Is a Statuory Enactment Legal?

To the Editor of The Advance :

DEAR SIR.—Law is law ! Law is law ! As such, and so forth, whereby, whereas, whereat, whereunto and whereupon.

Law is like a scolding wife, a desirable person to avoid ; it is like a new fashion, everyone desires to get into it ; it is also like the bailiff, very bad when it follows us ; and it is also like a snow-drift, we are all glad to get out of it.

A cause involving difference of opinion occured in the town burg of Markdale last Wednesday, the 1st inst., which reminded me of the necessity of more family moral law, and less parliamentary tuition, especially when the majority of our rulers are men of true honor and virtue. Besides, the clergy of to-day appear to be in many instances, drifting into moral turpitude, which indicates a relapse into barbarism What is the use of building and maintaing costly churches, when the pulpit-pounders seek to redress the evils their own lethargy has been productive of, in the courts of law ?

On the day above mentioned, a stalwart youth of 5 feet 11 inches in height, had to appear before our worthy magistrates on a charge of drunkenness. He is fully a head taller than the gentleman who claims his parentage ; yet, because he was under the age of 21 years, two of our worthy hotel keepers were fined for giving this unfledged gosling liquor. Justice demands a revision of this iniquitous enactment. Let there be a clause added to the law, compelling parents to have their gossoons labeled on the back with a printed card, stating their age, as well as a certificate from a veterinary surgeon that their incisors and molars, and other dental formations are sufficiently developed to entitle them to mingle in the rank of manhood. Yours truly, result of imperfect digestion pressing up against the heart, it excites alarming symptoms. Instant relief is afforded by taking half an hour after the meal, ten drops of Polson's Nerviline in a little sweetened water. Nerviline aids digestion, expells the gas and imparts a sense of comfort. Nerviline is good for lots of other things, and wise people keep a 25c bottle in the house for rheumatism, cramps, neuralgia, toothache &c. Try it.

ANTI-CANT.

Gas on the Stomach.

Now that the birds are returning to us for the summer, we wish to say a word to the some boys, of whom are too fond of shooting at them with guns and catapults. The birds are very useful in killing insects which are injurious to vegetation, and it is to the interests of all that they should not be destroyed or driven away, to say nothing of the cruelty of killing them. It is unlawful to shoot, destroy, catch, injure or attempt so to do, any wild native bird other than hawks, crows, black-birds and English sparrows, and there is a fine, or, in default of payment, imprisonment, for violation of the law. Destruction of the nests of birds is prohibited also under the same penalties. We hope there will be no occasion to repeat this warning.—Stayner Sun.

There is no accounting for the vagaries of some people. Last week we announced that F. Tucker, tailor, had decided to remain in Flesherton, and this was done at that gentleman's own request. The ink was scarcely dry when Fred was off to take the position offered him in Collingwood. A first-class tailor can find a good thing here by stepping into his vacated position.

Prof. Joseph Stafford, late of Toronto University, but now of McGill, and family, spent the past week with relatives here. In conversation with Mr. Stafford The Advance learns that he has been appointed curator of the government biological experimental station at Canso, C.B., and will start immediately to take charge of the summer work there. As this station is only operated during summer the duties will not interfere with college work.

Died in Manitoba.

On Friday last the sad news was received here of the death of Alice Wells, only daughter of Rev. John Wells, late pastor of the Presbyterian church in Flesherton, now of Holland, Man. Two years ago Miss Wells had an attack of pneumonia, followed later by an attack of pleurisy. A year ago she suffered a second attack of pleurisy, but last summer it was thought she was recovering. In November last, however, she was stricken with grippe which developed into tuberculosis of the larynx, and since New years her case has been hopeless, while for the past month she has been bedfast. The remains were brought this week to Nairn, Ont., where they were placed by the side of her brother Willie who died two years ago. Miss Wells was only 26 years of age. While in Flesherton she was a general favorite with both young and old. She was apparently the picture of health, and her many friends here will be exceedingly shocked and saddened to hear of her early death, while very much sympathy will go out to the stricken parents.

The Winnipeg Free Press of Saturday says :—"The deceased was well known and beloved by all for her many estimable qualities and her death has cast a gloom over the entire congregation of which Mr. Wells has been the pastor for several years. The remains were received at Thompson's undertaking rooms yesterday, where they will remain until this afternoon, when they will be shipped to Nairn, Ont., for interment. Rev. Mr. Wells will accompany the body east."

The service in the Methodist church Sunday evening was of a unique order in that it was conducted solely by women. The seating capacity of the church was taxed to its utmost. Service was opened by Mrs. W. H. Thurston, president of the local Woman's Missionary Society, who introduced Miss Brooks, returned Missionary from China. Miss Brooks spent four years in western China, and gave an interesting talk on Chinese character and customs. This lady spoke at a disadvantage as she was suffering with a cold, but maintained the interest of her audience for nearly forty-five minutes. A choir composed entirely of young ladies and Mission Band girls supplied the music.

Personals

Mrs. W. J. Douglas, Collingwood, is the guest of her parents this week.

Miss Christee is this week visiting friends in Collingwood.

Mrs. Taylor of Owen Sound is visiting her brother, Mr. R. McKenzie

Mr. Allan Bell of Winnipeg was the guest of his brother-in-law, Mr. Jas. McLocklin, this week.

Mr. Arthur McLockin of Durham is visiting here for a week or two to recuperate his health. Our climate is a good one for invalids.

Miss Brooks was the guest of Mrs. F. Dafoe while in town.

Mr. Frank VanDusen and Miss McConnell of Dundalk were guests of the former's parents on Sunday.

Mr. Thomas Pape of Cleveland was a guest at Munshaw's for a few days during the past week. Thirty-six years ago Mr. Pape left Flesherton and has never visited it since, until the present time. Forty years ago he came out from England and entered the employ of W. K. Flesher, with whom he remained four years. His hair is quiet white, the effect, he says, of driving oxen for W. K. in the years of long ago. He was charmed with the present appearance of the place and could scarcely tear himself away.

Resolution of Condolence

The session of Chalmer's church, Flesherton, learning with profound sorrow of the sad bereavement to Rev. John Wells, M.A., a former pastor, in the removal by death of their beloved daughter, Alice, met on Sabbath, the 5th day of May, 1901, and adopted the following resolution, had it engrossed in the minutes, and directed that a copy be forwarded to Mr. Wells at Holland, Manitoba:—

"Whereas the Divine Master has in His love and wisdom seen fit to remove from their home before to her home above, the only daughter of our brother, Rev. John Wells, M.A., we hereby extend to him and his dear wife our heartfelt sympathy in their sore bereavement. Though the trial be severe, may they be enabled to bow in humble submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well, feeling that at most the separation is not for long and that their loved one has been separated from weariness, pain and suffering to be at rest at home with God. Our sincere prayer is that Mr. and Mrs. Wells may be sustained by Divine grace, and that the God of all comfort may comfort them giving 'the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness.' "

On April 1st the new postal regulations reducing the commission on post office orders came into force Hitherto no single orders to U. S. exceeded $50, now orders can be issued up to $100. Formerly the commission on orders up to $2.50 was 3c., now it is 3c. on orders up to $5. Between $10 and $50, the commission is now 10c., formerly it was 12c. on orders from $20 to $30. Orders for $50 to U. S. was formerly 50c. They have been reduced to 15c. This will be a great saving to those who remit by post office orders.
