From our own Correspondent

The hurrahs of the youngsters about 4 p. m. on Friday last, seemed to indicate their pleasure at the school being closed for the next six weeks.

Two candidates from our school wrote at the examination held last week at Flesherton. We hope they were successful.

Turkeys and chickens will be a poor crop this year with some of our neighbors owing, it is supposed, to the depredations of skunks and weasels. One lady set forty seven turkey eggs and has only three young turkeys for her trouble. The same lady, however, has been somewhat compensated for her loss by mother goose, as twenty-six goslings were produced out of thirty eggs set, with prospects of another flock in a few days.

We are glad to announce that Mr. David Harrow has so far recovered from his recent severe illness as to be able to attend to his farm work.

Mr. Henderson of Flesherton was in this neighborhood last week taking orders for nursery stock. We hope he was well patronized, as we believe Mr. H. to be an upright, honest, straightforward dealer, one who would a hundred times rather lose a sale than try to palm off an inferior article which he could not conscientiously recommend to anyone.

Mr. Mark G. Williams, wife and two sons of Corbettou spent Friday night with the former's sister, Mrs. R. Stone. At an early hour on Saturday the party left, accompanied by Mrs. Stone and some members of her family, for Meaford to participate in the annual family gathering which meets this year at the residence of their brother, Mr. Robert Williams. Although the surviving members of this family are scattered in various parts of the province, it has been their custom for many years to hold this pleasant family meeting annually. We sincerely hope that all may be spared to enjoy many more pleasant family gatherings.

A few days ago Mrs. ——— was with proper pride viewing a fine large fat gobbler which strutted about the barn-yard with tail spread, feathers plumed, breast expanded, and feeling as consequential as a newly made Lance Corporal when the lady happened to remark that she had a notion of letting the Orangemen pick his bones next week, whereupon Mr. Gobbler immediately shut up his tail, drew in his wings, stretched his neck, stalked off and has been down in the mouth ever since. We should not be surprised to hear that the gobbler had disappointed the Orangemen by dying of a broken heart before the 12th.

We are beginning to think those two bicycles are either out of commission or in the hospital, as we have not seen them on the road lately.

Inistigoe

From Our Own Correspondent

Roadmaking has been the order of the day during the last week. A much needed improvement is to be seen in most places.

The congregation at this church were sorry to lose Mr. Fallis as pastor. The three years spent here have passed very pleasantly but since the conference saw fit to make a change we welcome Rev. Mr. Campbell as pastor and hope he will feel right at home on the Dundalk circuit.

The teachers and pupils of our school welcome the holidays after the cram of examinations.

Our Sunday school is making preparations for a picnic to be held in Mr. Alex Brown's beautiful bush opposite Mrs. W. Hutchinson's, on Friday afternoon, June 7th. A pleasant time is expected. We would be pleased to see some of the Flesherton friends present. No admission fee is charged, just a collection taken in aid of the S. S.

Rev. W. Sinclair of Flesherton and his sister, Mrs. J. L. Ludlow of Port Huron visited at Mr. J. Johnson's recently.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Nichols visited Mulmur friends last week.

Mrs. Henderson of Priceville spent a while with her daughter, Mrs. George Moore.

Mr. Beattie of McIntyre visited his aunt, Mrs. W. Watson on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Gallagher with their daughter Elsie, are spending a few weeks with friends in Toronto and Bancroft.

Feversham

From Our Own Correspondent

Dr. Pack has moved into his new residence.

Mr. Robert Meldrum lost a very valuable horse one day last week.

Pathmasters are busy. The Wellington street overseer proposes building sidewalks this year instead of putting in the walk on the street.

Visitors—Mr. W. McGirr of Toronto with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. McGirr; Mr. Frank Whitworth of Toronto, Mrs. J. Robinson and family; the Messrs. and Misses Godfrey of Meaford with Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Bruce; Mr. and Mrs. J. Tompest of Ravenna with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Tempest; Mr. Thomas Davidson with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Davidson.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Perigo have returned home to Toronto after a visit to friends and relations.

Divine service will be held in the agricultural hall, Feversham, on Sunday, 9th inst., at 4 p. m., when a sermon will be delivered to the Orangemen by Rev. P. Fleming.

Kimberley

From Our Own Correspondent

The pleasant showers of late have freshened the crops in this locality and spring crops are somewhat above average.

Quite a number from surrounding schools wrote on the entrance and leaving examinations here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis Magee of Toronto visited friends around here last week and returned to the city on Monday.

Messrs. H. Hurd, A. Brown and W. S. Bishop took in the excursion to the Model Farm last Wednesday via G.T.R. from Thornbury.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Kells of Vandeleur spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. A. Myles of Springbrook farm.

Kimberley L. O. L. No. 1340, will celebrate the glorious Twelfth at Ceylon in Artemesia district.

We are sorry to learn that Messrs. J. M. Thurston and Benjamin Smith are under the weather.

Miss Daisy Davis of Vandeleur is visiting with her friend, Miss Nellie Bradbury, of this place.

Mr. John Garbutt of Osprey township visited his sister, Mrs. James Knott, on Sunday.

Mr. T. J. Wallace of Rocklyn acted as presiding examiner at the examination here last week.

The following amusing incident happened the other day in one of our West End stores. Two ladies entered and made a purchase. On turning about to retire one of them noticed a roll standing on the floor and asked what it was for. The merchant replied that if she could lift it he would return the quarter she had just paid over the counter. The lady accepted the challenge and reaching down she lifted the package with the greatest of ease much to the surprise of the onlookers. The roll was a lead pipe and weighed 176 pounds. A pretty good lift for a little woman. The merchant paid the forfeit.—Hanover Post
