wirectory. Medical. I should have called the play DE ADY, SICIAN, SURGEON, ACCOUCH VB. EUGENIA P. O.

Drs. Sproule & Carter,

Frost & Frost,

James Masson,

James Lamon,

ncery, Notary Public, &c.

DUNDALK.

Wm. Brown,

nd carefully executed.

W. L. Smith.

Alexander Brown,

George Corbet, Jr.,

J. G. Sing.

Deutistry.

gotels.

MARKDALE.

MEAFORD, Ont.

ous to and from all trains.

PRICEVILLE, Ont.

JOHN VAN HORN, Proprietor.

Wines and Liquors and the best stabling. Careful hostler.

ND. LOAN AND GENERAL AGENT.

a term of years, and interest half yearmber 21st, 1880.

RNEY-AT-LAW, SOLICITOR IN

ned at lowest rates on persona tate. Lands bought and sole nd seller introduced free of commis-

OF MARRIAGE LICENSES, &c

Money to Lend on Real Estate se-

ERAL AGENT AND DEAFER

ev Stock Williamsford Station.

ARRISTERS, AND ATTORNEYS-AT Law, Solicitors in Chancery, Convey ra Ac. Owen Sound, have resumed at

J. W. FROST, LL. B

icians, Surgeons, Accoucheurs

ldiers did escort duty.

herton. Office open every Thursday, as spoiled his handkerchief, which king off his coat and patiently watch e stage at that critical period in the

to his seat invariably has enorm PRIME Minister Gladstone, in the mid Eastern and Irish cares, found time ulame Modjeska's first apoearance t " Marie Stuart" at the Co Actresses' Arts.

stock of original Field Notes, Plans, Poor Laurie Western was afflicted by there was a thic which ran upt trading Hills, Plans and Specifications Building Bridges, furnished on applicacarefully shave Money to Loan at 8 per cent interest. idale, will be promptly attended to.

ANSIONHOUSE

ly the best of liquors and cigars kept. OYAL HOTEL, ple in the world, and spend it a ! TURKISH JOKER.—The best know pr Sedan in reading a novel. It was st of the Barons.

bramuses?" and came down from the The next time, when he asked ow;" wh reupon, he said, "Then I er, the congregation prepared an ansa ich they thought would corner er-preacher, and said; "Some of us lo i some of us don't;" whereupon delivered at any house in town mptly replied, "Let those who kind those who don't," and once more neep and Cattle. t the Queen has sufficient an con

m the heavy sorrow v hich dancened to be able to take pleasure in er Majesty's imperative du. to at at the State balls and concort given every season, and the o leave there names and address at Mo which are still issued in the heon's Hotel, Revere House, Markdale me; and next year I hope Her M will positively pay the highest 1 rices. l agree to receive her distinguished gu person at Buckingham Palace." C. W. & A. SPEERS. THE Emperor Napoleon spent the B

MARKDALE, ONT. PRIDAY. NOVEMBER 26.

LABORATORY

Disease. The Best REMEDY KNOWN to Man! 70,000 AGENTS HAVE SOLD SINCE 1870 This Syrup Possesses Varied Properties. It stimulates the Pytynline in the Saliva.

causes Wind and Souring of the food in the stomach. If the medicine in taken immedi ately after eating the fermentation of food i. It acts upon the ...iver. tacts upon the Kidneys. t Regulates the Bowels t Purifics the Blood. It Quiets the Aervous System. It Nourishes, Strengthens and Invigor It carries off the Old Blood and makes new It opens the pores of the skin and induce. Healthy Perspiration. It neutralizes the hereditary taint, or re food into glucose. A deficiency in Pytyaline and it can be taken by the mr t delicate bate, or the aged and feeble, care only being required in al tention to directions. PRICE OF LARGE BOTTLES. PRICE OF SMALL BOTTITT, Read the VOLUNTARY TEST MON of Persons who have been CURED by the use of the BLOOD PURIFIER. FOR DYSPEPSIA AND LIVER COMPLAINT. eine I ever before used. MRS. M. J. BRIDGE.

SAVED HER LIFE.

