Davis---McFadden

The home of M. and Mrs. Hamilton McFadden, Glenelg, was the scene of a quiet wedding on the 4th inst., when their youngest daughter, Dorothea May, was united in the holy bonds of wedlock to Mr. William Milton Davis, late of the 4th C.M.R., fourth son of Mrs. William Davis, Toronto Line, Artemesia. Owing to the recent death of the groom's father only a few of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present to witness the ceremony, which was duly performed by Rev. A. P. Stanley, pastor of Markdale Methodist church. At 2 o'clock the bride was escorted under the arch by her eldest brother, Mr. R. W. E. McFadden, M. A. She was prettily attired in a frock of satin and georgette with customary bridal veil and floral bouquet. Her attendant was her cousin Miss Martha McFadden, gowned in taffeta silk and georgette. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Glen Davis, dental student at the Ueiversity of Toronto. The groom's gift to the bride was a pendent set with diamonds, to the bridesmaid a pearl brooch and to the groomsman a tie pin. After a sumptuous wedding repast the young couple left for Toronto and Niagara Falls. The bride's travelling suit was sand serge with marabou stole and black picture hat. After the honeymoon the young couple will reside on the Davis homestead, Toronto Line, where they will be at home after Sept. 1st.

Life Saving Medal Presented Osprey Citizen

On Monday evening, August 2nd, a number of the residents of Osprey met at Feversham on the occasion of the presentation of a Life Saving Medal to Mr. James Davidson. Such an investiture is rare and Mr. Davidson has the proud distinction of being the only possessor of such a medal within a wide radius from this community. During the evening brief commendatory speeches were made by the Rev. Mr. Brown of Maxwell, and by the members of the Osprey Council. Also in a few words Mr. and Mrs. Shortt expreesed sincere acknowledgment of the great debt they owed to Mr. Davidson for the rescue of their young son. During a pause in the following address the medal was pinned on Mr. Davidson's breast by Nellie, the little sister of the boy Mr. Davidson rescued.

THE ADDRESS

To Mr. Davidson, Feversham,

Dear Jim: —A number of your friends have gathered here this evening to witness the fitting sequel to an incident that took place on July 18th of last year. The incident referred to was the occasion of your rescuing one of our young boys, Samuel Shortt, from drowning in the mill pond at Feversham. The rescue was only effected by prompt and courageous action on your part when a moment of hesitancy or fear for personal consequences would have meant not only the loss of his life but would have brought untold sorrow to the home of his parents. Such behaviour as you showed on that day merits greater reward than is in our pewer to bestow, yet we would have you understand that we appreciate such noble qualities as you possess in one of the young men of our community; for no more commendable quality is it possible to possess than the readiness to endanger self, if need be, in the interests of others. It was indeed a heroic action and a worthy precedent for others to emulate in future if an occasion should ever demand it. On the recommendation of the Municipal Council of Osprey, which in its public capacity is ever desirous of seeing the deserving rewarded, the Royal Humane Society has forwarded one of its highly prized medals for presentation to you. In the winning of this medal you have just reason to be proud for no such medal is given haphazardly, but is only awarded in the most deserving of cases. With this medal is extended our heartiest congratulations and may it also convey our pride in you that you have thus so indelibly inscribed your name in the annals of Fame.

Signed on behalf of the Municipal Council of Osprey and your many friends who are desirous of showing their appreciation of your most praiseworthy conduct.

(Sgd.) IRWIN MORRISON,
Head of the Municipality of Osprey.

No Repost on Arnel Love

No report has yet been made as to the sanity of Arnel Love, by the alienist who is in charge of the investigation of the rationality of the self confessed murderer of his mother. For some time Love has been in detention under the close supervision of experts. The latter are not prepared to make any statement as to his case till a report has been handed to the Attorney General's department, at the expiry of the period of inquiry. Although there has been considerable mystery as to the whereabouts of Love, he has been at the Queen street asylum for some time—Mail Empire.

MARKDALE

Mr. H. D. Irwin has disposed of his beautiful 150 acre farm in the suburbs. Mr. W. J. Bowes is the buyer and $14,000 the price. The farm is Mrs. Bowes' grandfather's homestead. Mr. Irwin has purchased Mr. John Cook's residence on Wellington street, and is this week moving to town.

Mr. Bert Burrell, one of the workmen on Wm. Neely's special gang on the railway, certainly had a very narrow escape from death Saturday evening. While returning to Markdale he was on the first of three jiggers in a stretch heavily laden with men, and speeding right along. In some way he fell off, with the result that the second handcar passed over him and was derailed, while the third stopped on him. He was released from his perilous position, and was rendered first aid by the men, then rushed home and the doctor called. He was badly cut, bruised and shaken up, but seems to be recovering very favorably. It is certainly a miracle how he escaped death—Standard.
