All in vain the sun is shin ng, Waters sparkling, blossoms twining; They but see through these same sorrows Sad to-days and worse to-merrows See the clouds that must pass over ; See the weeds among the clover-Everything and anything But the gold the sunbeams bring.

Drinking from the bitter fountain, Lo! your mole hill seems a mountain. Drops of dew and drops of rain Swell into the mighty main. All in vain the blessings shower, And the mercies fall with power. Gathering chaff, ye tread the wheat, Rich and royal, 'neath your feet.

Let it not be so, my neighbour; Look up, as you love and labour, Not for one alone wee's vials; Every one has cares and trials. Joy and pain are linked together, Like the fair and cloudy weather. May we lave, oh, let us pray, Faith and patience for to-day.

By the Autlor of " A Strange Friendship," &c.

CHAPTER 1. in our dining-room, fastening a spray of for- | ago, and get-me nots in the soft thick coils of her beautiful go'den hair ; and I was seated in my favourite co ner of the couch, leaning against a heap of piled-up cushions, and watching her with it do!ent admiration. For Rese was the beauty of our family. the h ndsomest girl to be met with far and wide in our neighbourhood. I used to call her my "white Rose of all the world." roll away, and I see my levely sister, Rose Pelham, as she looked on that fair summer with magnificent, 'ong, ripp'ing, golden hair, pecial favourites and to have your monegram formed on them on the note-paper you her gelden hair. always used. It is years now since I saw you, darling Rose, but I lave not forgotten

The mists c'ear away from my memory, and I see myself too-Cathie Pelham-not so tall as my sister, with darker lair, having only a gleam of gold, brown eyes, and a smaller, rounder face than hers, not pink and white and beautifully cut like Rose's statuerque features. She was the loveliest of all our race, and we Pe hams were a family famed for generations for fair wo-

My mother had been dead for years past, and we were living with my father on his estate in New Zeal; nd. Our education was supposed to be finished, and Rose lad just spent a season in the nearest town, where she had made many conquests, and from which she lad returned, engaged to be married, with her fate decided for life. was somewhat disappointed that Rose twenty-one, was dis'asteful to me; but then I did not especially fancy the man whom my sister had chosen. Not that I had any particuler fault to find with Herbert Tempestfor that was the name of the lucky man who had won my sister's heart, and to whom in one short month she was to be married-and I could not give a reason for my distike. It was simply a case of Doctor Fell. "The reason why I cannot tell,

But this I do know very well, I do not like you, Doctor Fell. "Does it look nice, Cathie?" she asked.

"It looks first rate," I answered, survey-dress maker has made your train long enough. If Herbert is coming, I suppose I shall have | And si'ent that heart-thrilling voice to spend my evening alone as usual." dded, with a semewhat injured air. "No, you won't," said Rose; and she turned suddenly and put her arms round my neck and kissed me- "I can't do without my dear old Cathie, even though he is here ; and if coffrse you know, doar, you must live win us after I'm married."

With her soft check against mine, and her autiful white aims entwined around me. I returned her kiss; and, all unconscious o the dread fate approaching with swift, stealthy steps, Rose and I wished each other " Farewell." The moment came and passed and the last tender caress which was ever to take place between my sister and mysel was over, little as we imagined it at the

" Life is but a day at most, Strung from night, in darkness lost, Hope i ot sunshine every hour; Fear not clouds will always lower." Her lovely blue eyes looked laughingly

"I am going into the garden, Cathie, he said, "to while away the time till Herbest comes. Will you come with me or the garden, with the sladows growing long, courty ard, in front of the stables. looked delightfully cool and tempting in the "I am not dressed yet, 'I observed, with a g'ai ce of vexation at my old gray lustre | roundings. gown. "But I should like to go out so I knew my father was away from home much! I believe I must make n yself res- we expected him back to dinner that very pectable, and then I will follow you, Rose evening, and Herbert Tempest with him.

hves hang! If I had gone with her then. if I had never left her side that afternoon. She did not urge me any further : she was in her hand, and I called to her to put If I returned to the spot, surely I should and again. If I could but get rid of this head at once; and, laughing still, I saw her | brilliant, beautiful sister, so full of life and | yl all-how my comrade, Tom Duncombe with light and shadow, away into the leafy ago, appeared to me at that moment an utter | trusted all my life. He and I had been covert of the trees beyond. And there I impossibility; and, following the impulse of schoolmates, friends, college chums. lost sight of her.

dinner as quickly as possible, so that I might | where I had left her. follow Rose into the garden at once.

but I could not, of course, be compared for blow from life to immortality. a moment to Rose. silver locket attached, round my neck, when | ing the short interval in which I had been that she was Tom's wife, I avowed this itude. If the French people were like other some one knocked at the door. "It's only me, Miss Cathie," said a voice.

two rows or three of this kilting round the edge of Miss Rose's blue dress.' been Rose's nurse and mine, and who lived Looking more closely, I saw that it had Tyler in Cicely's presence, I had not seen upon the friendship of a French monarch way into the collection of a very rich English next room, where Mrs. Holland, who had | gone ! with us half as maid and half as housekceper, was busy sewing at some of the costumes belonging to my sister's wedding outfit. Mrs. Holland was a widow of about fifty years of age, and we valued her very much She had once seen better days, and was in every way a superior woman for her station

I gave my opinion about the blue dress and then I lingered some little time, talking to her about various other it ms coff the work on which she was engaged, and especially about the difficulty of getting Rose to atten to the details of her own wardrobe when she was dreaming about her absent sweetheart. "I asked her, Miss Cathie, a dozen times, Mrs. Holland complained to me, "if she will have her dress cut with a polonaise or jacket, and she only starts and looks at me with her mind quite astray, and says, 'O Mrs. Holland, what is it?

"Well, it is indeed most provoking her, I know," I said; and then, half laughing, I added saucily, "I hope, when I am going to be married, I shall not give you so much trouble." She looked at me for a odd expression in her eyes. "When you are going to be married, house will be going away." And then she captured a brigade of Austrian artillery. He would take charge of Cicely, and, if the sage. He instructed me to inform his that item was shown to a man of that peradded, "I hope you will get a nicer gentleman than Mr. Herbert Tempest."

Ob, nonsense!" I returned. "You favour me too much." But in my heart I echoed her wish, for Herbert Tempest was no favourite of mine. I knew well that Mrs. Holland thought more of me than she did of my sister Rose. Had I not as a baby been committed to her esp cial charge by my dying mother? And had she not always been uncea-ingly faithful to her trust? I turned away from her and ran out of the room, for I remembered that an hour at least must now have passed away since I had promised to join Rose in the garden. The nearer to the mountains, behind the purple successfully." each evening. The day was drawing to a that?" close, when I set forth across the lawn and among the shrubs which dotted it here and from my chair. there to find my sister Rose.