Kelvin, Brant Co., Ont. Dear Sir-I have been under the loctors' hands almost continually for eight years, this year being the first that I have not employed: ny After using your Indian 1 od Syrup for a brief space of time, I was enabled to do all my work. I truly believe it was the means of saving my and Land Sales, Punctually at-

MRS. MARY LEONARD. CURES COUGHS AND COLDS

Buriora, Brant Co., Ont. Money to Loan at low DEAR SIR :- In February, 1876, was afflicted with a severe Cough which grew worse, confining me to my room, and was finally pronounced incurable by my physician. In Jan., 1877, I commenced using the Indian Blood Syrup, when I at once commenced to gain in strength, and in and Markdale. Having purchased a short time I was enabled to do a fair day's work. My Cough is now rts. Instructions, &c., of all his Surveys | entirely gone. ISAAC HORNER, J. P.

> CURES ERYSIPELAS. Mt. Forest,

Wellington Co., Ont., Can. DEAR SIR:-I was severely afflicted with Erysipelas for two years, and a short trial of our Indian Blood Syrup effectually cured MRS. JANET ANDERSON.

LIVER COMPLAINT. Mt. Forest, Wellington Co., Ont., Can. DEAR SIR :- I have used your great Idian Blood Syrup for Liver Complaint, and have received great benefit therefrom. I recommend its use to all similarly afflicted.

MELSON CARR. DISEASE OF THE STOMACH, Mt. Forest, Wellington Co., Ont., Can. DEAR SIB:-This is to certify that your valuable Indian Blood Syrup cured me of Cramps in the Stomach. W. N. CURROW DISEASE OF THE STOMACH. Cross Hill, Waterloo Co., Ont.

DEAR SIR:-I was troubled with severe Pains in my Stomach, and also with Loss of Appetite and was unable to get anything to relieve me until I took your Indian Bloo Syrup which effected a speedy cure. I shall always give your medicine the praise it so NANCY LEE

SCABBY HANDS. Neustadt, Grey Co., Ont. DEAR SIR: - My Hands became Scabby and I was unable to tell what it was and went to a doctor, who gave me medicing which did no good. I then procured some your Indian Blood Syrup and had taken

MRS. HENRY HUFF. DYSPEPSIA AND KIDNEY COMPLAINT Westport, Jan. 29, 1879. DEAR SIR :- I have been suffering fo years with Dyspepsia and Indigestion and Kidney Complaint, and have tried a great many remedies, but without effect. I be good Stabling and attentive Hostler's. am-completely cured and feel like a new THOS. ATKINSON, Proprietor. man. Last week my son was taken sick with severe Headache, and a few doses of your valuable medicine cured him. DAVID BLACK, CURES DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGES

Westport, Ont., Jan. 26, 1879. DEAR SIR:-I have been afflicted with Indian Blood Syrup is the only medicine that ever helped me. I would say to all suffering from this disease to give your medicine a fair W. H. RORISON.

Sole General Agents for Canada, Northop and Lyman, No. 21, Toronto St. West, Toronto. Also Agents for Mother Noble's Healing Syrup, an English Discovery which is well known as a valuable and effective Blood Purifier throughout the World."

An Italian, unfamiliar with the English language, used to sell fish on the streets, using the usual call-" Freshee fishee, all alive unconscious that he is not telling the lie he 1-y hinks he is.

A MAN darted into a store at Nicholsville, means that Parnell is advocating with a Ohio, bought the first travelling bag he could his might. There is the truest wisdom in get his hands on, and hurried forward to-the policy adopted by the R. C. Clergy in ward the railroad station. On the way he this matter, for in a country where the hacaught up several bricks from a pile, and put tred of the creeds runs so high, the most them into the bag. His object was understood when a passenger discovered that his the movement became identified with Ro own satchel, containing $3,000, had been man Catholicism. It would certainly retaken from the seat by his side, and the one sult in a general uprising, both of Protes with bricks put in its place.

