LEAGUE GAMES THIS WEEK :—

Flesherton at Rocklyn—Wednesday
Dundalk at Ceylon—Thursday
Vandeleur at Ceylon, Mon., Aug. 1

Another victory has come to the credit of the Vandeleur team in their overwhelming victory over the local ball club on the former's field on Saturday afternoon, the score being 27-4. It was the worst game the locals put up this year. The Flesherton team has had hard luck in losing players throughout the season and on Saturday the luck was capped when three of the best players were unable to atteed. The Vandeleur team is a nifty outfit and it would be a record for them to go through the season unbeaten.

The locals won in an exhibition game of baseball on Tuesday evening of last week when they played Eugenia at the garden party held here, when the score was 17-7. E Ellis, the port-sider of Kimberley, started in the box but was relieved by Williams and Large in order.

A picked team from Ceylon, Flesherton and Vandeleur will play in Walkerton under the Flesherton colors Friday a.m. of this week. The boys are sure of giving Walkerton a good run for their money. On Monday the same teams will play in a tournament to be held in Meaford, baseball all day at the ball park.

Flesherton plays at Rocklyn today (Wednesday) and it is sure to be a good game.

Dundalk and Ceylon are having their game, which was to have been played on August 4, on Thursday afternoon of this week. Game called at 5 o'clock sharp.

T FISHER - PROPRIETOR

Carson—Jonah

A wedding of much interest to residents of this locality took place at Holland, Man., on July 13th, when Frances Annette, fourth daughter of Judge and Mrs. W. B. Jonah of Sussex, N. B., became the bride of George Malcolm Carson, one of Cypress River's most popular young men. Miss Jonah has been on the teaching staff of the local public school for the past two years and will be much missed in that capacity. After a short honeymoon spent at the Beach the young couple will take up their residence in Cypress River.

On the Monday preceeding the ceremony a variety shower was given for the bride elect on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. J. E Carson. Many valuable and useful gifts were presented to the guest of honor by two tiny tots—Georgina Carson and Jean Sargent. During the evening solos were rendered by Mrs. W. B. Brant and Mrs. Nellie Malcolm. Refreshments were served to the many guests by the ladies in charge.

Samuel Warling Dead

Death came suddenly to Mr. Samuel Warling of Holland Centre on Friday evening last in the 62nd year of his age, says the Chatsworth News. Although the deceased had not been well for several months, he continued to work as a laborsr and made no serious complaint until Friday noon, when he decided to take a rest for the remainder of the day, as he felt greatly fatigued from the effects of the hot weather. Towards evening, however, he took a turn for the worse and a little later he suffered a stroke of paralysis, due to high blood pressure, and died without regaining consciousness. The deceased was born in the township of Artemesia and had been a resident of Holland Centre for ten years. He was twice married, his first wife dying in 1892. Three years afterwards he was married to Miss Katherine Bowes, who survives him. In religion Mr. Warling was a Methodist, living an honest and consistent life, and ever trying in his humble way to be of useful service to his fellow men.

Besides the sorrowing widow deceased leaves five daughters and one son—Mrs. Samuel Badgerow, Proton ; Mrs. James Crowther, Cobourg ; Mrs Merion Croft, Maxwell ; Amanda and Alice at home, and Gordon at Flesherton. Two brothers and one sister also survive—George and John of Vandeleur and Mrs Sarah Richardson of Chatsworth. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon to the Meaford Road Cemetery.
