THE MIXING BOWL
By Anne Allan
HYDRO HOME ECONOMIST

Hello Homemakers! This is the season when holiday folk some to visit for the afternoon or evening. The emergency calls to mind the song "If I'd know you were coming I'd have baked a cake." Perhaps this may be a timely reminder for you and me. It is so easy to beat a batter made from a packaged cake mix and pour into paper baking cups, then into a preheated oven of 375 degrees for twenty minutes.

Small cakes do not have the same tendency to fall that a large square one does and so you may open the oven door after fifteen minutes to sprinkle nuts on each one. A topping of chopped nuts or shavings of candy will save the time to frost the cakes.

For company meals during the summer there's nothing better than a "cold" plate. Don't be afraid of plain fare when its tasty and attractively served. For instance if you planned to serve a bread and milk pudding, make it and top with a spoonful of jelly or garnish with a mint leaf. If you haven't enough milk in the house, use 1 cup condensed milk and 3 cups water. If there is not sufficient time to bake bread puddings in over for an hour, put it in a pan in the pressure cooker and steam for 10 minutes.

BREAD PUDDING

2 cups raisin bread (cut in cubes)
4 cups milk (or diluted condensed)
1 tbsp. butter
3 beaten eggs
¾ cup brown sugar
¼ tsp. salt
1 tsp. vanilla

Soak bread in hot milk 5 minutes. Add butter, salt, vanilla and sugar. Pour beaten eggs over mixture and spoon into a greased mould that can be placed in pressure saucepan. Tie wax paper over the dish. Pour 1 cup water in pan and place casserole on the rack and adjust the cover Cook for 10 mins. at 10 lbs. pressure.

BLUE ULATE IDEAS

1. Potato Salad in Lettuce cup, Cabbage-Raisin salad cold Tongue, Lime jelly; wedge of Cantaloupe, and buttered Rolls.
2. Parsley Potatoes, Corn-on-the-cob, steamed Marrow with Cheese sauce, spiced hot Beets; Blueberres and cream.
3. Tuna casserole, Green Peas, home-fried Potatoes, and hot tea biscuits; Spiced Applesauce.
4. Jellied Carrot salad, fresh Peach and cheese, Macaroni and Green Pepper salad, devilled Egg.
5. Assorted Cold Meat slices, Potato cake, String beans; Honeydew melon.
