EDITORIAL DRIFT

Speaking of Centre Grey, the Creemore Star says: "In the face of the fact that the Conservative majority in the riding is over 500, and that Mr. Lucas has been endorsed by the temperance Alliance, Patick's chances, at this distance, seem decidedly slim."

o o o

The Christian Guardian, of course a non-political paper, says the only real issue before the people in the present contest in this province is that of men; that the Opposition ranks are none too hopeful and that the Liberal organization is finding great difficulty in getting really representative and worthy men to stand for election.

o o o

A Collingwood gentleman informs The Advance that there is not likely to be a contest in West Simcoe. Two temperance candidates have been named to contest the riding against Mr. J. S. Duff, the Conservative nominee, but one has withdrawn, and the other, M. A. Clark, deputy reeve of Collingwood, is likely to follow in his footsteps.

The Dominion Alliance has come out with a manifesto asking the temperance forces to pledge all candidates seeking election in the present contest. Centre Grey anticipated this recommendation by two weeks. It will be noted that the Alliance does not demand that third party candidates be brought out in opposition to the old line candidates. In this respect, too, the local Alliance forces anticipated the action of the parent body by two weeks. For such far-sighted acumen, too, the majority have been subjected to some hard knocks from the few whose counsels were not considered worthy of acceptance. Of course those who were defeated in their object were "humiliated," just as any person is apt to be who adopts a high and mighty, non-compromising attitude that admits of no right motive to the man who chances to disagree with him.