The lawn was green and soft as velvet, and a faint cool breeze fanned my cheeks. Opposite to me was the plantation, in the lirection of which Rose had sauntered when I saw her last. I raused beneath a tall firtree and looked round me. Not a living creature was in sight, save few parrots flitting backward and forwards ty. amongst the branches of the gum-trees. Two or three beds of scarlet geraniums and verbenas made bright dashes of colour among the vivid green of the turf, and I could distinguish the fragrant odour of the large magno'ia-tree trained against the side of the distinctly as if it were yesterday. Shutting communication to make to Miss Napine. my eyes I can see again that fair picture of Will you assist me with your presence?" summer cay; I dream of the roses which faded that summer, faded with the fairest rose of all, my "Queen Rose of the rosebud garden of gir's." Once I could not have Rose was standing before the great m'rror spoken of that evening; but it is so long and advance towards me. most distinctly without being observed my- privately?" self. I noted her tall beautiful figure with its queenly grace, her white hand clasping into a band of fire. I took heed of the long her clear complexion marvellously well; I

"Time brings such wondr us easing," that I can write of it quite calm'y now.

"A tress o' golden hair, O' drowned maiden's hair

Among the stakes on Dee."

Everything was very quiet; the distant | treated caressingly. We were very happy lowing of some cows in the paddock was the for a while; Cicely fretted about her faonly sound that broke the stillness of the ther's displeasure; but I persuaded Ler that tummer evening; but over the mountains, time would soften his resentment and his resplendent new with the purple and gold of cbduracy. I believed this myself, hoped en erged into the light and faded again into more extravagantly than our means warthe shadow of the trees as she walked on ranted. Cicely had never had a wish un- ed "Bazeilles.

the soft emera'd turf of the lawn. Had she I sold a few costly jewels, and bid my anxi- file.

dress. The horr ble truth dawned upon me dinner I went for a stroll, and, having saun- tain part of France—at the option of Prussia of the Holy Ghost in brilliants appraised at why not of religion, the most important of went to look well to-night, for Herbert is was lying at my feet shot through the carrying some flowers for my darling. The treaty of peace? "Closed, ever closed, those speaking eyes Where sweetness beamed, where candon

> Which music loved and called her own." Most girls in my situation would, I think, have made the lawn echo with their shrieks. did not-indeed I cannot cry out loudly when really frightened: I became for the time almost voiceless with terror. I dropned Rose's hand-fast growing cold-from that woman : she says she is your wife !'

As I was leaving, I turned and looked at my terror. her orce more. In that one startled glarce noticed that one of her long golden curls had fallen down, and lay trailing its loose splendid hair; I have seen cone like it land,

Her face was very calm and peaceful, and her eyes were the sweetest in the whole wrath world. I often wonder now, when I pra sed

"Had I fencies

From their glances That the grave would quickly screen Sweetest eyes were ever reen.'

It was a levely afternoon in the beginning lawn I ran, and round the corner of the Still no one was in sight, and I became half desperate at the profound stillness and apparent solitude of the house and its sur-

The room in which Mrs. Holland was sewing looked out on to the front approach to the Suddenly a curious impression of doubt it seemed to me as if I must be moving in a It was incredible, impossible, I thought, that Rose should still be lying there cold and motionless as I had left her, imploringly; but I could nniy kiss her again find that she had risen and walked away? That anything to awful as death, and such a sudden death, by some murderous and stealthy hand, should have befallen my garety as I had seen her only an hour or so had played me false-Tem, in whem I had my half-stunned, half-bewildered fancy, I had helped each other into many and out of I an away hastily, intending to dress for turned and hurried back again to the spot many a scrape. When he told me that he

the least; only her features were settling and the girl professed gratitude. During vaout of the pollor and right the real of the real of the pollor and right the real of the real o My hair, though with a ripple in it like lying just as before. She had not moved in I assisted him with money and advice, He forcible at first sight, general, but they will down into the pallor and rigidity of death, cation, at their earnest solicitation, I con- dence should be placed in gratitude, and The lovely mouth appeared to wear a dis- sented to go with them to the Highlands. especially that of a nation. One may bewith geranium coloured bows. I believe dainful mile, as if in scorn of the cruelmur. Here unexpectedly an old friend of Dun- lieve in the gratitude of a monarch, or the that I was rather a pretty girl in my way, derous hand which had lifted her at one combe's family discovered us; he smelt thankfulness of his family. There are even that something about her had changed dur- Marian was my wife. Thinking as I did thing is to be expected from a nation's gratabsent from her side. The ivory silk of her without hesitation. I knew the Scotch mar- people; if they had durable institutions, dress lay in the same rich disordered folds riage laws. Tom was wonderfully wary in and, like us Germans, respected them; i upon the grass, the forget-me-nots were still avoiding pitfalls. He had passed Marian off they had a sovereign well seated on his twined in her hair; but-yes-that was the as his sister until Sir Rufus appeared. throne, then we could, perhaps place faith in difference, The long golden curl which had When Sir Rufus was gone, the whole affair the gratitude of its emperor and in that of fallen loose and had lain in careless beauty was treated as a bagatelle. I was soon sum. his son. But for the last eighty years the In obedience to the call I went into the over her shoulder when I saw her last was moned to London to meet my father, and, changes of government have been so frequent been severed roughly and hastily from her The jagged edges of the hair upon her would. Cicely, shaken and ill, was in bed. neck showed that it had been cut away from I saw the woman alone. She vowed that she

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

Alaska Seal Skins.

During one week recently 950 casks of Alaska scal skins arrived here by the Penn- landlady expressed some alarm about Cicely, your opinion of the French people. France sylvania railroad. They, with 450 casks so I stayed with her all night. She was ra- is ready to proclaim fraternity among namore to come were going to London to be ther delirious; but, when morning came, tions. What has become for instance, of dressed for market. The consignment contained about 92,500 skins, and was valued at distress somewhat. I told her-Heaven for- and England? Are not the English our nearly $1,000 000. The cost of freight to bundles and pickled in salt. It requires my wife; but that, as it was in Marian Ty- lenting severity on your part. eight skins to make a full sack, and they have to be dressed and dyed by London furriers and then reshipped to this country.

ONE of the few surviving officers who closed all to Sir Percival. He was terribly fought under Napoleon the Great-General hard with me. He said that I had not only able to sign such a capitulation as you de-Dupleix—died about a fortnight ago at blighted my own life, but an innocent girl's, mand; we will therefore reopen hostilities. Passy. At the battle of Austerlitz he com- and probably my child's. I had wrecked Miss Cathie," she said, "the sunlight of this manded a battalion of the Old guard and my hopes. One thing he would do for me. think, for me to deliver the emperor's mes- his knife is to give him raw oys: ers. When sixty thousand dollars.

STAINLESS.

By the Author of "Sweet Dorothy Capel," Lettice," &c. TOLD BY DEBORAH CAREY.

Were you dull while we we were awa Letty speaks, but I notice that " Mr. Thorold !" I exclaim; and the bell He comes in, looking thin, worn, ill, singularly elate; looking-but it seems pesterous to say it-a younger man when he left us. I scan him with am: zcment; very heartily does he grip Will's hand and mine. We introduce him to Let After a few commonplaces, she disappears to superintend baby's toilet. "Have you been ill?' Will interrogates. "Yes, I have had a touch of low fever. have been to America since I was here." "Ay, it was coming back I was ill. Miss Deborah, I have come to beg you to go with As I write it all comes back to me as me to Ellerslie. I have a very important dead?"

> "The Squire is dead. Judith married, his desire, before he died." "Married," he groans dceply-" marric to Si'as Thornton! Judith-my daughter "Your daughter!" Will is on h's feet.

