Constable Turner and assistance. He at once got a team and accompanied by J. Shields, W. J.
Adams, Ab. Adams, Jack McLean, Vet.
Barley and T. Madill proceeded to the scene of the disturbance. Just as they drove up to the hotel the gang came out on the platform each armed with a revolver which they discharged in the midst of the crowd. At once taking in the situation the Creemore boys showed their metal by immediately engaging with the ruffians, and as Doc Bailey grabbed one of them by the throat a bullet whizzed past his face, grazing his cheek. The fight now became hot and the burglars seeing that they were likely to be overpowered attempted to make off. One of them was knocked down and secured and the other three took to their heels—two of them escaped and the third being caught in hiding along the bank of the river. The two captured were securely handcuffed and brought to the Creemore cooler for safe keeping. One of the pair received a number cuts on the face and head which were dressed by Drs. Niddrie and Bradley in the cells, the other fellow was unhurt. They appeared before magistrates Hood, Kitson and Mackay for a preliminary hearing yesterday and were committed to Barrie for trial.

Proton Station

From Our Own Correspondent Mr. Carlyle occupied the pulpits of Mr. Matheson at Pricceville and Swinton Park on Sabbath.
A great number from here took in the excursion on the 21st. They report a very pleasant time.
Mr. W. Carr of Ventry was the guest of Mr. Carlyle on Thursday last. He also delivered an excellent sermon on Sunday evening.
Miss M. Rowe is at present the guest of Miss Allen
Miss L. Little returned home on Saturday from Dundas where she has been working at the millinery.
Mr. John Wright paid his parental home in Durham a short visit this week.

The kineoscope was very much appreciated by all on Tuesday evening, it being the first that was ever exhibited in Proton.

Bismark's Iron Nerve

Was the result of his splendid health. In-doubtable will and tremendous energy are not found where Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New life pills. They develo every power of brain and body. Only 25 cents at any drug store.

Misfortune seems his lot. Norman Merriam a short time ago lost a valuable sheep of an excellent breed. This was followed by the theft of $100 from his room while he slept. On Thursday last while out in Holland the horse he was driving took suddenly ill and was at once sent to vet.
Airth, but died before treatment could be administered. We hope that his losses may end here.—Chatsworth Banner.
