IN MEMORIAM

HINCKS — In loving memory of our little daughter Ilene Marie who was laid to rest two years ago, Jan. 5 1928.

There's a home that is filled with sorrow.
Two hearts are lonely and sad.
When God took home two years ago
The only child they had.
God only knows how we miss her
And the pain she silently bore.
At times our hearts come near breaking
As we long for her back once more.

Sadly missed by Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hincks.

The schools re-open on Monday January 6th.

ROCK MILLS

Happy new year to all!

VANDELEUR

Mrs. Will Burrell of Rocklyn and Miss Ethel Thompson of Ripley spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Genoe and family.

We are sorry to report Mr. Lundy Johnston very ill at present. His many friends hope for a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Bowes of Richmond Hill are visiting with the Johnston and Buchanan families.

There was a disastrous fire in this community on Friday evening of last week when two fine barns belonging to Mr. Jas. Cargoe were burned to the ground. Mr. Cargoe was busy at the chores when a horse knocked a lantern onto a pile of straw and the fire gained headway fast. Mr. Cargoe succeeded in rescuing all the stock and neighbors arrived and helped to save the machinery and some grain. The loss is partly covered by insurance. Mr. Cargoe has the sympathy of the community in his loss.

The Christmas tree entertainment in the church on Thursday evening, December 19th, was served in the basement, after which a splendid program of recitations, dialogues, etc. mostly by the young people, was rendered in the auditorium of the church. Following this Santa appeared and delighted the youngsters by unloading the tree. Rev. St. John, the pastor, acted as chairman.

At the school meeting on Thursday evening Mr. Chas. Boland was elected trustee. Lloyd Boland secured tht contract for caretaking. The wood contract was not let.

Discuss Community at Feversham

A general meeting will be held in the Orange Hall, Feversham, on Saturday evening January 4th 1930 at 8 p. m. for the purpose of organizing a community club with the intention of building a community hall. Every one is urged to attend. Ladies especially welcome.

MAXWELL

The Maxwell public school held their Christmas entertainment Thurs. Dec. 19 in the former Presbyterian church. A splendid entertainment was given by the children. Much credit is due Miss Maynard for the very capable way in which she trained the pupils. In spite of the stormy evening the church was filled almost to capacity.

On Tues. evening (Christmas Eve) the United Sunday school held their annual Christmas tree and concert. The program consisting of dialogues, songs and recitations was given in a pleasing manner. The attendance was good in spite of the almost impassable roads. Santa Claus was well received by the children.

The young people of the United church gave their play "The Poulter Pigeon" twice last week. On Christmas night at Singhampton and on Friday evening at Eugenia. They were well received and report a splendid time at both places.

Miss Helen Maynard is holidaying with her sister at Owen Sound.

Miss Artle Wright of Toronto teaching staff is holidaying at her parental home here.

Miss Shirley Buckingham of the University of Toronto is holidaying at her home here.

Your correspondent takes this opportunity of wishing The Advance staff a Happy and prosperous New Year.

AS WE GROW OLDER

(Life)

As we gow older we realize that Santa Claus doesn't really come down the chimney; he just enters through a large hole in the pocketbook.

Theodore Busek, whose apartment was raided recently in Kitchener and some young girls and young men were discovered drinking beer, admitted that he was 80 years of age.

EUGENIA

A happy and successful new year, 1930, to the editor, staff and readers of The Advance is the wish of your correspondent.

Mrs. Thos. McKee has returned home after a pleasant week's visit with her daughters and other relatives in Toronto.

Mrs. Walker Sloan is holidaying with relatives in Toronto and Watertown, N.Y.

Mr. Jacob Williams visited over Christmas in Toronto.

Mr. Norman Williams has been transferred from his position at Pheasant Island to a similar position at Vittoria, where Mr. W. Chilton, a former assistant here, is stationed. We wish Norman success.

Mrs. Len Latimer, Mr. Ernie Morgan, and little Iolean Russell are all on the sick list. Mr. C. Graham and Mrs. C. Martin are suffering with a sore throat. We hope all will be better ere long.

Mr. Russell Cameron of Toronto University is holidaying at his parental home, 8th line.

The Sunday school, concert held on Monday evening of last week, was quite successful. The program was lengthy and consisted of some fine dialogues, choruses, recitations, drills, etc. "Santa's Clinic" took up a great deal of time. We give our teacher, Miss Acheson, credit in training the children so well for part of the program. Santa Claus, as jolly as ever, arrived at the close of the program and distributed presents from the well-laden Christmas tree, to old and young alike.

PROTON STATION

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Robt. J. MacArthur(nee Ruth Stewart) who were recently married in Windsor. We wish them much joy.

The W. M. S. held their annual meeting at the home of Mrs. Neil McCannel on Thursday, December 19. The officers were all re-elected. At the close of the meeting the Pres. Mrs. R. G. Acheson and the Secretary, Mrs. McCannel were each presented with a handsome box of stationery as a token of appreciation of their services.

The Proton Sunday school held their Christmas entertainment in the Orange Hall on Friday, Dec. 27. The event was very successful. Both performers and instructors are to be congratulated on the splendid manner in which they conducted themselves.

Mr. C. Ireland, Victoria College, occupied the pulpit in the United church on Sunday evening and delivered a very fine address. The congregation enjoyed a duet very sweetly sung by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wauchope.

Mrs. Robt. Acheson and daughter, Miss Emily, are in Toronto at the present time. Miss Emily was to have undergone an operation for appendicitis, but owing to an attack of tonsilitis the operation will not take place for a week's time.