Who are you?'

excuse for my disobedience. We loved of being guilty of my father's death.' nor mine regarded this; we were constrain- innocence I thought of Kingsley's "Sands o' Die." ed therefore to take matters into our own hands-at least I was. We left our homes and married. I was three-and twenty, she a childish girl. Judith is like and yet un-Was never salmon yet, that shone so fair like her : Cicely had none of Judith's savoir faire. She was eminently a woman to be

"Some one is shooting at the parrots," I poverty till it stood at our threshold! I was Prussia demands our capitulation.

Napine had a lady with her. A wild idea not possibly be accepted.

" 'You are not Martin Napine's wife. mine, and, when she did not respond to my "I looked at the intruder; then great will readily understand the bitterness of my English sailor if he would aid him to es- preceding, correct acting, or practice. And letter. The hotheaded young priests are on each hind foot. No Singhalese eless are on each hind foot. We singhalese eless are on each hind foot. The hotheaded young priests are on each hind foot. agonized appeal, I set off at once to fetch drops stood out on my forehead. I shielded cruel was the ringing tone! 'Martin Na- ceed in forcing my way through your lines spree and hanged himself. Jamchund sold are all ast ay, or utterly ignored. pine, you dare not dony that you recognized or in defending myself in Sedan. heavy rings across her shoulder. It was Marian Tyler as your wife years ago in Scot- Gen. Moltke-I hold you in great esteem, St. Georges for £12.500, and Pitt had it cut | tice all in all." Why, in the very statement ries were crowding upon me. I was dizzy chances of making a succeesful sortic are very fragments split off were worth £3,000 or £4. can be correct with nothing to stand upon, with fear. Cicely raised herself in righteous slim. True, your troops are excellent; your 000. The stone was reduced in size to 1361 even the conviction that this course is right, scarlet-'a base, wicked lie!'

land summer. The sun was declining, and another corner, and found myself in the but my words were of no value; you were The rest will be in their respective positions that he had to write and publish a pamphlet then married to Tom Duncombe. "I was not. Tom never married me. It vince yourself as to the truth of my asser. the diamond to the duke of Orleans for suited our purpose to befool you; you were tions, I will allow one of your officers to in- $675,000. Curiously enough, however very strait-laced in those days. You would spect the positions occupied by my troops, Saint Simon tells us quite another storynot have given your bosom friend a third of As far as a desense of Sedan is concerned, that he induced the regent to buy it, and your income of you had imagined it was to that is impossible; you have provisions for that it was bought from a man who had support one who was not his wife. When only forty-eight hours, and your munitions stolen it in India, and who bought it the shipping and serving God. d Sir Rufus Grey met us in Scotland I saw have run out. a grand chance. Did not I tell you, with sobs, that we should be utterly ruined if he view, I think it would be more in your in- ment of the French crown." It was stolen conveyed word of me to Duncombe Hall : terest to accede to the homourable capitula- with the other crown diamonds in 1792, but and did not you, to save us, declare yourself | tion which the army I command has a right | recovered. Napoleon wore it in the pommel

I then became your legal wife.' "It was indeed so. Cicely looked at me vile creature. By dint of threats and remoastrances I managed this. She went, as-When once we were quit of her, I told Cice had wedded a pretty, poor girl, aud that he At the first glance I saw that she was dare not confess the rash act to his father. mischief, and would have spread disaster, occasions when the latter may be implicitly But, looking at her once again, I saw too had not I come forward and pretended that trusted in this respect. But. I repeat no-her in haste, and with a somewhat blunt in- would charge me with perjury unless I ac knowledged her or paid her to be silent. The former I would not do, the latter could not. After stormy recriminations, we parted. I resolved to go to my father, tell him what evil had befallen me, and implore his aid. I could not believe that he would forsake me in the hour of darkness. The was better. I succeeded in allaying her that inveterate hatred which divided France give me the lie-that such a marriage as best friends at present? Thus it will be that into which I had been inveigled could with Germany if you act generously, and be no marriage; that she and she only was dormant passions are not aroused by unreler's power to trouble me, I must go to my To this reasoning Count Bismark opposed father for counsel. She did not object. I his usual strong arguments, and concluded went to Napine. Shall I ever forget my re- by flatly refusing to grant other terms than ception? I did not see my mother. I dis- those he had at first proposed mother would cherish her; it was better complete a submission, and that he coshe should be at Napine than Ellersie. I accordingly grant the French army left one line for my mother, besetching her to be good to my darling, and then, not pect for its ocurage. waiting for her-she was paying visits-I Count Bismarck-Which award did left, to hurry to the side of her whom I lov- emperor surrender? His own or that of

went to Petre, only to find when there that Count B.
I could not go any farther till the early our terms. ere I got home. Ah me! When I entered vantage of your first offer, general, our apartments I knew the worst that could send an officer to view those for come to me had come. Cicely was dying; positions of yours. When he returns I will and she died clinging to me. But why need decide whether to accept or reject pain you with my grief? They told me terms. that I had a little daughter. What cared Gen. M .- It is useless to do that. You I? My carling had flown to Paradise. The have but little time left for reflection, it bewhite rigid figure they took from me was ing now midnight. The armistice is over at not Cicely. I went into the streets, wild, 4 o'clock. As I walked along, notices on Gen. W .- You must, however, under the walls referring to emigration, shipping, stard that I cannot take so important a step etc., attracted my attention, and I resolved upon my own responsibility. I must first what I would do, I sold my watch and chain, and that night sailed from the London docks for New York. Do you consider that was heartless to leave Cicely auburied? I accounted myself her murdeter, and fled from the land of my crime. When we reach-The result is known. ed New York I was ill for several weeksso ill that I rese from my bee of sickness an old man. I heard nothing of my father's murder. I stayed some time in America;

"But Lady Napine beleved you to be "Yes, and the story of ny death was s'n-"Yes," I respond d ffidently, "but Juto le partners. Exceedingly well we did afterwards I wandered north, south, east,

[TO BE CONTINUED.]

AT SEDAN.

FRENCH DISASTER.

From a New Freich Pamplilet.)

servant who admitted me told me that Mrs. Gen. Moltke declared these terms could 000; another of brilliants and sapphires Why? They may give any reason they like, of 140,000 men, and 500 cannons, of which while so many stories were invented as to persistent quotation of Pape's silly

Gen. W .- Even from a political point of was thereafter literally"the brightest orna quently the most grateful for any considera- diamond had a more singular and interesting between France and Prussia. Count Bismarck-Your arguments seem from then until the moment I beheld Marian | that for a neighbouring power to build hopes imagine that France could ever forgive us our victories; you are an irritable, and envious, a jealous, and a proud people. have always made war upon us out jealousy, and this time you attacked us because you were envious of our victory at Sadowa, although that victory cost you no thing. And you would forgive us for the disaster of Sedan? Never!

Gen. Wimi ffen-Well, I am totally un-Gen. Castelnau-The time has come I condition alone—that I went abroad. I con. surrendered his sword and his person in the fork and some clear soup.

traggists and Their Charges bial Jow. To others, and above all to themmuch abused race. Periodical persecutions Gen. C.—His own, only. Gen. W. to Gen. Moltke-I will take adsecutions of the early Christians, or Jews of the Middle Ages; and though not so sanrainary, are in their own way quite terrible.

Soda Biborate, 1 drachm.

fen's answer until 9 o'clock the next morn-

The French Crown Jewels.