THE well-known tea clipper Cutty Sark, ed Ireland's history. In strong contrast London to China and Japan, in charge of the second officer, who reports that when the vessel was lying at Anjer the chief officer struck one of the crew, who shortly afterward died from the effects of the blow. The Captain is said to have assisted the officer to escape on board an American ship, and then Biliousness, Nervous Debi'ily, etc, to have deliberately jumped overboard and

To play for high stakes at "keerds," most vigorous repressive measures, and, when when one does not understand the game, is I they are driven to that course, there can be sometimes a perilous manceuvre. When I but one issue—the quenching in the blood the late Baron Bodisco was Russian Minister of poor misguided peasants of the flame that at Washington he gave very fine dinners. Parnell has so rashly kindled. which converts the starch and sugar of the After dinner, on one occasion, some of the guests sat down to a game of whist, at which the Baron was not an expert, and he lost over a thousand dollars. At the supper ester Democrat, who was formerly, we believe table he announced, in sad tones, "Ladies a clergman, and who is thoroughly posted and gentlemens! - It is my disagreeable on personal matters relating to the clergy, duty to make the announce that these recep- gives in a recent letter the ages of severa tions must have an end, and to declare them | ministers who are prominent in New York at end for the present-because why? The and Brooklyn. "ELBERT S. PARKER, of the fund for their expend, ladies and gentlemen, Reformed Church is sixty; Dr. ORMISTON is exhaust, and they must discontinue."

ARMITAGE is sixty-one. He is a native of For the first time in the record of the England, and was at an early age very settlement of a large estate, the expressed useful in the Church. He made attempts at wishes of a rich man have been literally fel- preaching when only sixteen, and some of lowed by his heirs rather than their legal these efforts were highly successful. THEO- tions. rights as expressed in his will. Mr. Joshua DORE L. CUYLER . fifty-eight. HOWARD T. Jeanes, who died in January last in Phil- CROSBY is fifty-four. JOHN HALL IS in his favour. adelphia, left an estate of about $1,000,000, fiftieth year. SAMUEL D. BURCHARD is still bequeathing to his two brothers and two a working preacher, though now sixty-eight sisters $100,000 each, and to his sisters addi- Houghton, of the 'little church round the tionally all his real estate in Philadelphia. corner,' is in his sixty-first year. Morgan It was the intention of the testator to make of St. Thomas's, is sixty-two. Bellows, the certain bequests to public institutions and a veteran of Unitarianism, is sixty-six, while few friends, but this he neglected to do; but | ROBERT COLLYER is fifty.eight. TAYLOR of the brothers and sisters decided not only to the Broadway Tabernacle, and Robinson, of have the wish of the testator carried out, the Memorial Church, each is in his fifty but consented to an equal division of the es- first year. RYLANCE, of St. Mark's, is fifty Dear Sir-This is to certify that tate between them after the gifts to institu- four. TALMAGE is forty-eight, and V. your valuable Indian Blood Syrup tions and individuals and the expenses inci- Dyke, who was his most severe opponent, dent to the transfer of the property had been | ten years older. BEECHER has just entered has benefited me more for Despepsia deducted. Of the total amount five gifts of his sixty eighth year, and has a greater deand Liver Complaint, than any medi- $2000 each were paid to individuals, and the gree of vitality than any American preacher ollowing donations were made: Working of that age." Home for Blind Women, $5000; Working Home for Blind Men, $5000; Women's

That the Sultan has most effectually out Hospital, $20,000; Academy of Natural manouvred the Powers. The "sick man" has played a deep game, and by skilfull Sciences, $20,000: Penn Asylum, $5000. The very large sum of $46,444,40 to Register. manipulating the representatives of the variof-Wills Taylor as a collateral inheritance ous counties, and, working on their mutua jealousies, has fairly bluffed them. tax. The balance of $874,21481 was divided into four equal shares of $218,524 each, for each of the surviving brothers and sis- brother. Lord Colin Camqbell, with Miss ters. This estate of nearly $1,1000,000 was Blood has been definitely arranged. settled up within eight months of the time bride is a beautiful Irish girl, and belongs to

THE marriage of the Marquis of Lorne's a distinguished family, this policy on the part of Archbishop McCabe of New York, who identified himself, to a certain extent, at least, with the Irish agitators who visited America, and was said supreme Pontiff. It remains to be seen how eventuate, but there is every indication of the prosecutions of the Parnell party will the part of the government of adopting the

THE New York correspondent of the Rochis fifty-nine; Dr. CHAMBERS, sixty-one, Dr.

thus to have incurred the anger of the Pianos and Organs.

