KIMBERLEY

The first visit King Winter paid us was sure a lively one on Saturday and Friday night. About two inches of snow fell.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Ellis and Miss Winnoria of Collingwood visited Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Ellis and other friends for a few days last week.

Mr. W. T. Ellis is home from Port Loring, picking and packing apples, bringing three pickers with him.

Mr. Dalan, formerly of Bank of Montreal, Kimberley, visited with Mrs. Plewes.

Mr. Irwin has got nicely started on his new mail route, Kimberley to Flesherton. Norman Burritt takes the north route to Heathcote.

Miss Annie Burritt returned to Collingwood G & M. hospital, to supply as night Supt. for a month or so.

The annual anniversary services on Sunday were well planned and carried out. Rev. Grafton of Singhampton gave two splendid addresses in the morning and evening. The music was also fine. Those who attended certainly enjoyed a treat. All are looking forward to Friday night's fowl supper. The Ladies' Aid are not sparing any pains to provide plenty of eats. The moving picture and musical concert, put on by a government man is being looked forward to with pleasure. It was reported fine at New England.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Weber, Geraldin and Lettie motored to Ohio last week, to make a visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. McLean, the latters mother.

Mrs. Stephens of Markdale, is caring for Mrs. Wickens for a few days.

The apple crop is the order of the day. Some growers are selling at a very low price, even for good winter apples, such as Spys and Baldwins.

Mr. J. Plewes is busy with his apple crop which is heavy.

Messrs. Ezra Fawcett, Fred Ellis, Cecil Fawcett, and Ralph Stafford have gone to Thornbury to pick apples.

We sympathize very much with Mr. and Mrs. A. Harvey, in the loss of their bright little girl, of 18 mos. old, who left this world of care for the brightness of the heavenly home. The little girl passed away Wednesday and the funeral took place to Markdale cemetery Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Fawcett of Powassan are visiting their parents here for a week or so.

We expect to have with us next Sunday at 3 o'clock, one of our former pastors, Rev. W. J. Wilkinson. The Sunday school will be at 1.45 p.m.

VANDELEUR

A number from here attended Miss McPhail's meeting at Eugenia last week, and report a good time.

Mrs. Genoe, and little grand-daughter, Irene, visited with Mrs. Will Burrit of Sligo, for a few days last week.

The Oct. meeting of the Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. Geo. Summers on Wed. of last week.

A number from here attended the Rocklyn fair last week. Mrs. F. Davis won first prize as horse back rider and F. Davis second. Also several prizes on horses and cattle. ....

Messrs Frank Taylor and Russell Freeman were successful exhibitors at Rocklyn, winning several prizes with their fine horses.

The heavy fall of snow on Friday and Saturday of last week has hindered the farmers greatly in work that has been held back with so much rain. We all enjoy a beautiful fall of snow in January or February, but we don't think so much of it in Oct., when our potatoes and apples, and roots of all kinds are out in it, and we have not time for sleigh riding.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of William Fisher, who died Oct 9, 1914.

Some day, some time, our eyes shall see
That face we loved so well
Some day our hands shall clasp in his,
And never say farewell.

The flowers we laid upon his grave
Have withered and decayed,
But the love for him who sleeps beneath
Shall never fade away.

Ever remembered by wife and family.

PRICEVILLE
