The Entrance were run off the latter part of last week with but twelve writing. This was accounted for by the number who went on the farms. Three wrote on the Lower School on June 15, 18 and 19, two wrote on the matriculation and six on the Normal entrance. Since Easter the school has had an attendance of about thirty, compared with 82 before. This shows the large percentage who took advantage of the farm work.

Mr. Alfred Harrison received a telegram announcing the death of his niece, Mrs. Dan Croker (nee Annie Harrison), who has been in poor health for the past three years. All that medical aid could could do failed to help and on Thursday night, June 21, she passed away. The deceased lady leaves a husband and two small children, mother, one brother and two sisters, all of Irving, N. Y. Mr. Harrison left Friday to attend the funeral.

Pte. Harold Proctor, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Proctor, Kimberley, has returned from England and was in town on Tuesday, the first since his return some ten days ago. Pte. Proctor enlisted at Meaford with the 147th Batt., and was again the victim of inflammatory rheumatism while in England. He became such a sufferer that he was invalided home. He reported at Camp Borden yesterday when he expected to be given his discharge. Pte. Proctor has been a great sufferer from rheumatism before his enlistment and for several months his life was despaired of. Just how he passed medical examination in the first place caused wonder among his friends and his condition is such that it will now win him an honorable discharge. —Meaford Express.

Messrs. Fisher, John Dickson, S. H. Rutledge and J. W. Hamilton of Shelburne were in town on Friday last on behalf of a government trunk road from Toronto to Owen Sound. They also expect to get the County Council to memorialize the government to proceed with the scheme. The latter will pay 70 per cent. and the county would be called upon to pay the other thirty. The proposal should be received enthusiastically by both County Council and people.

An item appeared in The Advance last week stating that Judge Lavelle at Kingston had given a judgment that municipalities were not responsible for sheep killed by stray dogs. If this be the case the township of Artemesia has paid out a whole lot of money that might have been spent on the roads. The township fathers ought to look into this. At the same time we think if the law does not cover such cases it fails of the very object that most people thought it had in view, and cases that it ought to cover.

The remains of the late Mrs. George Keefer arrived here from Bloomfield, New Jersey, U.S., last week, and were interred by the side of her late husband in Flesherton cemetery on Friday afternoon. The deceased lady was in her 86th year. She was a sister of the late Robert Trimble, of this place, and lived here until after the death of her husband eighteen years ago, since which time she has resided with her daughters. She was a very highly respected resident of this village. The family are : Will of Chicago, George of Norwood, James T. of Mason City, Iowa, Rev. Robt. Keefer of Elora, Mrs. J. J. Gilchrist of Ottawa, Mrs. Howard VanTassel of Bloomfield, New Jersey, U.S., and Mrs. D. Wright of Hartford, Conn. All the sons were present at the funeral.

Terribly Sudden Death

Terribly sudden was the call that came to Mr. Miles Thistlethwaite on Thursday morning of last week. That morning he went out a short distance with the team and wagon to draw some wood At dinner time he was called but did not reply. A member of the family went to look for him and found him lying unconscious on the whiffletrees with the horses standing quietly. He was taken to the house and two doctors were at his side within a few minutes but could do nothing and he ceased breathing a short time afterward, without regaining consciousness As only a small quantity of wood had been placed on the wagon it is supposed he suffered the fatal stroke about 9 a.m. and lay in the condition in which he was found until the noon hour.

Miles Thistlethwaite was one of the most respected citizens of this township. He was honorable and upright in all his dealings, a good neighbor and a kind friend. He was a member of the Flesherton Methodist church, as are all his family. He was born in Yorkshire, England. Some years ago he purchased the farm from Mr. Thorp Wright on the Toronto Line two miles south of this village, where he resided until the time of his death. The funeral took place on Monday to Flesherton cemetery.

Besides his sorrowing widow he leaves one son and three daughters—Roy at home, Beatrice, who teachers school, Lily at home, Florence (Mrs. Brown) of Deseronto. With these stricken ones The Advance extends most sincere sympathy.