J. A. CRAWFORD

DEALER IN

PIANOS AND ORGANS! on the back hair.

OF THE

Manufacture. Uxbridge

Having a thorough knowledge of Musical Instruments would invite those desirous of purchasing an instrument

GIVE ME A TRIAL!

I can furnish good testimonials from parties to whom I have sold that they will be dealt honorably with in all cases. By opened supplied with the best the market afsgood Stabling and attentive Hostler's. specimilated with the best the market afspecimilated specimination and stabling and attentive Hostler's. specimilated specimination and seed like cheaper than they can buy elsewhere.

> Monthly or quarterly instalments would be accepted, with a small payment down.

LOCK BOX 73,

Uxbridge, Ont.

WOMAN GOSSIP.

She gave me with earnest art, The pretty coquette who long may share

Of that cherished raven tress Of hair increases, I guess.

And weave an emblem of vagrant love, A various-coloured braid. The hair-breadth 'scapes I have made

Before the Church Before the lofty church I stand The organ's melancholy strain Weave strange thoughts in my doubt- ating circumstances. ing brain.

Why do I linger near the door Will holy tunes my spirit win ? Ah, no, small reverence is mine; I wait because my love's within.

Fashion Notes. GOLD sontache is revived. FANOY furs are in demand. Scoron fashions are revived. BONNET strings are a yard long. STRIPED cheviots are very popular. SEALSKIN remains the fashionable fur.

LIGHT cloths and serges are much worn. PILORIM suits appear among late importa-MOUSQUETAIRE gloves grow in fashionable

BLUE-BLACK and drab-green Scotch plaids Baby elephant jewellery is taking the place of little pig ornaments. VIOLET satin merveilleuse plays an portant part in dress effects. SEAL cloaks and seal dolmans will be worn as well as seal sacques. Some of the polonaises for young girls are uttoned down the back. COMBINATIONS of plush and satin are a popular for bonnets as for costumes. SEAL ulsters a la Sarah Bernhardt are mad to the order of a few fashionable women.

Bonner strings are fringed, beaded, tasselled, or shirred and lace-trimmed at the QUANTITIES of bead and gold-thread embroidered laces appear among the late im-January suits do not take readily, but they are brought out from week to week on new

THE entire long tablier of dresses are frequently formed of bead-embroidered velvet

cluding white plush, will be used for entire of the groom. PRINCE OF WALES red and monks brown are the newest shades of these very fashionable colours. Many dressy hats for young girls are fluffy silk pompon. THE latest caprice is to have one's bedroon upholstery to match one's dresses, and china to match the bedroom. Muyps match the bonnet, and are trimme with ecru lace, wide ribbon bows, and ornaments of gold, silver, steel, and jet. THE Macfarlane cloak has a full pleated back, a large round cape, a hood lined with plaid Surab, and a collar of brown plush.

Wool and silk mixed goods in silk squares and streaks of an undefinable gas-like hue on a soft wool sober colour are much worn. ladies wear them in a long looped bow low

LIGHT-COLOURED, rough-surfaced cloths are preferred for jackets, but warmth of effect is given by having the collars, cuffs, and pockets of fur or seal-brown plush. SEA lion and dahlia shades of purple and maroon tinged with crimson appear in the latest importations of satins de Lyons. damasses, and silk and wool mixtures. Some of Worth's handsomest costumes as trimmed with two bands of fur around the skirt, with only a narrow pleated balaveuse flounces below the bottom band of fur. DRESSY aprons of satin and moire antique, trimmed with one pocket of lace or fringed passementerie and a trimming to match at the bottom, will be worn with dressy home

SHARP contrasts are avoided in the difsome costume, but the shaded effects are produced by the difference in sheen of velvet or plush and satin or silk.

young man carried away by a balloon saw her beau of promise in the sky. TOTTLE: "I wonder why dolls are nearly having her hair done up exactly as it should always girls, Tom ?" Tom : "Why, because boys hate being made babies of !" SOMEBODY notes that love is more interest ing than marriage, for the same reason that romance is more enticing than history. A young lady is gaining great reputation as a violinist. Still she is not the only fair

one who has mastered the art of handling girl, after reflecting : "Yes." The small boy : "Then take off my boots. THE ladies wear their hats very large this usual, they wear their bonnets on the street and their hats at the theatre. STRIPED stockings are no longer fashionfirst families on wash days will not resemble a collection of the flags of all nations. She may dress in silk, or may dress in sating May know the languages, Greek and Latin May know fine art, may love and sigh But she ain't no good if she can't make pie. WHENEVER a single woman begins to talk of the past, and says certain events occurred them, you may say she has arrived at the age known as old maidenhood.