MAGNIFICENT GEMS-RIVALLING KOH-I NOOR-MINOR VALUABLE STONES -THERE ARE MILLIONS IN IT.

23.000 per cent, the druggist feeling himself The cable brings news that at the next justified in charging 25 cents. "No wongu'ar. Australia was a likely place. I went meeting of the French chambers a bill will der" thought the reporter, "that so many there. On my road I fel in with a young be introduced, providing for the sale of the go into the business." The lowest charge, more the scents of that dead and gone summer cay; I dream of the roses which summer cay; I dream threw us much together. We fraternised. as are merely valuable from their intrinsic Fifth Avenue Hotel. This would hardly ten years. Advices from different districts We had both a few pourds, and we agreed worth. The stones about which there is a have been expected. If a similar experi- in Japan, announces that only about four "I down believe yer did." history, or which are of interest to students ment were tried in Toronto, we trust that hundred and fifth thousand cartons will be "Now, Ant'ny, ez a stugent an' a man made money fast. He thought and talk of such subjects, will be placed in one of the our own druggists would come through the manufactured this year, and, as a consider, scince, didn't yer run again a post ed of going home. I had to go a few days' national museums, but those brought to the ordeal in a manner very much more credit- able quantity will be required for home use, knock dem teef out?" ourney into the country, and was away a hammer will doubtless real ze some $2,000,- able to themselves, and satisfactory to it is expected that the cards available for ortnight. When I returned he was dead coo, a sum which will be a godsend to the others. Making all possible allowances for exportation will real ze very remunerative "I am Martin Napine. Nay, do not look and buried. Word had been sent to my department of fine arts. There will be a the druggist being a professional man, and, prices. At last, after a few me ments' waiting, I at me as if I were a leper or madman. I am mother that I was dead and buried. My favourable opportunity offered to American therefore, justified in charging for his sersaw my sister emerge from the shadow of accused of a hideous crime, of being a parrithe trees at the opposite end of the lawn cide; but my hands are as clean as yours. and likenesses had been forwarded to Eng. been formidable competitors in the jewel no excuse for prices being extortionate. Of Misfortune, mischance, has dogged me for land I was astonished. Very zealcus had markets of Europe,—to secure sp'endid dia-I do not think she saw me; she came on many years, but I have not stained my title the meddlers been. However, I let the monds at reasonable prices, for the sales of such profits as those this reporter scented I do not think she saw me; she came on many years, but I have not stained my title the meddlers teen. However, I let the meddlers teen. Howeve As I look back at the se old days the years stood among the fir-trees I could see her before the public. Do you care to hear it the old country. Later I felt a strange desire to see my daughter. I could not over- their own way. From 1476 till 1774 the charges are often much higher than they come it. I gave into it, and embarked for number of diamonds formally inventoried as need be. Whether the custom of paying "Shut your doors and sit down; it is a my native land. I adopted another name belonging to the crown was 7,482, and they heavy percentages to dectors be a common Rese was tall and beautifully formed, her garden hat. The sunlight caught the long sad story, and will need patient hearner garden hat. The sumight caught the land and should be given up. defiance of his commands, I married Cicely altered beyond recognition fortunately, I brilliants were all the rage for buttons, The dectors surely make enough by their trailing ivory silk draperies, which became Ellerslie. I loved her; that is my only thought, when I found that I was suspected buckles, and sword-hilts, so that when Louis professional fees without trying to secure XVI. came to the throne he had 9,547 dia- more in a second-hand sert of a way. could almost discern the forget-me-nots in each other sincerely, but neither her people "Were you not anxious to proclaim your monds of all sizes. August 16, 1792, just as they think they have a right to more than the the convention had concluded the work of usual charges, let them openly insist on more. taking a new inventory, a band of forty but not seek to make druggists their collect thieves broke into the house, Place Louis ing agents, or instruments of extortion. XIV., where the jewels were stored, and carried most of them off. Two of the thieves were caught, but the others escaped, Principal Cavern on Dogmatic Preachand could not be found. How the jewe's were restored no one seems to know precise-

Had our space permitted we should gladly ly. According to one story, Lamieville, a barber, who had been sentenced to death for have given a very full report of the lecture years ago. coining, but had escaped from the Concier- delivered by Principal Caven at the opening The following conversation (somewhat ab- gerie, purchased his pardon, and a commission of Knox College on Wednesday last. the sunset, he vered a cluster of thick dark it most earnestly, as the weeks went on. I breviated in the translation), which took in a regiment of the line, by revealing to an was an exceedingly clearable and timely described in the translation. clouds, possibly the precursors of a coming had not much money; my father had vowed place between Count B smarck, Gen. Molt official who had treated him kirdly, the fact cussion of a very important and interesting to cut me off without the proverbial shil- ke, and Gen. de Wimpffen prior to the sur- -which he had accidentally overheard- question, and showed very distinctly, that the Rose advanced very slowly; her figure ling. We had expensive lodgings, and lived render of Sedan, is taker from a forthcom- that the thieves had hidden their plunder in outcry against dogma, as d in favour of the ing pamphlet by M. Georges Bastard, entitl- the hollow of a beam in a lonely house till practical, in preaching, is simply about the ardour of pursuit had abated. Accord- urational and without excuse. That in short gently. Suddenly a sharp report broke the gratified, and I had hitherto given the reins Gen. Wimpffen-I am anxious to know ing to another story, however, the fact that there can be no ground for practical preaching. to my tastes. Therefore we thought not of upon what terms his majesty the king of the diamonds were hidden in a hole dug in or anything like practical well doing, unless an alleyway of the Champs Elysees was re- it is versed on dogma, or in other words, or forced to see that our halcyon days could Gen. Moltke- They are very simple. He vealed to the government by an anonymous fact, or what is supposed to be such. Indeed But almost as quickly as the idea passed not continue; I was nearly penniless. I had desires your whole army to be surrendered, letter. At any rate, most of the stones were it is not only in religion, but in every other across my mind I saw my sister put her written pleading letters to my father and with arms and baggage. As a mark of sp recovered. After the XVIII. Brumaire department of life and work, that there thought of her marriage, and of her settling hand to her side, spring forward a step or mother, letters which had believed, down into a redate matron at the age of two, and fall upon her face, her silken opened. I was at my wits' end. I w draperies making a rich confused heap upon a hamed to beg, and I was not used to work. remain prisoners of war, like the rark and in consolidating his power; when he re- correct or intelligent conduct. One man deemed it, it went into the pommel of his says, not, "obey God," but "Obey the law," some workmen were engaged about half a fainted? Or what terrible accident had ely from Cicely. She was in very delicate Gen. W.—There terms are hard, indeed, sword, and is still in the collection. In 1810 and unless he be an absolute fool, he bases mile east from Fort William in deepening health, needing much care and attention. general. It seems to me that after the cour- his inventory showed that the crown was this advice or command which he gives, up- the dam which supplies the Nevis Distillery "honnes" to present him, upon his we I was by Role's side in a few moments. I thought, if we could tide over this period, age it has displayed, the French army delarge shell in a complete state. It was em-She lay just as she had fallen, with her face and if a little son should be bestowed on us, serves better treatment than that. Would stones, and a value of 18,922,477 frs., or about ought to have weight. "Obey, or I shall large shell in a complete state. It was emit to Thomas Pitt, governor of the Fort of "Opinion is nothing" cry some, "pracand I fully appreciate your position; but into a fine brilliant, the operation taking two of such a thing, he is enunciating dogma as "I answered not. A thousand memo- yet I cannot acquiesce to your request. Your years' time and costing £5,000, but the he understands it, and how a man's practice crack infantry regiments are excellent; your carats-the Koh-i-Noor is 1021-but became and that other wrong, for that too is dogma, "'It is a lie,' she said, her gentle face cavalry is bold and hardy, and your artillery and continues to this day, the most perfect passes any reasonable comprehension, and its is well served and has done much damage. brilliant in existence, being without a rival cuckoo repitition by many who fancy them "Is it? the intruder returned. "Ask But, on the other hand, a great portion of as to shape and water. The diamond came selves authorities, intimates a depth of folly your infantry is demoral zed, and we have near killing its new owner with anxiety. So as ame zing as it is inexplicable. We com-doubtful whether the odds are not in favour while drunk, will treat their charge at J. G. Sing, "Heaven help me! I loosened my loving taken 30,000 unwounded prisoners! You fearful was he of robbery that he never made mend to all such, Dr. Caven's, clear, and of its adoption. An English officer relates cifully, and the elephant itself is an aminion and prisoners! You fearful was he of robbery that he never made of its adoption. An English officer relates cifully, and the elephant itself is an aminion and prisoners! You fearful was he of robbery that he never made of its adoption. clasp, and broke down. All her tender at- have only 80,000 men remaining, and with known beforehand his intention of travelling, cogent reasoning, and ask them for their own how, an lakermann, soon after the French which bears grudges—the result being surveyor, Draughtsman and Valuator. fection was astir; she soothed me. At them you will not be able to cut through our or the route he would take, and never slept sakes, and in order to keep up their self re- had come to relieve the English, the men of had come to relieve the English, the men of had come to relieve the English, the men of had come to relieve the English, the men of had come to relieve the English, the men of had come to relieve the English, the men of had come to relieve the English, the men of had come to relieve the English, the men of had come to relieve the English, the men of had come to relieve the English. I turned and hurried away. Across the length I put her aside and confronted my lines, I have surrounded you with an army consecutively two nights in the same house, spect to drop the nonsense implied in the the two nationalities became badly mixed later killed. of December, the early part of our New Zea- house; then, seeing no one, I darted round "It is true that I said you were my wife, 300 are already pointed against the city. The way in which he had obtained the stone "For forms of taith let graceless zealots fighting. A young French porte-dropeau to-morrow morning. If you want to con- giving its history. In 1717 he disposed of He can't be wrong whose life is in the shouted, 'Au drapeau mes garcons!'

