Our readers will remember the circumstances, which happened here in June last. The parties were exhibited by Mr J J W Simpson, of Owen relling, when the prisoner struck the latter dropping and dying almost immediately. The evidence went to show that the blow was not one which in ordinary circumstances would have produced death, and the medical testimony was to the effect that there brought in a verdict of "Guilty," with a strong recommendation to mercy. He was sentenced to six months in the Central Prison. THE MARKETS