A HAPPY COUPLE .- " How it it that Wilkins and his wife live so happily tegether Why they've been married two-and-twenty years and have never had a row !" ." Oh, that's a very simple matter! She is out the whole day washing, and he is a night-watchman, and out all night !'

nes and embroidery, and so are the christen- ground that experience taught that widows to sanctify, vice.

whole layette is five thousand eight hundred such marriages brought them, to the pre-usually accurate.

THE LAST WHALE DID FOR ANN JONES. -

a simple-hearted, transparent young fellow, and when we sailed had been 'payin' attenthink, did not fully reciprocate his ardent feelings. At all events, the parting on her side was not so affectionate as he could wish, she only kept him as a stand-by in default would say, with a despondent shake of his head-'I don't believe Ann Jones 'll have months, and had met with fair success. Stiles' tone was modified. The burden of his monologue changed to 'Well, I don'no but what Ann Jones 'll have me after all.'

A Wedding Garment.

wear at a levee following her wedding is of fleece as they dance down the boards and the most delicate shade of heliotrope. made with an extremely long court train cut square, and decorated with a superb pattern in heavily brocaded velvet of a royal as to show the satin underneath, and border ed with point lace an inch and a half deep The front of the skirt is formed of a plastro or tablier of point lace in one piece, which over the satin underdress, displays the most exquisite patterns of orange-blossoms, roses lilies, ferns, and trailing vines. The bodic pattern is added, and is of unusual length reaching from the crown of the head to th foot of the immense train. To be worn wit this royal costume is a superb parure WHITE materials of every description, in- diamonds and pearls-a gift from the father

The Darling Baby. The Marquis Robert de San Marzano, who married an American, Miss Helen Gillender, has ordered in this country some things for trimmed only with a cord and tassels and a their baby. A willow cradle has a canopy decorated with draperies, medallions, points Pearls that ever ruled the demi monde- gasping for breath he noticed signs of returnof Valenciennes lace, and blue satin ribbon. banish that blonde when nature had given turning life in his dying sister-in-law. Sumbands of French embroidery, and others of lawn, with lace enough on them to make hat announce the day of his destiny over, and one almost superhuman effort, and even then cost $500 for four. An eider-down quilt the blonde a good for naught? And have all struggling in the throes of dissolution, he and some exquisitely fine blankets are in- the poets that ever handled pen launched crawled about on the ground until he reached cluded in the outfit. There are three dozen out in praise of the hair that Titian painted a large stone, which he caught in his clammy dresses in the wardrobe, many of them of to have their script become a dead letter? hands, and then, wriggling his distorted body lawn, mull, and fine laces. "Young moth- Shall Maud, and Enid, and Elaine, and over the ground with almost worm-like mo-Times, "can easily imagine the dainty beauty with Gurdrum, with the Lorelei, with Por- woman, and, lifting himself, he raised the of the tiny silken socks, the exquisitely em- phyria, with David when he went harp in stone as high as he could and let it fall on the broidered lawn skirts garnitured with the hand before Saul, finest of fine laces, the richness of the flannel skirts with embroidery, and the handsome tucked, trimmed, and lace finished petanything so lovely as the robes of real lacarranged in diamonds, medallions, squ res and all manner of conceits, with applique of ed or uprated until it looks like a round

When a girl concludes to put up her hair leading into the hall to keep out the flames and went to her mirror to fix her hair. Any body who has waited for a girl to fix her hair knows that it takes time and a great deal and wait until she had arranged her hair kind, hasn't called to see her since leap year but when the careful young girl was safel landed on the pavement she found that THE small boy said to the little girl : "Do had forgotten her stockings.