As a man really not professedly thinks, so is

B. Young's Widows.

rough. Whatever the truth, the Regent found at a small shop in Hungary.

dress is the husk of the body, but the husk or woman of sense would devote more care or attention to the husk than to the kernel

Thirteen of the widows of Brigham Young my has band? Yes; by the laws of Scotland to expect. You undoubtedly wish to conclude of his sword, but lost it at Waterloo, whereof still live in the Lion House at Salt Lake. an early peace. France being the most gen- the Prussians looted his carriage; after the Their shares of the estate were $21,000 each crous and chivalrous of nations, is conse- peace it was restored to France. The Sancy according to the will, but by threatening litigation they obtained about $10,000 more tion shown it. If you grant such terms as history attached to it. It was a brilliant of They receive, however, only the income will flatter the vanity of the army, the 54 carats, and is said to have been from their property; but that is sufficient whole nation will thereby feel flattered. The worn by Charles the Bold as a talisman. to give them excellent fare in the old home, bitterness of defeat will be diminished in the When he was killed by a Swiss halberdier at with servants, horees, and $75 a month in eyes of the people, and peace once conclud- the lattle of Nancy, January, 1477, a scldier money. Louise, one of the daughters of the ed under such favourable circumstances will who stripped the corpse sold the diamond Prophet by Emeline Fee, the most intel offer every guaranty of durability. By pur- to a priest for 21 france, the priest disposing lectual and intelligent of the wives, says suing your rigorous measures, however, you of it at a profit of 12 cents. It passed over that all of her full brothers and sisters have suing your rigorous measures, however, you of it at a profit of 12 cents. It passed over will surely excite anger and hatred in the to the King of Portugal, who pawned it to Voung's forty-seven children are Mormons. breasts of our soldiers . . . and you risk kindling the flame of an interminable war afterward buying it outright for $100,000.

One of his descendants sent it by a faithful she says: "We lived very happily. My servant to raise funds upon its pledge for father's ruling hand had a good deal to do the gentlemen in question, that they are not the assistance of Henry IV., but the servant with it. He taught us to love one another. placed on duty simply to be looked at, or to sion, and killed. The king felt sure that the the parlor, where we had prayers and sing. and civil directions to hesitating strangers. servant would never have parted with the ing. People have often asked me how in Nor is every little disturbance between ha'ftreasure, even in death, and had his body the world father knew all his children and drunken rowdies, incapable of doing much opened, when the stone was recovered. wives, but I can tell you if a single one was injury to themselves or to other people, the James II., of England, into whose hands it missing at prayers he knew it, and found out only occasion on which their presence and passed, afterward sold it to Louis XIV. for where he or the was. Our houses were like assitance may become in any wise niedful. £25,009. It was stolen in 1792, with the a great hotel, and we the guests. Our father Nor are servant girls, who steal petticoats Regent, and, after its recovery, sold by the was a great manager, and very practical in from their mistresses, or newsboys whose duchess of Berry to the D. miloffs. Count superintending his household affairs. Our mouths water for the cool and soothing Paul Demideff lost it, while at a fancy rooms opened on to a long hall, like the one melon, and whose consciences are not as yet from a monastic account-book of the YAL HOTEL. ball given by Count Walewski, but it was in the hotel here, but larger, and when we sufficiently developed to permit quite accu- Henry VIII. The items bring vivid found again, and, we believe, finally disposed wanted anything from sisters, brothers, or rate distinctions being made between meum fore us the abundant and excellent in £20,000. The famous "Blue Diamond," will." stolen in 1792, never was heard of again Grass Stain Removed. would be sheer madness; it would be nobleman, who still owns it. The fate of I thought grass stain was hopeless. have asked experienced people several times the city, that as soon as there is any real flame of a new cookery. Die corporations and from all trains. if anything would take the stain of green need for a policeman, there are none to Apud Boston. Flyrst Course. els, known as "the Mazarines," from the gaining the desired information until within fact that they were cut at the cardinal's or-Twelve diamonds of the French crown jewthe last month. Lo! boiling water will re- in fact making quite a lengthened wys, (baken Capons.) Custardy der, vanished mysteriously during the revomove the colour. Pour boiling water tour of observation in search of a blue-coat- damask, fruttes. A Suttelty. lution 1830, but turned up as mysteriously at through the stain and it sets the green col- ed protector, but without success. There Course. Cremball to Madrid, three years ago, when King Alfonso was purchasing jewels for his first wife. it on a large stain upon the front of my little for some time back. Nothing has been done byttes. Yerwhelps, leche viall. As new edition of Dr. Culvergirl's white dress, and easily removed every of any account. One or two fellows may te. Thyrd Course. Clere jelly to P well's Celebrated Essay Queen Merccdes, and it was only the other day that some black pearls, stolen from the trace of the grass, rubbing it a little in the have been arrested on suspicion, but that is Cranc bettern, ffesande, Knotter dical and permanent cure (without Dyspepsia for about Austrian crown in the last century, were hot water. Grass stain, after washing with about the last anyone hears of it. Much soap-suds, makes a dirt-coloured mark, and more determined and persevering efforts remains an ugly blot on children's white should be made than have hitherto been put luxurious dinner on a fish day, which st., resulting from excesses. WAGNER'S gout is the music of the pre-

