Rev. Bennett Passes

Stricken with a heart attack last week during a vacation in Florida, Rev. M. Melvyn Bennett, 34 Jackson Ave., Toronto, died Sunday evening in the Toronto General Hospital in his seventy-first year. Following the attack he was immediately brought back to Toronto, arriving Friday.

In 1927 he retired from the United Church in Wingham, climaxing over forty years of service with Methodist and United Churches. A Past President of the Methodist Conference of Saskatchewan, Mr. Bennett was widely known in Western Canada. He served on the Board of Home Missions both in the Methodist and United Churches.

A native of Stratford, he received his education in the collegiate there, Wesley College, Winnipeg, and Victoria College, Toronto. He began his career before union, in Saskatchewan. A resident of Toronto since 1934, he worshipped at Kingsway-Lambton United Church. He belonged to the Orange Order.

The late Mr. Bennett was well known in Flesherton, residing here at various times while his son was in town, and made many warm friends who are very sorry to hear of his passing. He occupied the pulpit of St. John's United Church on a number of occasions and his sermons were well received. Besides his widow he leaves to mourn one daughter and two sons, Cathleen E. of Toronto, Wesley B. of Detroit and Emerson J. of Durham.