Christmas visitors in Proton were, Messrs. Arnold Hergott, Clarke Wyville, Harvey and Everett White, and Clarence Middaugh, all of Toronto.

Miss Jean McCannel is spending the holidays at her home.

Miss Margaret Lyons, Toronto is enjoying a week's vacation under the parental roof.

Mr. W. G. Prosser, Keswick, is a guest at the home of Mr. R. G. Acheson.

(Last Week's Items)

Santa Claus and the mail couriers deserve the sympathy of the public these stormy days. The stormy weather is also a disappointment to the business men and to the public school staffs, who have prepared programs which have to be postponed owing to storm and snow drifts. Still everyone has abundance to be thankful for at the Christmas season and we cannot help the weather.

The public school concert last week was a great success. Ideal weather, an appreciative audience and all from the smallest to the biggest doing their part with great credit to themselves and their teacher, Mrs. Johnson. Santa Claus was there as large as life distributing the gifts from a well laden tree.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Moore of Flesherton were Sundhy visitors with Miss Lena Park and her mother.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to the Advance Editor and staff.

SKINNER—MARTIN

In an artistic setting of greenery and mellow lights the marriage was very prettily solemnized on Saturday Dec. 28th, 1929, at 10.30 o'clock a. m. of Wilda Corrinne, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Martin 876—7th Ave. West, Owen Sound, to Mr. Leonard Glenn Skinner of Detroit, Mich. third son of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Skinner of Tharpe, Tenn. Rev. Thos. Laidlaw pastor of Westside United church ogiciated in the presence of about twenty guests, intimate friends of the bride and groom. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride and the decorations were very picturesquely wrought centering in an arch of evergreens finished with pink and white streamers which joined the bank of greenery. The doorway between the dining room and parlor was also arched with lace-like streamers and tied back with white, which made them appear like curtains.

The background was ideal for the costume of the pretty young bride who looked winsome in a gown of white silk flat crepe, with sleeves of chantilly lace and a cape trimmed with chantilly banding. She also wore a veil of embroidered silk net with a bandeau of bridal wreath across her forehead, white kid shoes and hose. She carried a bouquet of premier roses. The bride approached to the strains of the Bridal Chorus rendered by Mrs. (Rev. Laidlaw and was escorted no the bridal arch by her father who gave her away. The bride was attended by Miss Mabel Dobson as bridesmaid, frocked in a gown of blue satin-faced crepe. She wore a becoming hat of blue velvet and blue kid shoes and carried a bouquet of Columbia roses. Mr. Orville Martin of Detroit, Mich., brother of the bride, supported the groom. Mr. J. H. Leonard gave an impressive vocal rendition of "All Mine Alone." The groom's gift to the bride was a cheque, his gift to the bridesmaid was a mesh purse, to the pianist, a cabinet of stationery, to the best man a gold pocket knife with his initials engraved and to the soloist engraved cuff links.

After the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served in the dining room. The decorations were very lovely. The chandelier above the table was decorated with streamers of a deep shade of pink while the streamers reaching from the corners of the table to the chandelier were of pale pink and white to harmonize with the rest of the decorations. A bouquet of pink and white carnations graced the centre of the table with pink candles in silver holders at each end. A three story wedding cake was gaily decorated on a little side table. The luncheon assisnants were all girl friends of the bride and members of her girls' club, Miss Mabel Arnott in brown georgette, Miss Veryl Sutcliffe in brown crepe back satin, Miss Ruby Shaw in brown crepe and Miss Addie Vance in rose velvet. Rev. Mr. Laidlaw proposed a toast to the bride which was responded to by Mr. W. J. Martin and Mr. Leonard.

The bride and groom left on the 1.15 C. N. R. train amid showers of confetti for Hamilton, London and Detroit Mich. where they will reside. The bride chose for her traveling costume blue crepe back satin, blue coat with grey fur collar and cuffs, blue kid shoes and purse and blue velvet hat. The gloves and hose were in harmony with her attire Before the bride left for the train she handed her bouquet to her mother. The bride received many useful and pretty gifts. Her many friends join in wishing her many years of happy wedded life.

Saturday 28th was an occasion for double joy, it being the silver anniversary of their marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Martin were married twenty five years ago at "Shady Nook Farm" Kimberley. Mrs. Martin wore a gown of maroon glace silk flat crepe and black satin shoes and hose to match on the twenty fifth anniversary. Something which not many can say "The needle that made her daughter's wedding gown made her mother's twenty five years ago as well as the dress which Mrs. Martin wore on her twenty fifth anniversary."

Mr. and Mrs. Martin received many lovely gifts of silver from their family, a beautiful bouquet of mums from the Ladies' Aid, silver spoons from the teachers and officers of Westside United church. Mrs. Martin was also presented with a beautiful silver casserole from the girls of her C. G. I. T. group of the same church. Mr. and Mrs. Martin convey their thanks to the several organizations of the church for their gifts.

QUITE NATURAL

She doesn't like
A shady joke.
She doesn't neck,
She doesn't smoke.
She doesn't swear,
She never flirts.
She doesn't wear
Those shortened skirts.
She doesn't dance,
She doesn't sing,
And sheiks in pants
Don't mean a thing.
She doesn't use
The beauty salves,
But won't refuse
To show her calves.
You ask her name?
Well, that's a wow—
She's not a dame,
She's a dairy cow.