> A FRENCHMAN named Aune has made ex-THE body is the shell of the soul and the periments on himself with regard to the efoften indicates what the kernel is. No man statement that one may absorb 100 litres, grandest in Europe, that rises from the Mol-vant girls are at the bottom of much of the Rost ele. ffreche porposse. Crabbe rivately and radically, but from the possession of great and true dan, and towers over Prague. The gift of mischief. The "boys in blue" should not the Vienness nobles to the Prince is to te an allow their faculties to be dimmed by being THE only way to cure a man of eating with album of Austrian paintings, costing about brought too strongly under female influence

SPAIN, with only 17,000,000 of inhabitas does Italy with 28,000,000 of inhabitants. patch four officers to Senegal to organize formation o' three new posts I ey ond Medina, t is with no surprise, therefore, that we a'most universal in Ch. The poorest hear of a very virulent persecution taking household has, wherever secticable, its pert place in New York. A reporter has been cock and three or four lean hens, which stalk naking certain domiciliary visits, leading to hungrily in and out of the mud shanty in rather remarkable discoveries. He took search of snything estable that no one else with him the following prescription, and set of the family may happen to be able to digest. On the 11th of January, 1867, there ex-charged as follows, and from the price at the number of daily journals sold at one son desk. which borax can be bought in New York, each amounts to seventeen, or exactly the "Yes, sir," he calculated the percentage of profit the number of daily newspapers existing in 1867. several druggists probably made. At one Among the recent discoveries of valuable dir' ter de flosofy what I'se been sty Each Subrequent Insertion. works in the library of the Convent of yer can't tetch nothin'. Das is air t profit of nearly 9,600 per cent.; at another Monte Cassino is a freatise written by one my han an de table. Et my han to the space occupied measured by a scale of the first disciples of S. Thomas Aquinas. detable htwould stick dar. Now lake solid brevier. Advertisements without 77 W another, 20 cents, with a profit of 19.060 per This may be said to form the first traditional Aut'hy." and the prisoner turned to specific directions will be published till forlink of the Thomistic doctrines. The sut- "is ver gwin to put yerrelf in such a bid and charged accordingly. All transitory ject is the "Creation of the World;" and ent light? Yer's been a stugent to be advertisements must be in the office of pab-

ALL reports from France and Italy agree of L'tile Rick ter de groun'? Now, (24)

THE forthcoming number of the Geogra- cd man, won't yer withdraw dis case pend OFFICE -- Medical Hall; residence at phisch Mittheilungen contains Dr. Regel's agin me, in which yerself is de sant farkdale House. account of a trip from Kuldja to Turfan, in plainter, an' in what I is de scientific Markdale, Sept. 17, 1880. Chinese Turkestan, which no European dent?" traveller appears to have visited since tury. The new town consists of two fortresses, inhabited by several thousand Tar- the two men wen down together, "Fr antchis, Dungans and Chinese. It lies in the de men of science would hang tergedde 3arrister at Law, - Owen Soun midst of the desert, its fields being irrigated way, dar wouldn't be half de trouble at OFFICE. by water conveyed through underground easiness in de worl'." canals from the foot of the Thianshan.

THE Unione has the following information from Rome :- "The monument of the holy memory of Pius IX., which the Cardinals nominated by him have agreed to erect, will be placed in the Confession of the Basilica of Santa Maria Maggiore. The monument compassionated, if we may believe the cretofore. will cost the sum of 60,000 francs. The counts of Mr. Juchar zeff's sojearn it LLFRED FROST. number of cardinals contributing to it is recently published by a St. Petersburger fifty-one." It may be remembered that the | al. This eminent malefactor, knownthm Confession of this Basilica is that which was out Russia by the significant soubron so beautifully restored with the richest "The Stealer of Millions," has contribe marbles by the late Pontiff over twenty retain possession of the enormous fortun

DIVORCES are becoming alarmingly freuent in Switzerland, and according to lately published statistics, there are relatively more divorced people in Switzerland than in any other civil zed country. Experienced dvecates say that among the working classes of towns it is quite a common thing for ike each other. If the result is satisfactory they go on living together as long as it may lease them; if not, an interview with a lawyer and an application to the Tribunal Civil, which in ordinary cases costs only a Krasnojarsk. His dinner parties areat Money loaned at lowest rates on personal few francs, releases them from their ed by the chief official personages and id real estate. Lands bought and sold

THE Glasgow Herald states that while did presents with which he judiciously hidden. She had not moved since. With Cicely in person should ask that we might not the following terms be acceptable to three and three-quarter millions of dollars. put you in prison: "or "I shall cut your bedded in the moss, and was found to be some difficulty I raised her lead, calling be recalled from banishment. I cheered my- you: The surrender of the town of Sedan Louis XVIII. took another inventory after head off;" You will find yourself very miser- lifteen inches in diameter, and weighed piteously to her to tell me what was the self with the vision of reinstatement, not with all its artillery; the French army, in- the Restoration, when there were enumerated able " &c. &c. Why, all that is dogma- about one hundred pounds. The powder dreaming of the ava anche about to destroy cluding the emperor and his generals, to be 64,000 stones and objects, weighing 18,751 Fifty other reasons may be given for the was quite fresh looking, only the portion of She did not reply; her face was very the beauty of our home for ever. I remem- allowed to retire with its arms, its baggage, carats and valued at $4,180,052. The obedience required, and every one of them it near the fuse being damp. The fuse itwhite, and, oh, what dreadful mystery was ber vividly my last day of lightheartedness. and its colours, upon the condition of not crown, which contains the Regent diamond would be of the same character. The same self was burned out. The shell is supposed this? In her breast was a little wound, and I had sat with Cicely all the morning, serving against Prussia during the present and 5,360 other stones, is valued at $2,940,. thing is true of every practical advice or to be one of those fired from the fort in a tin red stain upon the ivory silk of her touch ing up some sketches of hers. After war; that army to be transferred to a cer- 400; there is a sword worth $48,140; an order command which could be thought of. And April, 1746, at a battery raised by "Prince Charlie's" men at the Craigs, within five and struck me almost to stone. My sister to ed nound the park, strode homewards, -or to Algeria, until the conclusion of the Legion of Honour all as well? "Be good," "be kind, "te hundred yards of the fort. It was found in worth $90,000; a set of pearls valued at $233,- sweet," "be generous" many are crying, a straight line with the fort and the battery. An Irish correspondent to the Manchester elephants there live about 130 years, County of Grey, worth $56,000, etc., etc. The famous Regent, but whatever they may happen to urge, that Courier writes concerning the land league: "come of age" at 40. There are three a seized mc-my mother! I stole neiselessly Gen. Wimpffen-I have just arrived from or "Pitt," diamond ranked fifth in the will be their dogma just as much as all those _. The Roman Catholic bishops, as a body, of them in the same heads, and when the last least as much as all those _. The Roman Catholic bishops, as a body, of them in the same heads, and when the last least least

