is steadily increasing.

Appreciating the tastes and requirements of the Public I have studiously, and I trust successfully, labored for 18 years to meet the wishes of purchasers. The support and patronage I have had justifies me in increasing my stock, extending my facilities, and at the same time materially reducing my prices.

Ambitious as I have ever been to be first and foremost in my business, I am resolved that henceforth the reputation I have achieved in this particular, shall be promoted and enhanced. Egotistical mention is not essential, but I do feel warranted in calling attention to my present full and complete stock of Goods, a stock, the greater part of which has been purchased for cash, and direct from the manufacturers, and the equal of which, for extent or variety, I do not think can be found north of Toronto. I solicit from strangers an inspection, and to my friends and customers say, that I have for them in goods and prices a succession of what I believe will be very agreeable surprises. am in a position to fill all orders, and it will not be necessary to send to Toronto or elsewhere for goods. Give me a chance to supply your wants, and I guarantee the best Goods at the most economical rates.

A call and examination will be gratifying to me, for I feel sure that an experience in patronizing me will fully confirm all that I claim for my goods.