1728 to the governor of South Carolina by platform, until it finally lulls for a little whose dearest hopes in going to Sweden had sixteen maidens of Charleston. It ran thus : "The humble petition of all the maids we, the humble petitioners, are at present able, and hereafter the back-yards of our in a very melancholy disposition of mind considering how all the bachelors are blindly captivated by widows, and our own youthful charms thereby neglected; in conseency will, for the future, order that no till the maids are provided for ; or else to invading our liberties, and likewise a fine to married to widows. The great disadvantage that he does not live beneath the shadow of 000 sterling, which was to be used in subjuit is to us maids is that the widows, by their forward carriage, do snap up the young men and have the vanity to think their mer beyond ours, which is a great imposition on us, who ought to have the preference. This furore in Gotham as she did in London, but officers and crew escaped. Many divers consideration, and hope you will permit no THE outfit for the baby of the Marchioness duty bound, will ever pray." The forlorn charity of the world, or very little for might be recovered. Whether anything has di Caraglio, formerly Miss Helen Gillender, sixteen would have approved the edict of the its ideas of morality. Genius, which she been found is not yet known, for the workis on exhibition in New York. Some of the Portuguese king, which forbade widows more undeniably has, should not surely be conmen are bound to secrecy, but it is expected

A HEARTLESS FRAUD. - A merchant of reputation, advertised that he would give a fresh cigar, "about Stiles, a shipmate of mine on one of my early voyages. Stiles was me anyhow.' When we had been out a few With a thousand barrels under hatches he barrels he had assumed a self-satisfied

A very magnificent trousseau is making in and bismuth are seizing the sceptre. No Paris for the daughter of a wealthy Turkish | more will the lithe ladies of the spectacular gentleman. One dress which the bride will and the burlesque display the new golden It is | shake at us the wealth of their purple shade, cut out and appliqued down so magnificent lace veil matching the tablier in

There are sheets with tucked borders and her the right to be? Did Titian paint his moning the full strength of every muscle and Fixing Her Hair.

Carolina's Sweet Sixteen

Well, listen while I tell you her story, in the trough of the sea. After many at-Berne has been sentenced to imprisonment $5,000 to any respectable white woman who boat was pitched up and down on the for three years and a half for a very heartless | would walk unveiled from the Adams house | seas as though it had been in the surf, and fraud, perpetrated on a young lady to whom | entrance down Washington street with him, | before he could approach nearer the line he was engaged to be macried. He took her at an hour when all the fashionables were parted. Many of the crew in the riggins to London to marry her, and whilst there he | promenading. For weeks that offer remain- | seemed to have their dunnage strapped in possessed himself of her fortune of 15,000 ed untaken, for his reputation was such that the rigging, and they did not respond to his france, and all the jewellery she had, and no respectable woman would be seen with appeals to them to jump overboard. By left her at a hotel without a penny. The him, and the advertisement had said "that their signalling he learned that the bark was The moonlight, and the chanting tones jury found him guilty, without any extenu- none others need apply." Finally, this wo- the Macedonia, from Pensacola, Fla., for man who has just passed us agreed to his Berwick, England. She had ten feet of "IMPORTANT, if true," and especially terms, and to join him at the appointed water in her hold, and was leaking badly. pleasant to the parties interested, was an place and time. When the hour came, Mr. The day was waning, and a thick have was incident that occurred at the marriage of - was on hand. Soon a carriage drove up setting in. So much difficulty had Hardie Mr. William Converse Skinner and Miss with the lady. It had been noised abroad and his crew experienced in reaching the Florence C. Roberts, at Hartford, recently, that the offer had been taken up, and quite sinking bark, and such a tax upon the The father of the bride is a manufacturer of a crowd had gathered to see him pay his strength of his crew had it proved to keep large wealth, and the groom was lately made $5,000. He helped her alight, offered her their boat head to the sea, that he finally a partner in the firm. The incident to his arm, walked a few steps with her, when decided it would be fatal to all hands to rewhich we refer was a wedding present from she removed her veil at his request and re- main longer away from the stsamship, which Mr. Roberts to the young couple of a check | vealed to his gaze a face as black as night. was fast becoming indistinct. Before refor $100,000. At least that was the tele- "You have deceived me," he said, "this is turning, however, he made a final effort to graphic announcement, and the wires are not fair." "I am not a negro," she replied, get the men in the shrouds to jump overand to prove it she pulled off her gloves and board. This they seemed loth to do. Their showed a pair of hands as white as yours are ship was lunging about in the seaway, the this minute. The man turned toward his waves making a clear breach over her. I carriage, paid her the $5,000, and she drove would have been fatal, he says, to have apthe amused crowd of by-standers. It turned sides his boat would have been crushed out afterward that she was very poor, and This was the reason, he says, that he was that she had a magnificent voice that she finally compelled to sheer off and make for could not cultivate for want of money, and the steamship. His men were so exhausted this is the way she overcame that obstacle. When they reached their ship that they had She went to Europe and studied five years to be lifted aboard by a fall and tackle. and returned one of our most brilliant sing- Capt. Donaldson decided to stay as close ers. You can tell from her proud bearing as possible to the sinking ship and make and refined appearance that she is just the another attempt at rescue in the morning.