What words did I hear? Surely I was but now, in the midst of an engagement, I za which stands unapproachably alone in ta. The true order both in theory and practice which grow to the largest size interest yearly to suit Borrowers. but now, in the midst of an engagement, I za which stands unspiroachably alone in suddenly intrusted with the command of size at the head of the list is really a white tice, with everything, whether politics, mered by the bishops. Many of the priests, leighteen toes, five on each of the bind is for Sale. Mortgages bought and an army and find myself involved in a disas- topaz, colour being lent to the suspicion by chandizing, or social life—is first, correct however, I believe, take the life bishops. State the head of the hind a pt. 17, 1880. trous capitulation, of which I am forced to the fact that the Portuguese government re- thinking, or the reception of dogma, doctrine not get into worse hands, and that by their Those which grow to a medium sizil "I burst in. Cicely, with a great cry, bear the whole responsibility. I have not fuses to allow it to be inspected. In the position they may regulate the proceedings seventeen toes, five on each of the first seventeen toes, five on each of even had the satisfaction of directing the rough this jewel weighed 410 carats. A slave to call it! Then secondly, correct feeling, of the local organization and take legitimate and four on one hind foot, and three or a " Martin, Martin, she screamed, stop battle which preceded this capitulation. You found it near Wazulipatam in 1702, and hard other. The least size of elephant has UER of Marriage Licenses, Fire who like myself are a general commander, ing it in a gash cut in his leg offered it to an the natural and necessary result of the two ship, some of which I may give in my next teen toes, five on each fore foot, and life Insurance Agent. Commission lot. It lies in your power to lessen the gall care. The sailor got the stone and threw the the man would be a fool (though there are generally those who use the violent language, has a fewer number than sixteen toes ioneer for the County of Grey. Farmers my darling's face, afraid that she would see by granting more honorable terms. For my the Hindoo overboard, drowning him; then many such, who fancy themselves wise) who and when they go the length of telling the mahout, or elephant driver, rules his hands, and Land Sales, Punctually part I cannot accept the terms you demand. sold it to a merchant named Jamchund for could even expect the practice to be what it tenants not to pay their rents there is little phant by means of an iron hook, with # to and charges made very moderate. "I am his wife! Oh, how pitiless and By appealing to my army I shall either suc- £1,000, wasted the money in a gigantic ought to be, while the thinking and feeling doubt the mass of the people are indoctrin- he touches a most sensitive part behinderville, Sept. 17, 1880. "A good many military authorities are," to become submissive. When Mr. 6 George Corbet, Jr.,

a London journal states, "in favour of the was in Kandy, on elephant which had ND, LOAN AND GENERAL AGENT abolition of regimental colors. The cry was ed its keeper, and which had been sowen Sound. Money to Loan at low started after the Isandlana disaster, and has the head before it could be captured, hof interest. Principal payable at the again been raised since the Khusk-i Nakhud undergo the operation of having the fastern of years, and interest half year- a short time affair. It is by no means certain that these extracted, which was performed by thearly, or principal and interest repay authorities are in ht. There is, of course, tive doctors, the elephant lying on instalments nothing perfect in this world, and the use of down while the mahout kept his bor A number of desirable Improved Farms the flag has doubtless its drawbacks; but, this sensitive part. The elephant die putting one thing against another, it is are a drunken set of men, and some Euglish officers took the hint, and directed their men to rally around the English standard, and the confusion was quickly at an flag as a rallying point is evident."

"Guardians of the Peace." (From the Toronto Truth.) proud of them, and if Hamilton, or London, or any other city in Her Majesty's Loyal cent set of civic dignitaries, then no one will hesitate to do daughty battle for the honour of Toronto. They fitly represent the grandeur of that Law which should ever be a terror to the multitude of evil doers, while at the same time it shows it elf a praise to such as do well. All sensible people rejo'c same time, we may venture gently to hint to of, in 1855, to Sir Jamsetjee Je-jeebhoy for wives, we went into this room or that at and tuum, the only culprits whom the citi- vided in these monastic establishment McGIRR, zers . f Toronto would be glad to see in du- perusal of the list of dainties here should be done, but not to the leaving other things, fully as important, undone. Now much-mistaken monks, fanned the work Cligary and Liquors and the best bottle of your Indian I there is a very prevalent understanding in of a nascent literature, and cherishof Cigars. ouring matter loose, rinsing it away. I tried have been too many burglaries in Toronto Schuffard. peyons. Baken Veneson we have recently published a forth to bring bolder and more unscrupulous on the same page, is not assigned ice, in a sealed enveloped felons to justice. There are other [iniqui precise date, but was certainly served two postage stamps. might profitably be looked after. We do are afraid of anything serious, or that any Baken Breme. Trench. of them are in league with the criminals, as Suttelt, e. Second Course. Creme on of this pointing out a mode of THE true wealth of a community lies in the integrity of its citizens, and its chief honor Austria is to be an ancient castle, one of the There may be truth in the suspicion that ser-

PRESIDENT GREVY, who is shooting in the A MAN being tormented by corns, kicked the shooting on the estates is let at CULVERWELL MEDICAL CO., For this exploit Napoleon decorated him on babe should live, of that also; but on one surrendered his sword and his person in the fork and the pane profit, and but a limited portion kept to a man or that person in the sussion he said:—Suppose you give him a Jura, has received a present from the Prince his foot through a window, and the pane profit, and but a limited portion kept to be a present from the Prince his foot through a window, and the pane profit, and but a limited portion kept to be a present from the Prince his foot through a window, and the pane profit, and but a limited portion kept to be a present from the Prince his foot through a window, and the pane profit, and but a limited portion kept to be a present from the Prince his foot through a window, and the pane profit, and but a limited portion kept to be a present from the Prince his foot through a window, and the pane profit, and but a limited portion kept to be a present from the Prince his foot through a window, and the pane profit, and but a limited portion kept to be a present from the Prince his foot through a window, and the pane profit, and but a limited portion kept to be a present from the Prince his foot through a window, and the pane profit, and but a limited portion kept to be a present from the Prince his foot through a window, and the pane profit, and but a limited portion kept to be a present from the Prince his foot through a window, and the pane profit, and but a limited portion kept to be a present from the Prince his foot through a window, and the pane profit, and but a limited portion kept to be a present from the Prince his foot through a window, and the pane profit, and but a limited portion kept to be a present from the pane profit will be a present from the pane profit. of Wales of a gun and four beautiful setters. | was instantly gone,

"I doesn't plead at ell. I isn't ger. Yer can't ketch me wid yer pint "Look out, you impudent rates you guilty or not guilty?" "Now yer's gettin' at de facks. nonour ter state dat I 's not guiliy." "Yis he is, Jedge," exclaimed He hit me in de mout wid his fist." "I neber tetched de man." "Didn't you bit him in the "No, sah ; I didn't put my han' "Judge, I swear on de bigges"

Sq. as ordered. isted only seventeen daily newspapers in moah eddycation mong de nig.

