Large Funeral For Mrs. Jacob Williams

A very sad gloom was cast over this community on Friday evening, May 19, at 7.30 o'clock, when the news flashed about that another life, that of Mrs. Jacob Williams, had passed away to be with her Saviour. Her maiden name was Miss Elizabeth Stewart, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stewart. She was born 60 years ago last April on the Toronto Line, near Flesherton, where she spent her girlhood days. She was a loving and dutiful daughter to her parents and was prominent in social circles.

She was married on September 10, 1895 to her now grief stricken husband and came to Eugenia to reside, where Mr. Williams conducted a blacksmith and repair shop. Here she has spent most of her married life and endeared herself to a wide circle of friends, by her many acts of kindness and her cheerful ways. Mrs. Williams will be greatly missed in this community as she was an enthusiastic church worker. Before the days of the United church she was a member of the Presbyterian church and acted as organist and also took an interest in the Methodist church, filling the same position; this showed the unselfish spirit. When union came, she became a member of the United church and worked on as before, trying to keep up the good work of our Master. She was a member of the Ladies' Aid and took a keen interest in the choir; her chief aim was to build up a strong choir this year, but we trust the work that she has laid the foundation for will forge ahead. We will miss her pleasant face in social gatherings where we were all inspired by her hearty laughs and cheerful voice. Mrs. Williams posessed a fine lovable and unselfish disposition and was held in high esteem. Her cheerful presence will be sadly missed in the Old Boys' and Girls' Association of Flesherton in which she took much interest and regretted that she was unable to attend their "At Home" in Toronto this spring. Some few years ago, she was a faithful correspondent for The Advance.

We did not think her illness was so serious. For some months past she had been ill with nervous exhaustion, together with other ailments, which in the end proved fatal. Everything that doctor, friend and nurse could do was done, but death conquered all. When her spirit took its flight she was surrounded by all those who were so dear to her. Oft times during her illness she repeated those beautiful words, "God moves in a mysterious way His wonders to perform." Here again is shown her Christian faith.

She is survived by her husband, three daughters, Allie (Mrs. Ross Lehman); Neah, (Mrs. W. G. Davies) and Hilda, all of Toronto; also one grandson, Master Hedley, and a stepgranddaughter, Miss Dorothy Davis. She also leaves in sad bereavement three sisters, Jane (Mrs. D. McTavish); Annie (Mrs. Ez. White); Ella (Mrs. H. Smith) and four brothers Will., Chas., Albert and Harry.

The funeral (directed by the undertaker, Mr. E. J. Bennett) took place Monday afternoon—a beautiful day just when earth looked most wonderful with its new mantle of green foliage and blossoming trees; everything seemed glorious. Was it because she now had joined the Heavenly choir and all Heaven was rejoicing? The remains were taken to the United church. There she lay in the lovely grey casket in front of the draped pulpit, amid the numerous floral tributes which showed love for the deceased and sympathy for the bereaved. The floral offerings were as follows: Pillow, the family; basket of roses, brothers and sisters; spray, nephews and nieces; wreath, neighbors and friends; spray, United church choir; wreath, Old Boys' and Girls' Association; wreath, Mr. and Mrs. G. Williams; wreath, Mr. and Mrs. T. Lever and Mr. and Mrs. C. Martin; sprays, Mr. and Mrs. W. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lehman, Mr. and Mrs. Annette, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Park, Mr. and Mrs. Moffatt Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hopkins, Mrs. Buskin and Mrs. Regan, Mr. and Mrs. Will Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Widdifield and Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Pooley, Mr. and Mrs. Lawson, Mr. and Mrs. John Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Fenwick, Dr. and Mrs. A. Leon Hatzen, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stewart Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stewart, Mr. Geo. Henderson and Eric.

Her pastor, Rev. Mr. McNeill, assisted by Rev. W. J. Scott of Flesherton, officiated at the church and grave. The service commenced with the hymn, "Forever, with the Lord," then Rev. Scott read scripture passages from Revelations, Chap. 21 and passages from Thessalonians. The hymn, "Lead Kindly Light" was sung. Rev. Mr. McNeil took as his text verse 10, Psalm 25, preaching a very comforting sermon, concluding with suitable references to the Christian character of the deceased and her worth to the church and the community. The Flesherton quartette, Mrs. McCallum, Mrs. Blackburn, Dr. E. C. Murray and Mr. Frank Duncan sang a beautiful selection, "In the Homeland far away," Mrs. Blackburn acting as organist at the service. Rev. Scott closed with prayer.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. Geo. Stewart of Stratford, Chas. and Geo. McTavish, Will. and John Campbell and Albert Williams.

Interment took place to the family plot in Flesherton cemetery. A very large crowd gathered at the church to show their last respects for the deceased and a large cortege followed the remains to its last resting place.

Friends from a distance were: Mrs. Pooley, Mrs. Wm. Widdifield, Mr. and Mrs. Will. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lehman, Mr. George Henderson and son Eric, Miss Ramsey, Mr. Chas. Annette Mr. Joe Legard, Mr. Albert Legard, Mr. Burton Field, Mrs. Wallie Williams, Mrs. Ken Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Williams, Miss Hattie Cole, Mrs. Bill Grigsley, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McTavish, Oshawa; Dr. and Mrs. A. Leon Hatzan, Niagara Falls; Miss Gladys Ard, Mrs. T. Wright and son, Lloyd, Mrs. Ernie Rohmer, Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stewart, Stratford; brothers of the deceased and their wives and the sisters and their husbands and children were all present.

We extend our sympathy to those left to mourn her loss and pray that our Heavenly Father may assuage the anguish of their bereavement and leave only the cherished memory of the loved and departed.

Peacefully sleeping, resting at last,
Life's weary trials and troubles are past.
Gone is the friend we loved so dear,
Silent is the voice we loved to hear.
Forgive us, Lord, for asking why,
But oh, why Lord, did she have to die?
Why was it, Lord, she had to go?
For we loved her—loved her so.