The Blondes Must Go.

The blondes must go, says an exchange, because we are weary of them; because they bark, the California proceeded on her way became still more hopeful. 'Chance is have been weighed in the balance and found hither pretty good for Ann Jones,' he would say. to be anything but fine, true gold; because The officers of the California are of the Pretty good now.' At fifteen hundred it is high time the brunettes were coming to opinion that the bark was settling very the front, and, finally, because fashion wills slowly into the sea. They say she was, when manner, and thus he soliloquised-'I guess it. And so the blonde must go. She is no last seen, disectly in the track of passing BEADED stockinet for Jerseys is a late im- there's no danger but what Ann Jones 'll longer to gild the stage and the parlor; and vessels, and they think the crew may have have me now.' At two thousand barrels- the sudden flood of brightness that used to been rescued. The bark was last seen in Speckled woollen stuffs are among novelty 'Ann Jones 'll be glad enough to get me be so rare that when, once in an age, a woman latitude 48° 47' north, longitude 21° 57' now, I know,' When we cut the last whale was born with it, painters painted her, trou- west. that was to fill the Rose, and squared away badours celebrated her, and locks of her hair The bark Macedonia was commanded by for home, Stiles threw his hat in the air with | were handed down like a treasuse-that Capt. Parker. She was built at Bath. Me., a yell of triumph-'I'll be blowed if I'll brightness is going into eclipse; and where in 1845. She was 125 feet in length, 27 feet AFTER all, the Fanchon remains the have Ann Jones anyhow!' And he didn't." bleaching baths and alkaline water and an beam, 19 feet depth of hold, and of 476 tons nota and orpiments and bichlorides of tin and and gold powders have reigned, litharge and Newcastle, England. nitrate of silver and Aleppo galls and iron

> Fine locks, Stained like pale honey cozed from topmost

Sun-blanched the live-long summer. No more will ever damsel who patrols the nettes, will efface their airy softness.

> God's child, with the dew On His gracious gold hair?

Rottenness in Republicanism.

theoretically perfect, but that is a very dif- wife had also been quarreling, and that his erent matter from being, practically, an ef. sister-in-law simply took his wife's part. icient and satisfactory form of Government. roved in the history of the greatest Rehere are great movements taking place beautiful Parish estate in Newport. among great nations, -- just as in large bodies s offensive and corrupt is brought up by agsomething like the following: When the

the mud will stick ; they have a little leisure ft to deify and praise their own candidate. The most highfalutin terms of praise are M. Jules Jacquemart, the famous French mirers, than his opponent was at the amount of boots and shoes, beginning at early Greek of vileness the same men discovered in him. and Roman times, and numbering between All this programme is carried out in the three and four hundred pieces. A curious petition was that addressed in press, on the stump and on the electional while the votes are being counted and the been to meet Fredrika Bremer, was presented returns made. When the result is known, to her on the deck of a steamer, she had never there are shouts of gratulation heard on heard of him, and was quite stiff. He proevery side, mingled of course, with howls duced one of his books, however, as she left of indignant disappointment; and, finally, him; and after an hour or so she hurried back. the latter merge into shouts of "corruption" "I know you now," said she; and thus bebribery," "cheating," impersonation," gan a lifelong friendship. 'falsifying of returns" &c. &c. The recent election is a typical one in this respect, at least-and the outcry is that Garfield has November 25, 1780, while on her way to been elected by a system of bare-faced fraud. Norwich, Connecticut, the Hussar struck on The scene from an ontsider's point of view Pot Rock, in Hell Gate. She had on board is, far from an edifying one, and the more seventy American prisoners, chained to the one regards it, the more thankful one feels, gun-deck, and, it was believed, about £960the Stars and Stripes.