This means that he was to get one drachm of Paris, while on the let of September, 1880, white folks dar wouldn't be have ordinary borax, powdered in all probability, there were sixty-one daily newspapers in in de courts. Is my han' tetchin' die tal and use as he had been told. He was circulation. Another curious fact is that Jedge?" And he placed his hand on it is now published, with notes, and dedition by 11 o'clock on the Thursday to Cardinal Zieliars. ter add yer weight to holin' de cullud be courts of dis lan' ain't technicum got ter stantiate de charge. Re

"Viewin' this sul jeck in a scientific believe I did.' "An' now, Ant'ny, as a stugent an' slee

"Yes, I will. Jedge, dis man tele-"Dat was " kly right," said Simme ment to Siberia is on that account blesherton, Office open every Thursday, as acquired by high-class swindling. W condemned to deportation, he travelle N. B.—Office at Markdale, over W. J. M. residence by the imperial authorities princely style, attended by a suite of vants, carriages and horses, and it work pear that he is to become the leade ARRISTER and ATTORNEY-AT-LAW fashion in that Siberian city. Tailors, Master in Chancery, Owen Sound fumers and tobacconists advertise bept, 17, 1880. wares under his name : he has been elea member of the leading club, and tal to contract an alliance with a young TTORNEY-AT-LAW, SOLICITOR belonging to one of the first families Chancery, Notary Public, &c. nobilities; ladies of the best society to yer and seller introduced free of commis his evening receptions, and accept theton roses. Altogether, for a convicted m meanant, undergoing sentence of but thods of flagellation at their com

were going to succeed in "coer him. There is great power evident passive resistance. What may be the outcome of the trouble, it is imposit say. Turkey may, even yet, con e of than by breaking his neck, is certain unes to his keeping, suffered total mended to and carefully executed. One Bundred and Th'rty Years of Larkdale, Sept. 17, 1880 The Rev. Mr. Collins, a naturalist, to F. McRae. ty-five years resident in Ceylon, says EAL ESTATE AGENT, DURHAM seized mc—my mother! I stole neiselessly up-stairs, halted noiselessly at the drawing-room door. No, it was not her voice. The wind and by destrict the deserts of Africa. Till the present molist of the world's precious stones, though the deserts of Africa. Till the present molist of the world's precious stones, though the deserts of Africa. Till the present molist of the world's precious stones, though the deserts of Africa. Till the present molist of the world's precious stones, though the deserts of Africa. Till the present molist of the world's precious stones, though the deserts of Africa. Till the present molist of the world's precious stones, though the deserts of Africa. Till the present molist of the world's precious stones, though the deserts of Africa. Till the present molist of the world's precious stones, though the deserts of Africa. Till the present molist of the world's precious stones, though the deserts of Africa. Till the present molist of the world's precious stones, though the deserts of Africa. Till the present molist of the world's precious stones, though the deserts of Africa. Till the present molist of the world's precious stones, though the deserts of Africa. Till the present molist of the world's precious stones, though the deserts of Africa. Till the present molist of the world's precious stones, though the deserts of Africa. Till the present molist of the world's precious stones, though the deserts of Africa. Till the present molist of the world's precious stones, though the deserts of Africa. Till the present molist of the world's precious stones, though the deserts of Africa. Till the present molist of the world's precious stones, though the deserts of Africa. Till the present molist of the world's precious stones, the deserts of Africa. Till the present molist of the world's precious stones, the deserts of Africa. Till the present molist of the world's precious stones, the deserts of Africa. Till the present molist of the world's precious stones, the deserts of Africa. The world m flying colours, after setting all her wor reformers by the ears. The Sultan very well that th se Europe n p wers icalous of one another as drawing-room tant to Dr. Cameron, Owen Sound ties, and that by a little judiciors firsLL BE AT THE REVERE HOUSE he can at any rate hold his own. I Markdale, on the last Wednesday probably the very game he is playingonth, when he will be prepared to pers proposition here, and a proposition ! operations required upon the mouth he keeps up the appearance of beint most satisfactory manner, and upon much alarmed by such a display of the terms. come to any reasonable unierstal cord, which may prove too much in # == trying to "coerce" a fox in any other imposing spectacle. The for's gaing leased the above hotel and thou course, is naturally to try and et t refurnished and refitted it, the trav one another's throats in order to lublic will find every accommodation that important part of his own anator the best of liquors and cigars kept. Bill of Fare in a Monaster, JOHN VAN HORN, Proprietor

All these things, of course. will at least satisfy us that in the W accommodation for the travelling precise date, but was certainly serves we postage stamps.

the number of the "me ses" being so learned author, in this admirable the number of the "me ses" being so learned author, in this admirable op and Lyman, No. 21 the foot: Ffyche, fyrst course. Section practice, that alarming control of the fysche. Buttes & place. ffreshe Salmon. The beradically cured without the Healing Syrup, an Engl

THE Argyll is a thrifty Sot;

Markdale Standard IS PUBLISHED FRIDAY MORNING hat he Lies Pareign and Provincial News, Local Intellgience, County Business, Comercial Matters and an Instructive

$1.25 in advance, $1.50 in three months

tions until they comply with the rules. "Now, look a heah," said Simm RATES OF ADVERTISING

Bin to ten lines, first insertion. Each subsement insertion "Dar's whar yer's off. Case why? Over ten lines, first insertion per line

> C. W. RUTLEDGE, Proprietor. PRUFESSIONAL & BUSINESS

- DIRECTORY. Medical. Drs. Sproule & Carter. hysicians, Surgeons, Accoucheurs

Chas. R. Wilkes,

-Millers's building. Frost & Frost. DARRISTERS, AND ASTORNEYS. Not every criminal who incurs the hancers, &c., Owen Sound, have rest

> J. W. Frost, LL. County Crown Attorney. ARRISTER and ATTORNEY - AT-LA

Solicitor in Chancery, &c.

chases With

It nets my

It acts up

t Regulat

Quieta :

t Nouring

It opens th

has benefited

Learries c

James Masson.

DUNDALK

. B.-Money to Lend on Real Estate

incurable by

icial Land Surveyor Charles Rankin's | DEAR SIR!-I stock of original Field Notes, Plans, Erysipelas for Instructions, &c., of all his Surveys | your Indian I in the last fifty-five years, I am me Ti e present aspect of affairs in Tune therewith. Profiles and Estimates highly curious, as well as very critical ating Hills, Plans and Specifications his hand; and it, by letter, or left with G. J. BLYTH not appear either, as if the half-dezer ale, will be promptly attended to.

Tart. Stynt, leche lombard. A Sall of Nervous Debility, Mental and Indian Blood Syrup is t lxxv messes. The bill of fare for Incapacity, Impediments to Mar- ever helped me. I would on the same page, is not assigned lice in a sealed envelope, only six trial.

41 ANN ST., NEW YORF. practiced on him that I

THE widow of the Countess von Wrangel, sia, after having celeb MR. MACKAY, the Bon said to have become mor so many adventurers an not hesitate to say 1-v | man, Last week my

DISEASE (Mt. Forest, V DEAR SIR: 1 valuable Indianramps in the Stor ed, and now my ham

I can safely recomp DYSPEPSIA AND R DEAR SIR :- I hav years with Dyspensis Kidney Complaint, a am completely cured with severe Headach your valuable medicine