> her besmirched moral reputation does not have worked upon the wreck, and in June seem to be so much a fault as a merit in of this year operations have begun anew in her. This says either a great deal for the the hope that some of the lost treasure sidered a sufficient cloak to cover, still less that the search will continue until ice in the hands in appeal for help.

clearing away his boat, which, manned by a hardy crew, was soon in the huge seas that had been generated by a fierce northeaster Officer Hardie says that, with great exer-

sort of a woman who would do such a thing When darkness set in a white signal light with a dignity, and come out none the worse was seen on the bark, and a red light was shown aboard the steamship in response. The gale continued all night, and in the morning the sinking bark was not in sight,

CUR THEM—DIRAFPEARING IN THE PIGET —A POSSIBILITY THAT THEY HAVE BEEN

York yesterday on the Anchor line steam

California saw a thrilling spectacle in mid

Capt. Donaldson of the California brough

After describing a great circle with lookouts in the tops, without seeing anything of the register: Her owner is M. Thompson, of

Fiendish Fury

ATTEMPT TO TAKE HIS OWN LIFE ABLY SEC-ONDED BY HIS WIFE.

At Richmond, Va., intelligence has been reavenues out-Saxon the Saxon in her braids bloody crimes known in the history of murand curis. No more will the little love locks | ders, and one which shows how strongly hatflutter gold-threaded round the temples, but red animates a human being even in the hour dark and heavy braids and waves must of death. The tragedy took place yesterday, carly sunrise tints; but deep, rich bodies of morning early had a quarrel with his wife's colors, of crimson and orange, and emerald, sister, who lived in the house with him. and lapis blue, the only wear of your bru- Thoroughly infuriated, he went out and got a large knife used for cutting corn, and, com-And do they really suppose-the people ing back, assaulted her with the murderous who utter the pronunciamento-that the weapon. He pursued the unfortunate woman blonde is going to cease at their dictum? into the vard and stabbed and hacked her until The blonde who went-a nondescript, or he thought she was dead. After this he went with black hair, and sat patiently as the into the house, and, taking his gun, discharcamel's hair brush passed over each hair till ged it into the air. He then reloaded the the black hair became brown, and the brown weapon, and, proceeding to within a few feet red, and the red gold, and the gold flaxen- of where his victim lay weltering in blood, that the silly blonde may go, and all her glory placed the muzzle of the gun under his own with her. But the blonde of art and litera- chin and fired, the load passing through his ture, and history, the blonde of beauty- mouth, tearing of the tongue and lodging in could all the Eugenies and Metternichs that the upper part of the jaw. He fell in his ever ruled the court, could all the Cora ownlgore, and while struggling on the ground woman with that hair to have some modiste concentrating the whole of his vital forces in Guinevere depart into the world of shadows tion, he dragged it to the side of the dying nose of the woman, but she still struggled. The dying scoundrel, with a determination which did not leave him in his last mo ments, reached out again for the rock, with the design of dealing another blow. At this stage of the tragedy his wife appeared in the yard, and, seeing him reaching for the stone.

intends to spend the rest of her days with her the mountains. He says that every autumn MR. WENDELL PHILLIPS has been all his carious that he is often forced on account of more astonished at the number of tures, tapestries, and porcelains are so valu-

WHEN Hans Christian Andersen, one of

THE story of the British frigate Husser gating the Americans. In spite of the efforts of the commander to save the vessel, she went down in ninety feet of water, carrying The Bernhardt is making quite as great a with her all the manacled prisoners. The river prevents.